THE CARDINAL

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose
under the heaven.
a time to be born,
and a time to die:
a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up
that which is planted:
a time to kill,
and a time to heal:
a time to break down,
and a time to build up:
a time to weep,
and a time to laugh:
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance:
a time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together:
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing:
a time to get,
and a time to lose:
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away:
a time to rend,
and a time to sew:
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak:
a time to love,
and a time to hate:
a time of war,
and a time of peace.
. . . He hath made every thing beautiful in his time . . .

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 11

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We realized that it was time for a change, so you will find some significant additions to the content of this annual. Therefore, we have decided to explain a little about each section.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION 6

The intent of this section is to acquaint the students with the teachers and other members of the faculty and administration. It provides a record of the colleges attended and the degrees earned by the teachers.

CLASSES 20

This is the section entirely dedicated to the individual student. Each student is associated with his class as a whole as well as with the students in his class. The seniors, of course, receive the most attention in the Classes section. On page 248 is the Senior Index where the accomplishments of each senior is listed with his or her name.

SPORTS 106

In the sports section we have attempted to portray the excitement and spirit of the athletic seasons at Glendale High School. Although action pictures constitute most of this section, some space must be devoted to recording the accomplishments of the teams by scoreboxes and group shots.

ROYALTY 154

Those whom we have chosen to honor at special occasions such as Homecoming and the Harvest Dance appear in this section with the grace, poise, and charm for which we selected them. Of course, these people are presented in a special way with a unique art work.

HONOREES 162

Students selected by their classmates or teachers for special honors such as Boys' State or Publications Workshop are given first place in this section. Outstanding talent, citizenship, or scholarship is recognized here.

ACADEMIC 176

Because we felt that the academic life of the students was not stressed adequately in previous years, we decided to devote a whole section to this phase of activity at Glendale High School. Everything from freshman P.E. to introductory analysis is covered here.

ORGANIZATIONS 202

Just about everyone on campus belongs to one club or another. So, in this section, everyone gets into the act. We have tried to tell a little about most of the clubs. Activities and accomplishments of the various organizations throughout the year appear.

STUDENT LIFE 230

Everyday events become important and special occasions recapture their spell of excitement in the Student Life section. Years from now when you glance through this part of our annual, we hope that you will be able to relive your year 1966-67 at Glendale High.

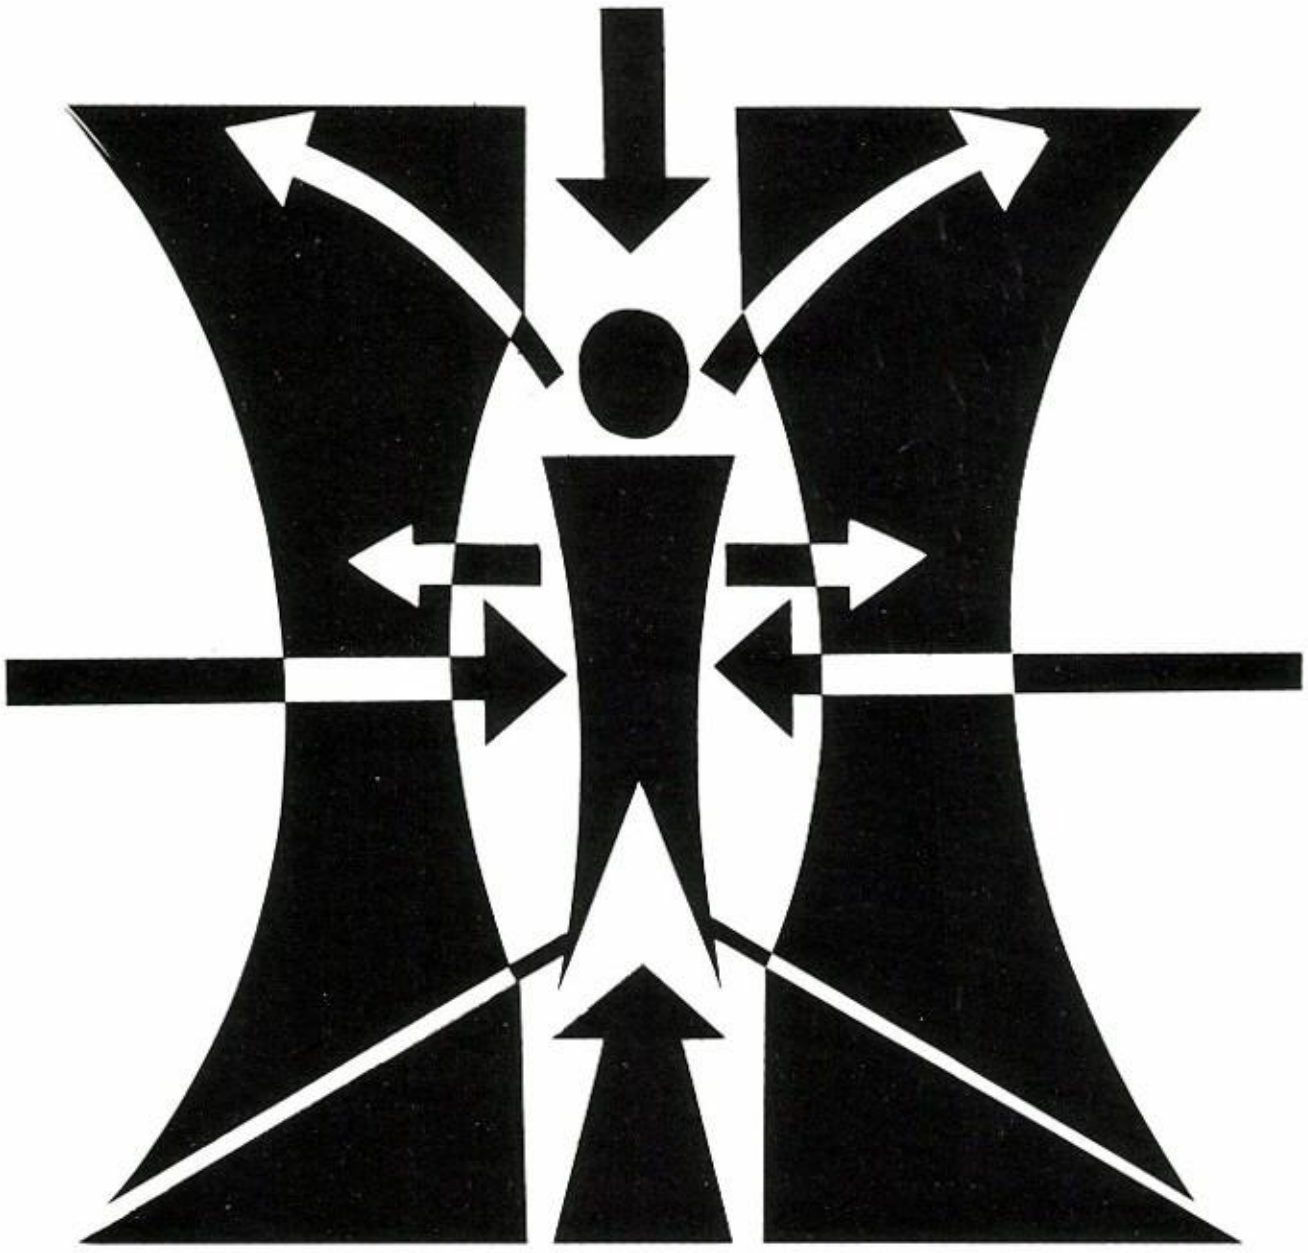
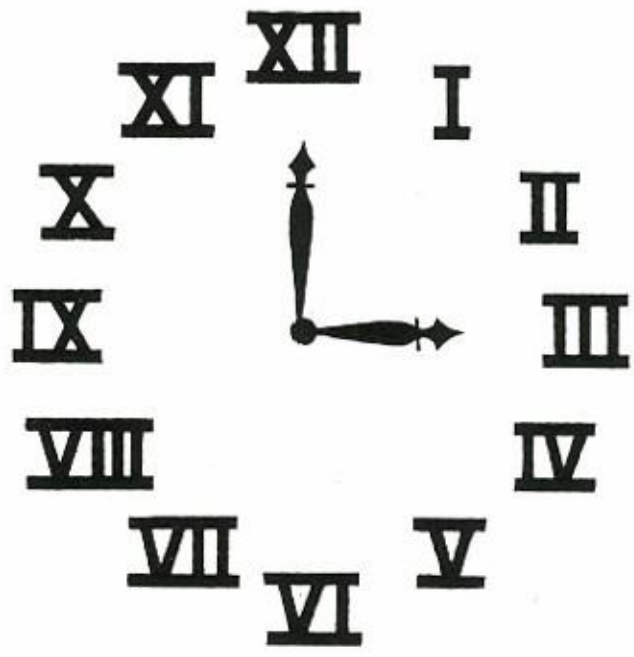
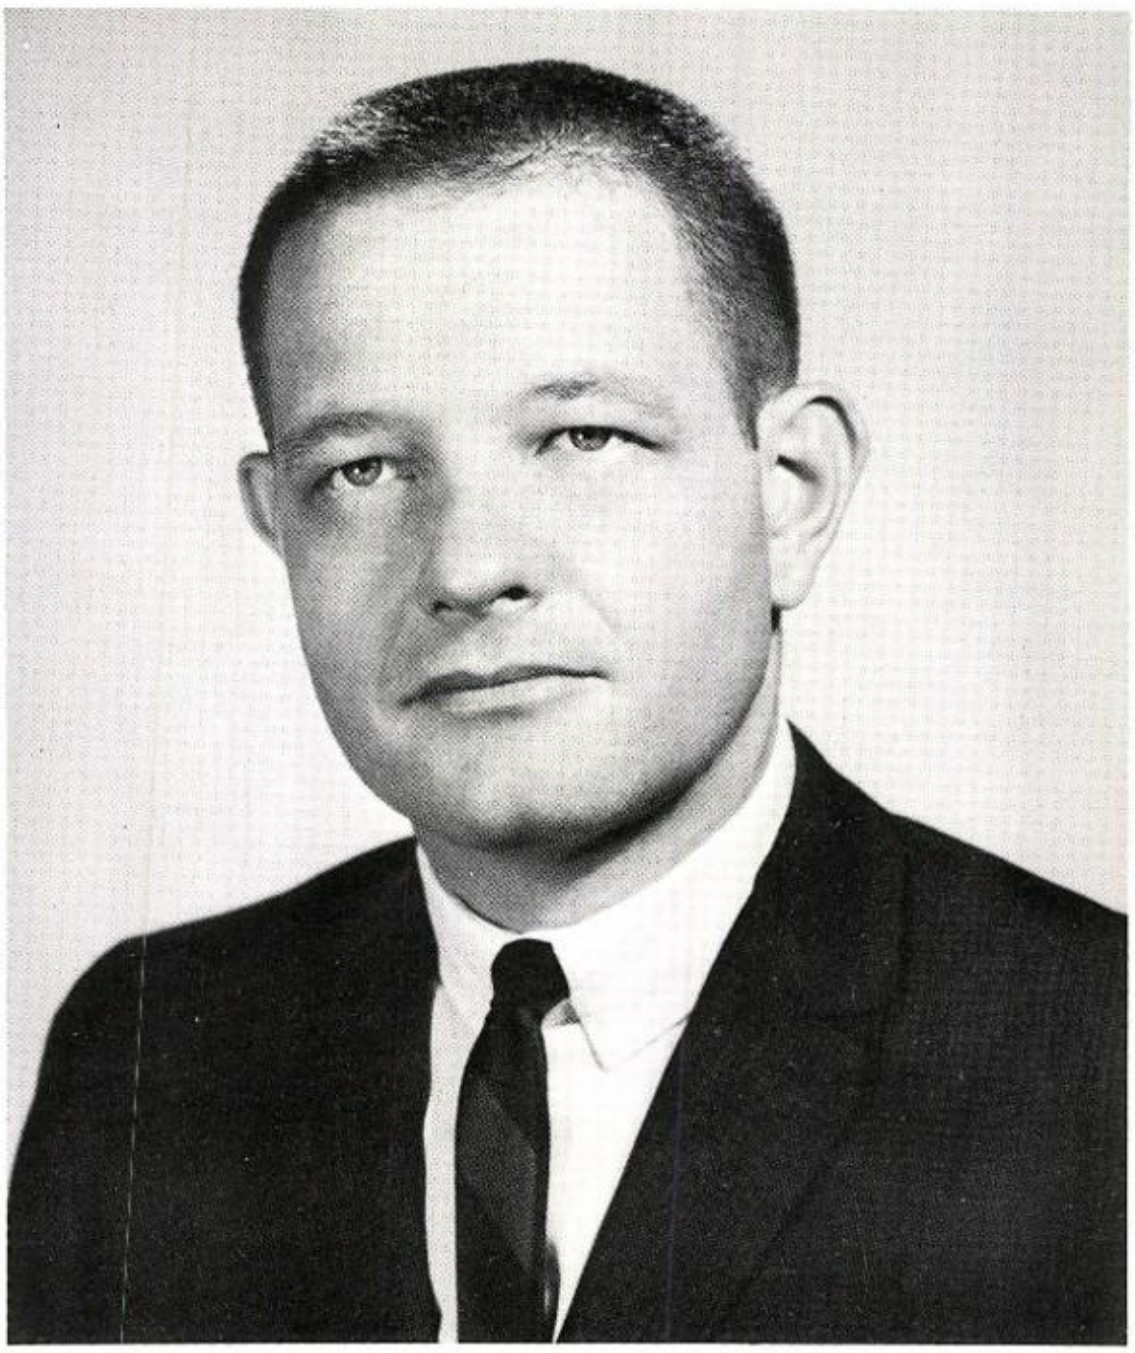
Faculty and Administration







MR. JOHN IRWIN

This 1967 Cardinal is an outstanding example of the creative power which is present in some degree and in some form in all of us. It represents the planning, the writing, the photography, the art, and the total coordination which has ultimately given us another admirable yearbook. The members of the staff have every reason to be proud of their efforts in bringing us a fine memento of the 1966-67 school year. They have another reason to be pleased as they have demonstrated one of the countless opportunities to be creative. Schools and all other social situations are overflowing with chances for each of us to best use his own individual talents; coordinate them with the skills of others, and ultimately produce or create.

My thank you to the staff of this yearbook for the book itself and the example they have given through their work.

John Irwin, Principal

As District Superintendent, Mr. Howard Roberts is the administrative head of the five-school Glendale Union High School District.

His many duties include the interviewing of new teachers and staff personnel, planning of new buildings and projects for presentation to the Board of Education for approval, and the development of curriculum and materials for the district.

MR. HOWARD ROBERTS
District Superintendent

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Mr. Don Sanderson, Dr. Joseph P. Voorhees, Mr. Art Sine, Mrs. Graydon B. Hall, Reverend Everett B. Luther

MR. JOHN IRWIN
Principal

Once again the students of Glendale High School are to be commended for their fine contributions to the school's activity program. Many worthwhile values are gained through school attendance outside of the regular academic classroom, and it is through the activity program that many values are developed. To those students returning to school next year, please give serious consideration to including one or more activities in your total school schedule.

R. Christensen

At the close of the school year, it is an appropriate time to examine the past and plan the future. Has the past year been as successful as it might have been? Were there constructive mistakes which will be valuable to present and future plans? Realistic planning now can provide an opportunity for effective living in the coming years.

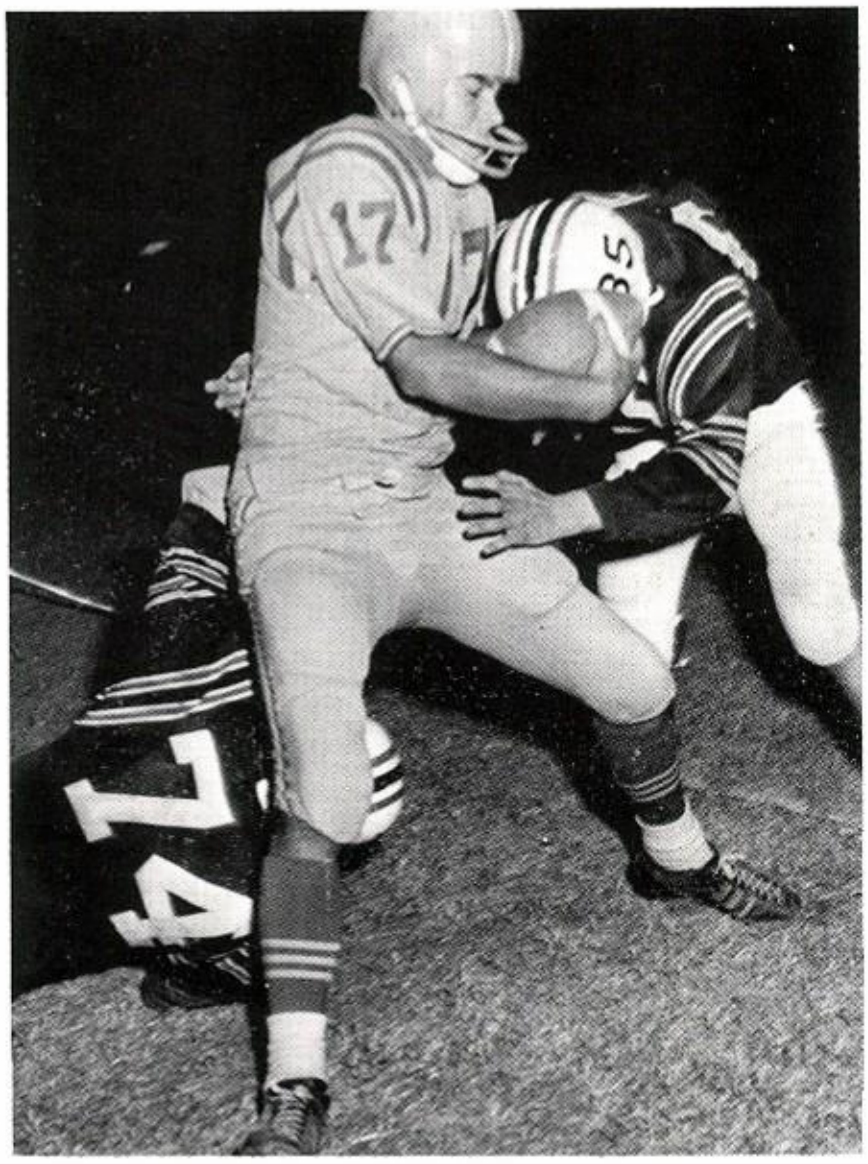
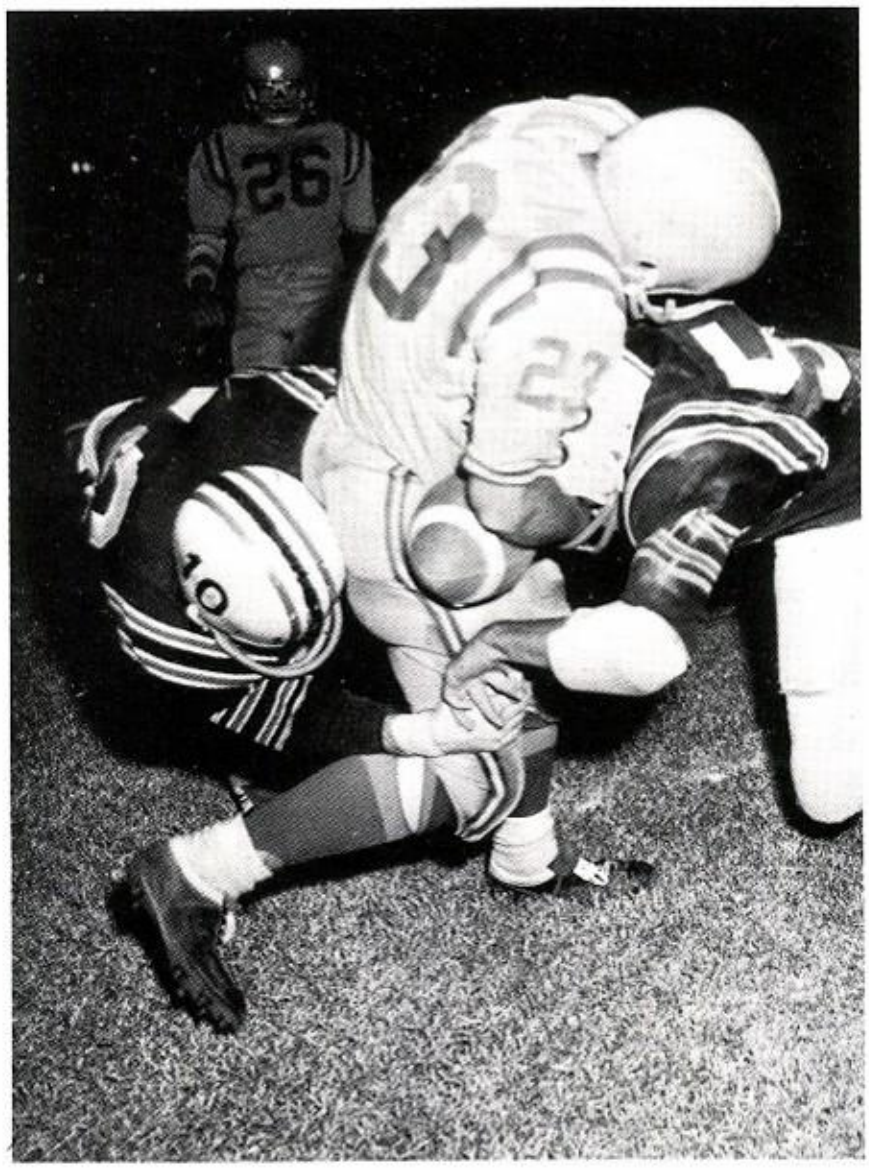
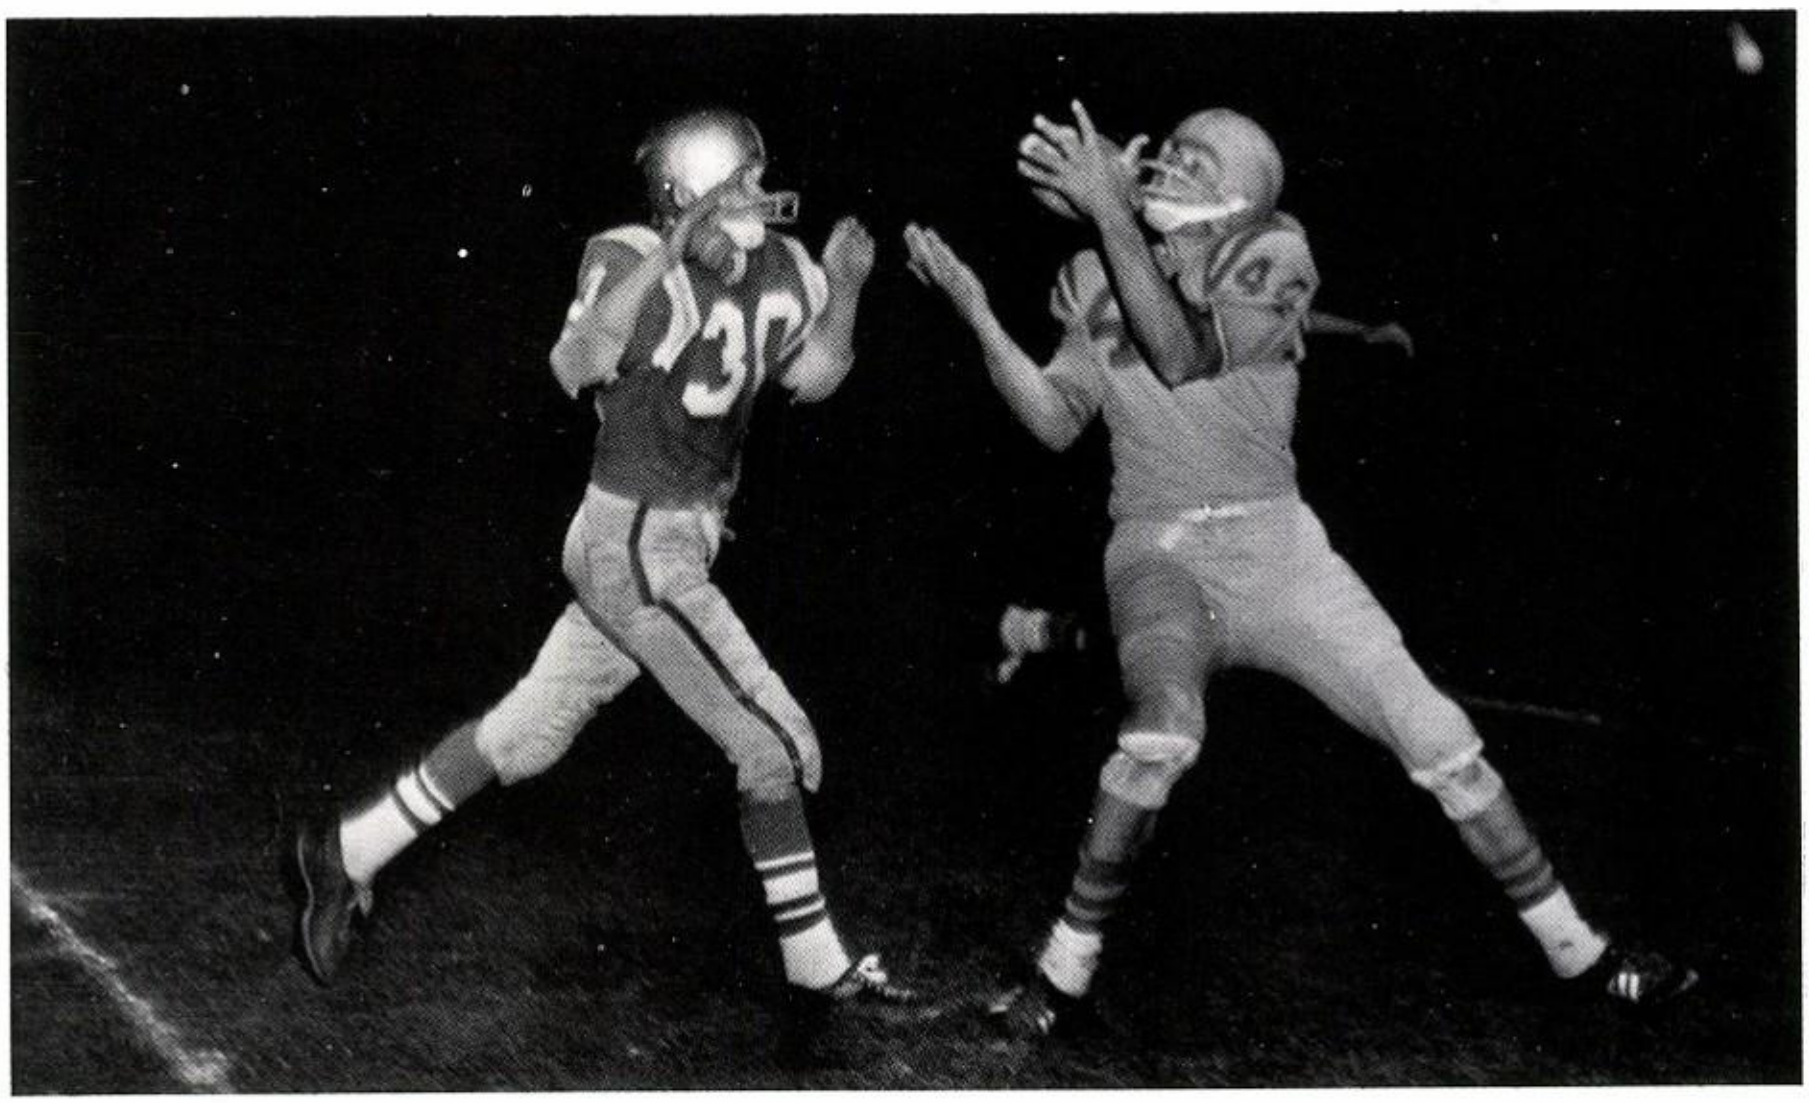
Sports

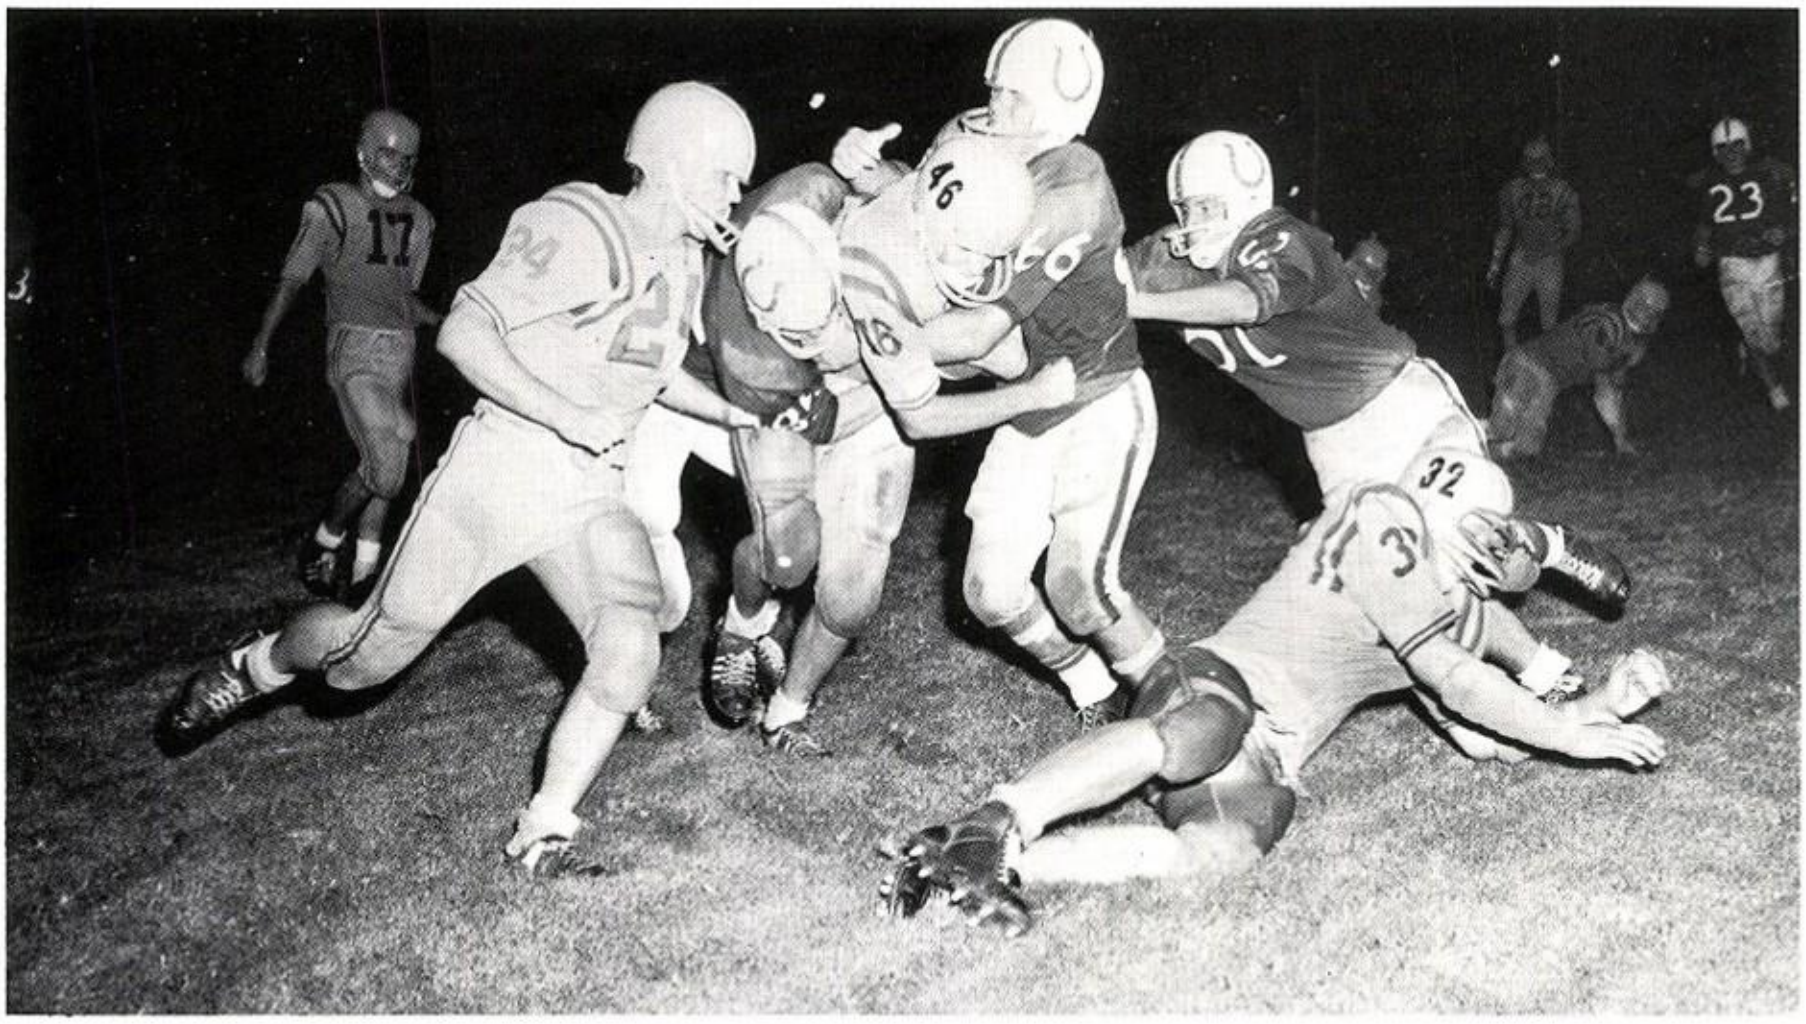




Two different Card Runners, but both with the same idea, to pound out yardage. This game, against McClintock, led to the first Cardinal Victory of the season, 14-0.



Dwight Bennett makes a key catch against Tucson. The Short to Bennett combo was one of the big factors in leading the Cards to victory throughout the season.

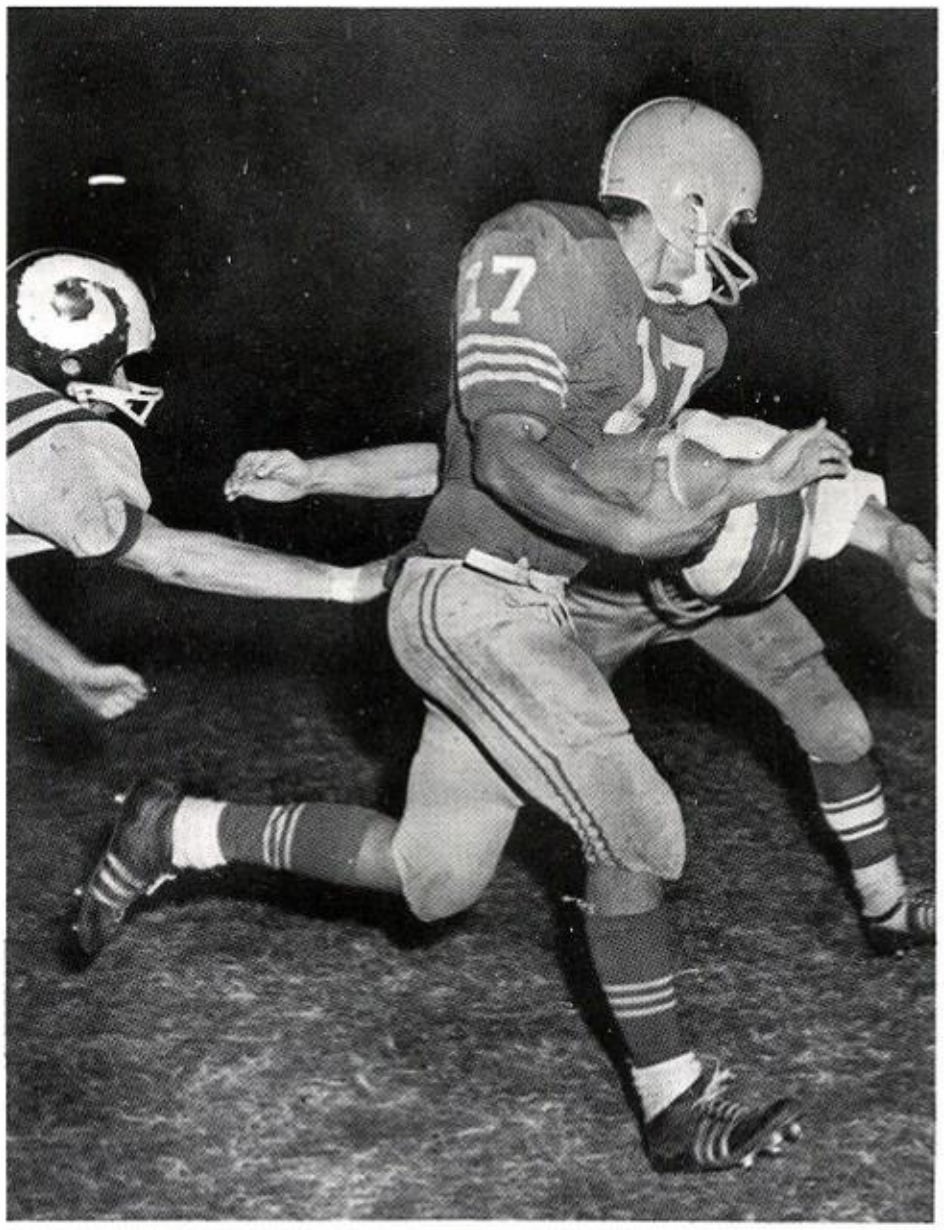


This shot typifies the spirit of the game. Here, Mark Wiedoff, No. 46, goes around right end for an eight yard pickup against Brophy. Rod Robideau, No. 24, and Gary Tolmachoff, No. 32, try to assist. The Cards ultimately triumphed over the Broncos, 26-14.

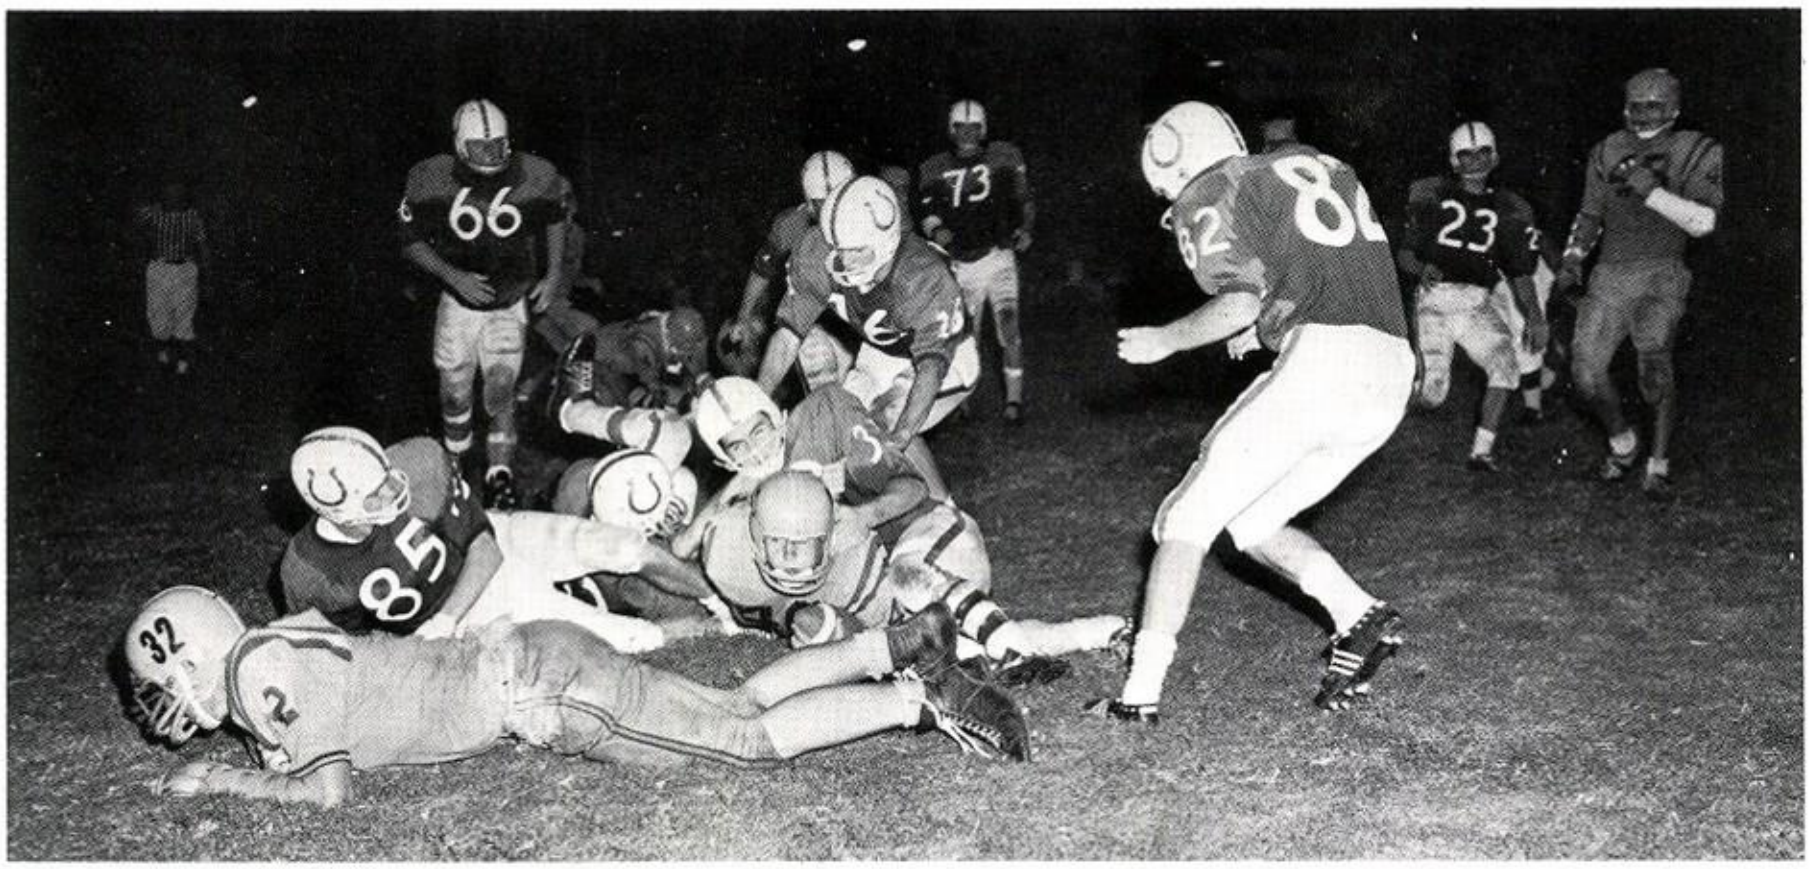
SEASONS' SUMMARY

Our Glendale High School Cardinals have finished another successful and eventful year. After a slow start against Tucson, the Cards rambled for six straight wins. Following a disheartening loss to St. Mary's, the Cards rebounded for a smashing 45-18 Homecoming conquest over Flagtstaff and capped off the season with a 35-7 victory over Paradise Valley.

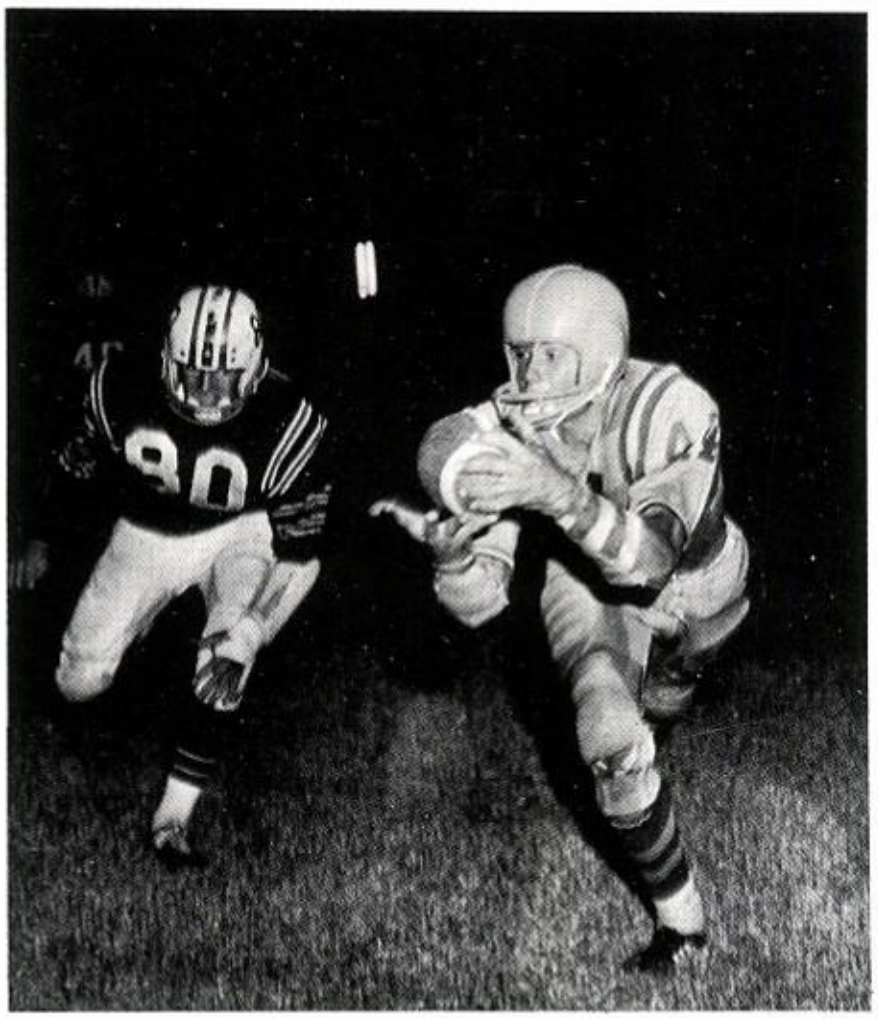
With a final record of 8-2, the 1966-67 Cardinal Team is one of the best in Glendale history.



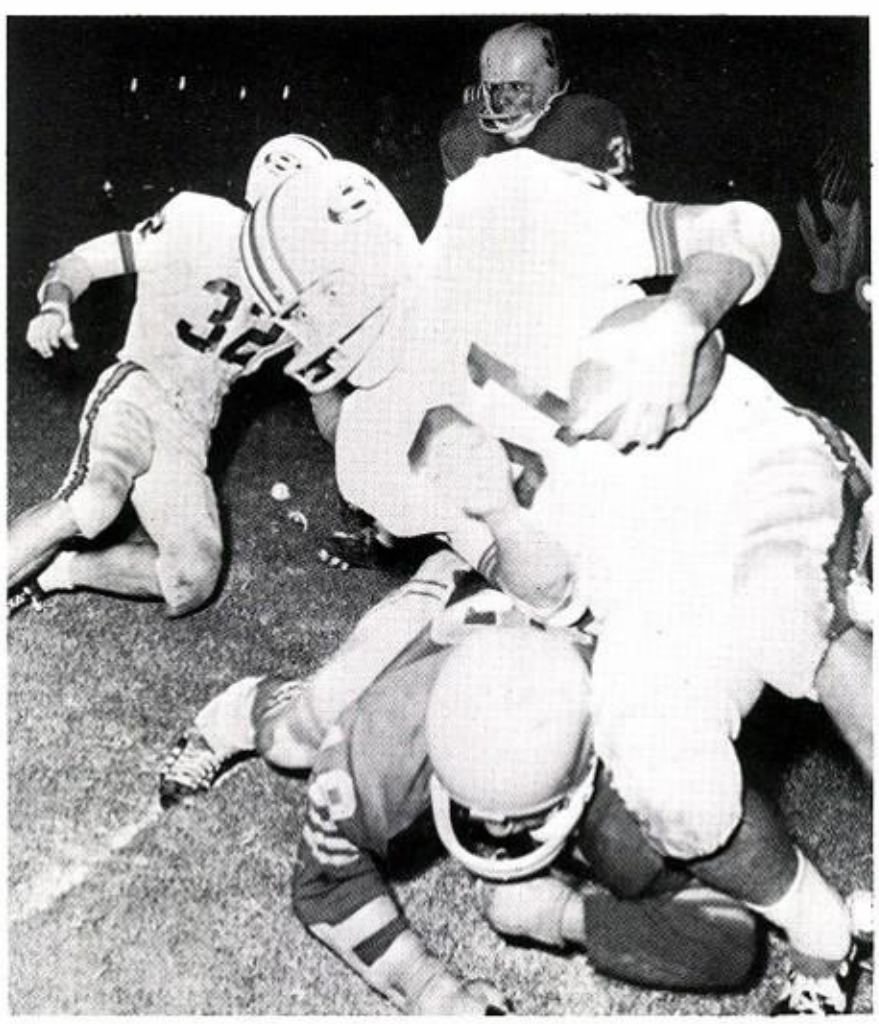
Star quarterback John Short takes off on one of his many sprints against the Rams. Short picked up the first down as the Cardinals went on to win, 27-6.



This shot exemplifies the toughness of a Cardinal, simply because it took four Cortez Colts to bring down one Glendale Cardinal. The Cards prevailed in this game against Cortez, 31-7.



Dwight Bennett snares a pass good for 27 yards against McClintock. Later in the game, Bennett caught a long "bomb" for Glendale's first score of the season.



"The coach never said it would be anything like this", quotes this disheartened, disorganized, and a bit disheveled Viking.

TOP: Fullback Rod Robideau takes a pitchout good for 23 yards against Washington. Dwight Bennett rushes in to assist.

RIGHT: John Short sweeps around left end for a 14 yard gain against Sunnyslope. The Cards emerged victorious against the Vikings, 26-13.

vision Co-Championship

Our sincere congratulations to the Glendale High School Football Team after having captured the Division 2AA Co-Championship.

This makes the sixth year in a row that the Cards have taken either the Championship or the Co-championship in league play.

We are sure that the future Glendale High School football squads will have equally successful records.

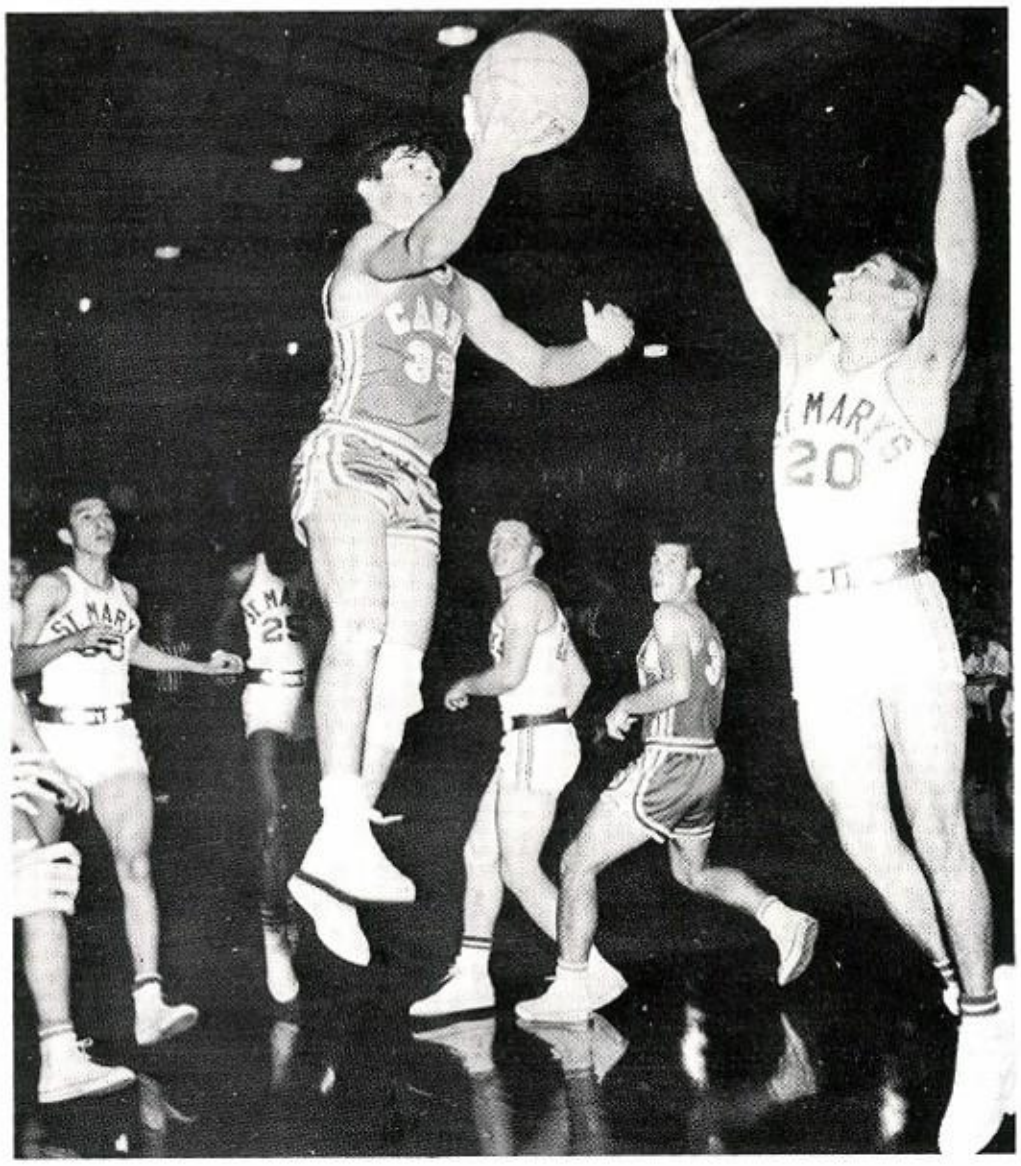
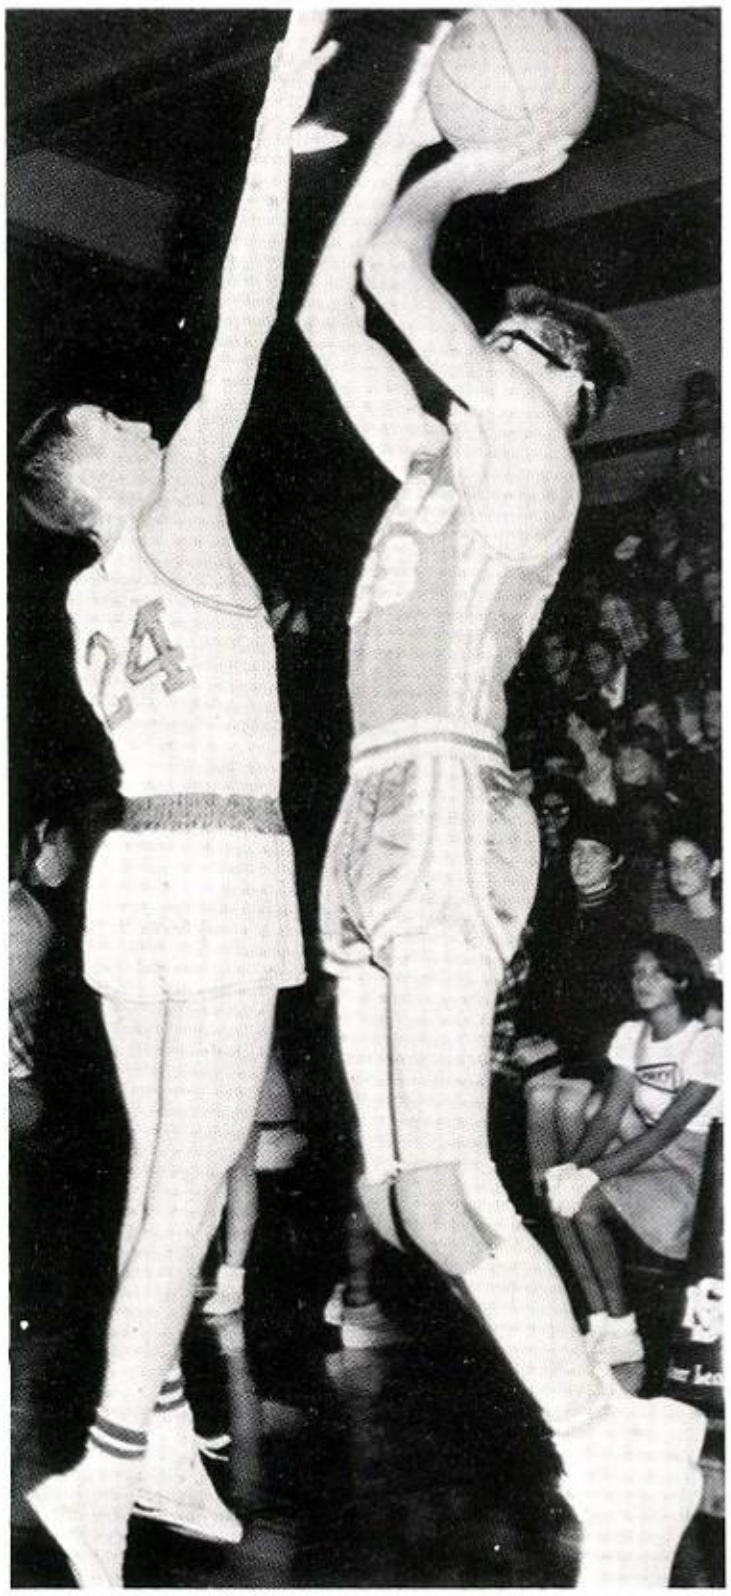
Pacers Leon Guess and John Brimhall dash across the finish line at the Thunderbird Invitational.

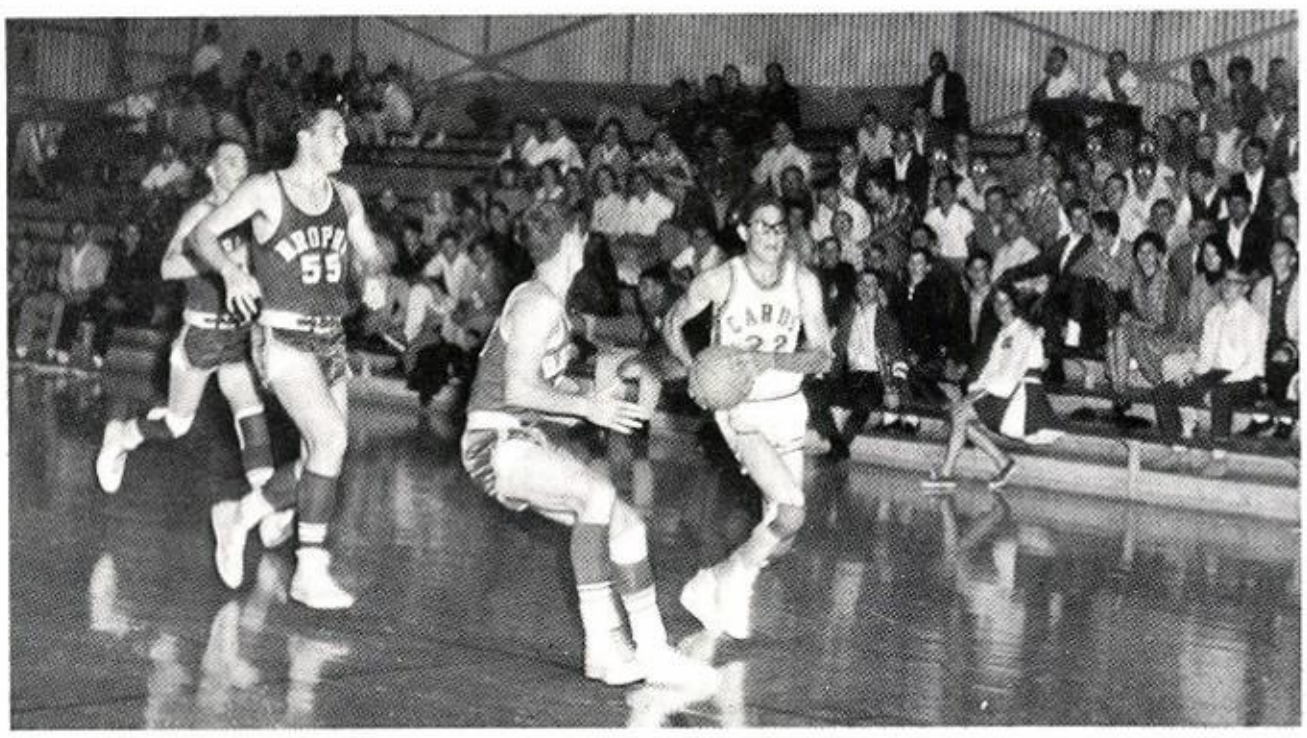


John Short makes this jump shot, much to the dismay of this Knight defender. Short went on to pace the Cards in a 71-42 victory over St. Mary's, scoring 21 of the points himself.

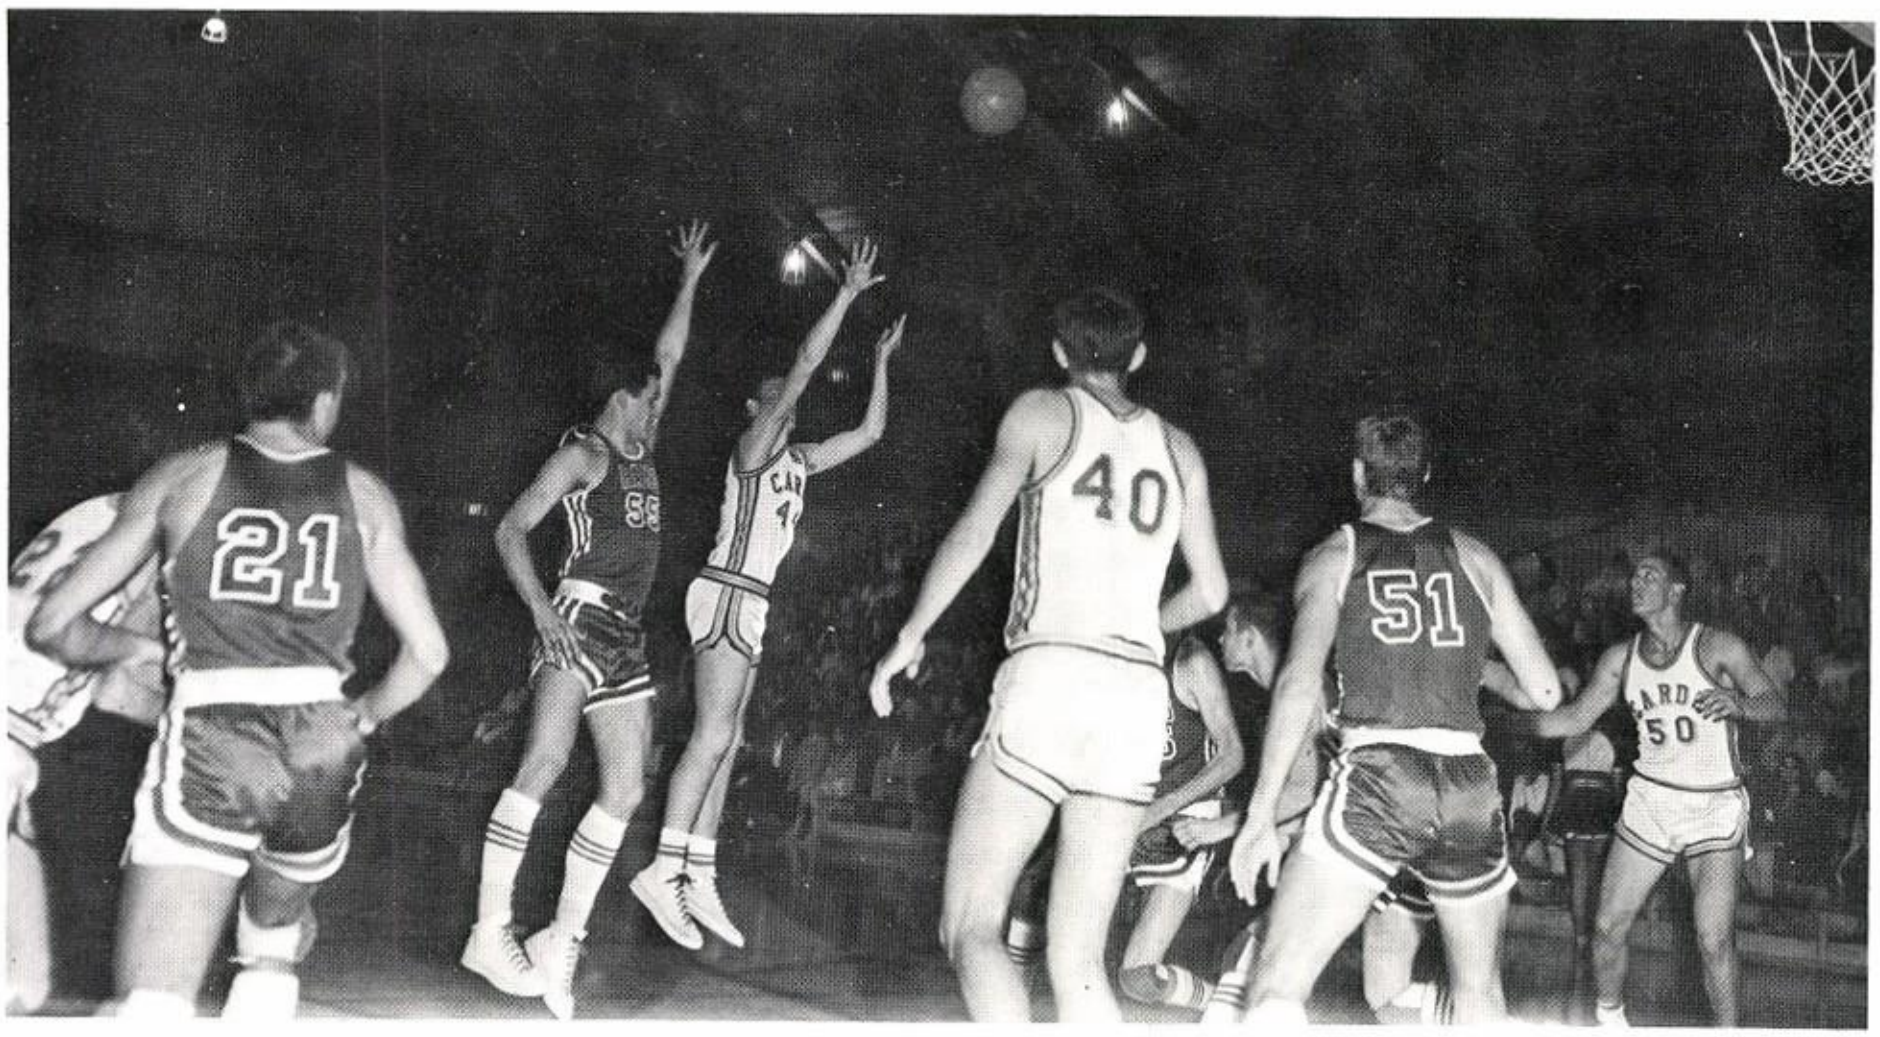


Jerry Espinoza takes a shot from the key in another game against St. Mary's. The Cards throttled the Knights twice during the season, this time by a score of 70-36.

CARDINAL CAGERS



Jerry Espinoza takes off after stealing the ball, rushing in for the two-pointer amid the screams of delight from the Glendale side. This successful tactic helped to win many games for the Redbirds. In this game against the Broncos, the Cards ultimately won, 48-45.



Mike Pearson makes a desperation shot against Washington. The Cardinals finally pulled this game out in an overtime thriller, 62-59.

CONTROL THE COURT

This cut depicts the tension and fury of a Cardinal basketball game. The Cards fought their hardest from beginning to end, and never let down when the going got tough.

John Short steals the ball and rushes past his Cortez opponent for an easy layup.

It's true that the Cardinal basketball team controls the backboards, but this is ridiculous!

The Cards rush into their positions to set up the play in this contest against a "superior" Prescott quintet. The staunch cagers from Glendale beat the Badgers, 64-57.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach Hutchison confers with the referees while the team awaits the decision in the final minutes of the season.

The 1966-67 Glendale High School Varsity Basketball team has given Glendale students plenty to yell about. Known predominantly as a football school, the Glendale Cardinal basketball team showed that Glendale is tough all over.

Coached by Mr. Robert Hutchison, the Cards compiled an eleven win, ten loss record upsetting many strong foes in the process.

The varsity team has served as an excellent example for the up and coming Cardinal basketball teams of the future.

Season Summary

This year's Junior Varsity and Freshman basketball teams have given Glendale an extremely bright outlook for the future.

The Junior Varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. James Gualdoni, finished the season with a 14-6 over-all record, beating every team they played at least once. Next year's varsity, spearheaded by sharpshooters Rick Lundberg, Gary Roper, and Jim Dillehay, amassed a total of 1025 points, which is an average of 51.2 points per game.

The Freshman "A" team, coached by Mr. Gus Pappas, also showed a great deal of strength. Having a season tally of 12-5, the tall frosh scored a total of 698 points, which makes an average of 43.6 points per game.

The Freshman "B" team, coached by Mr. John Hall, proved extremely potent, losing only one game out of thirteen. The young Cards scored a total of 557 points, which is an average of 47.8 points per game.

If these young athletes continue to play basketball in the years to come as they have this year, Glendale will certainly have a victorious basketball team capable of achieving state recognition.

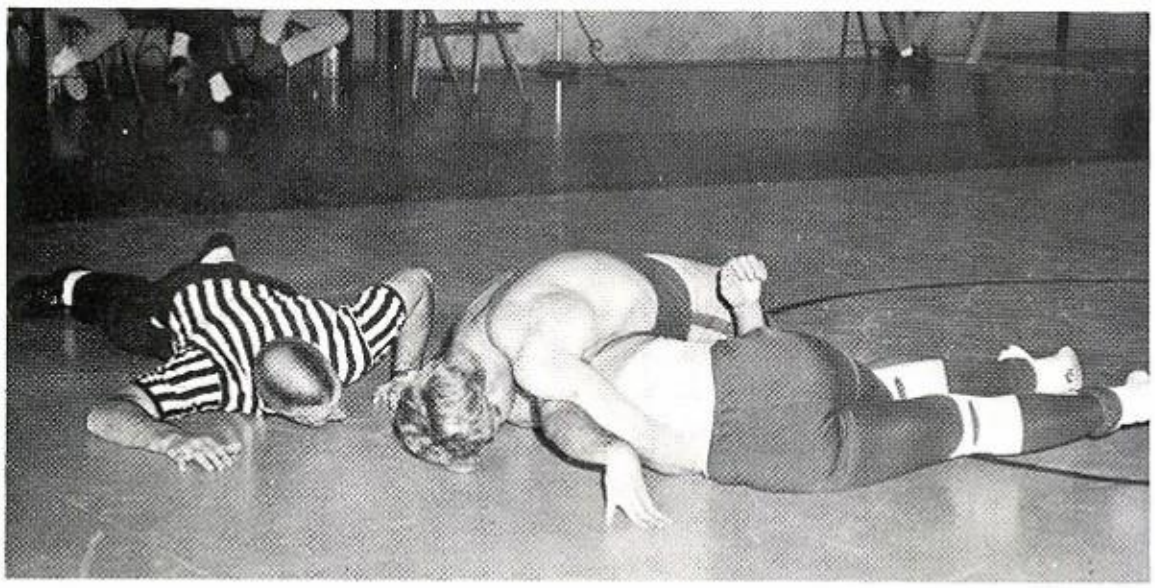
Varsity Captain Rod Newport forces this opponent to sacrifice valuable points in a crucial meet against Arcadia. Rod proved to be one of the Cardinal's strongest contenders, having an individual record of eight wins and one loss in match play.



180 lb., Varsity matman David Spurlock puts the finishing touches on his dismayed foe. David made it "unpleasant" for many opposing grapplers, amassing an eight win-two loss individual tally.

Season Summary

The 1966-67 Glendale High School Wrestling Team, coached by Mr. Allen Forrey and Mr. Joseph Rosania, was forever plagued by injuries and sickness during the course of the entire season. Out of a total of eleven dual meets the Cards had the entire team present for only one. The grapplers were compelled to forfeit a total of 22 matches as a result.

However, the outlook for next year is very encouraging, having four sophomore lettermen on next years slate.

GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR!!

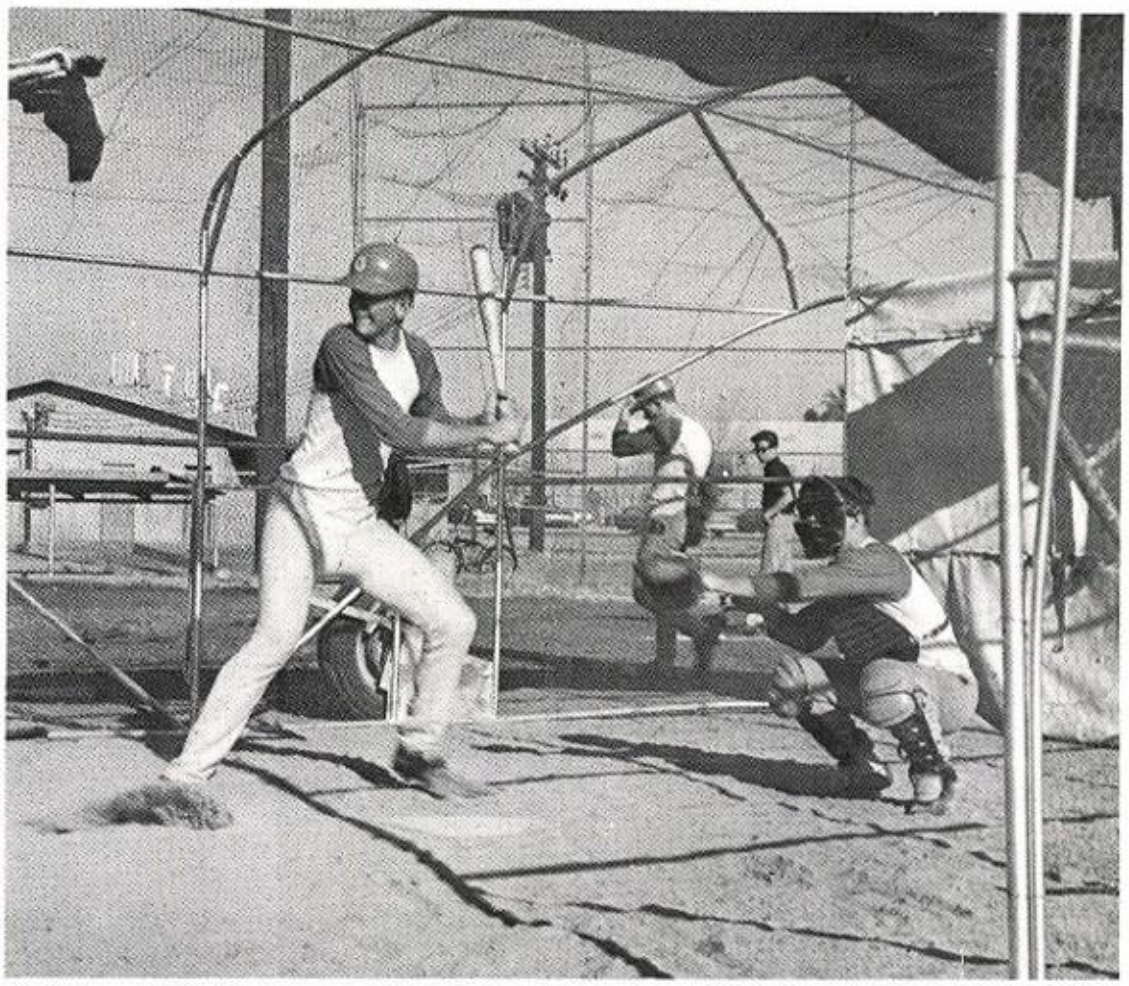
VARSITY BASEBALL

Season Summary

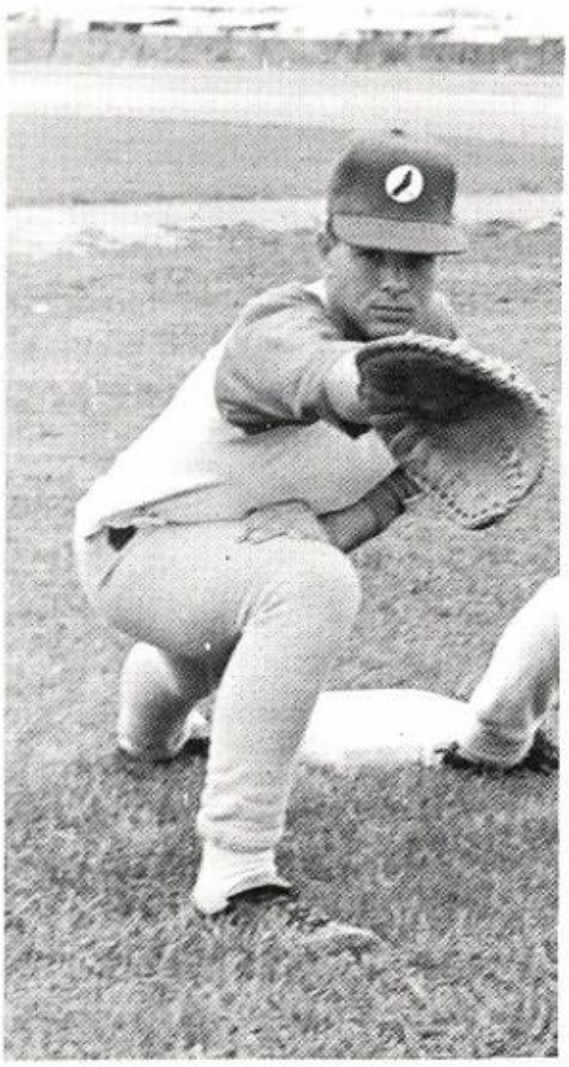
As the Annual deadline draws near, the 1966-67 Cardinal baseball team has completed only two of its regularly scheduled baseball games.

In the first contest, the Cards bowed to the Maryvale Panthers by a close score of 3-1. In the second match, the Cards came to life, whipping Paradise Valley in fine style by the score of 5-2.

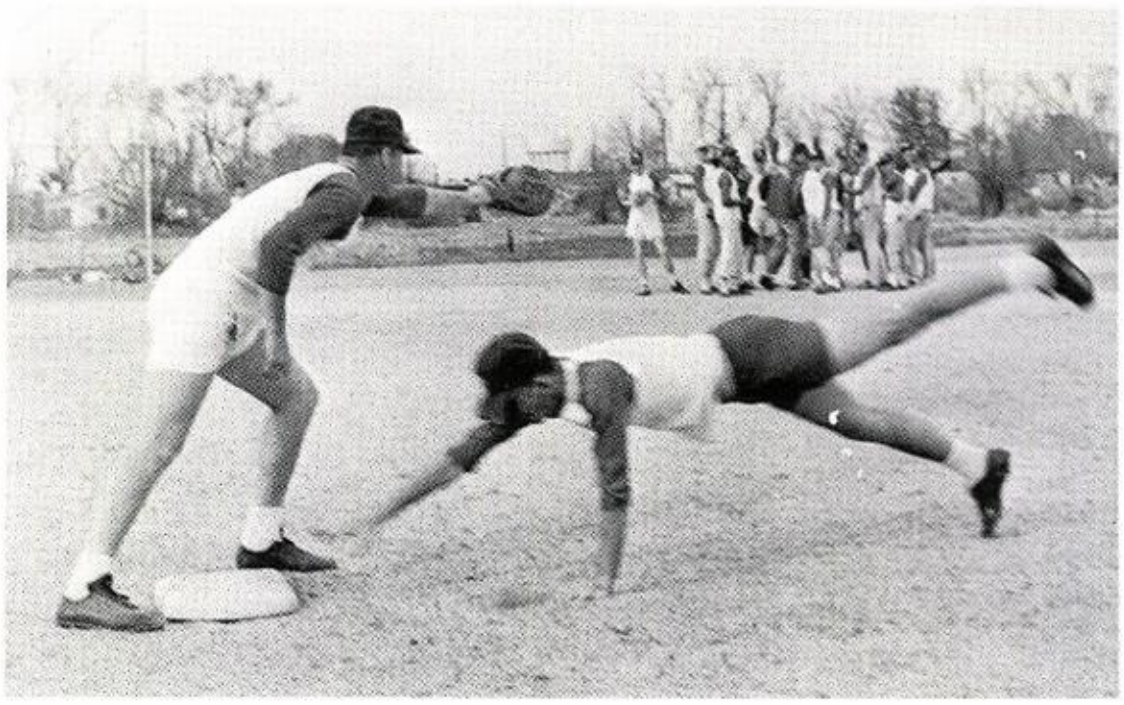
Coached by Mr. Edward Green, the Varsity Baseball Team looks very promising and should prove to have a very rewarding and successful season.



Keith Kosier gets ready to belt one during a practice session early in the season.



S T R E T C H ! This first baseman had better know how to touch his toes in order to play this position.



Knowing every second counts in baseball, the Cards practice sliding, anticipating the time when they will need it most.

Co-rec is any sport played with both boys and girls on one team. The two co-rec activities at Glendale are volleyball and square dancing. Each volleyball team must have at least three boys and three girls on it. Each year a square dance is held in the old gym and everyone is invited. Co-rec volleyball is a competitive sport played by G.A.A.

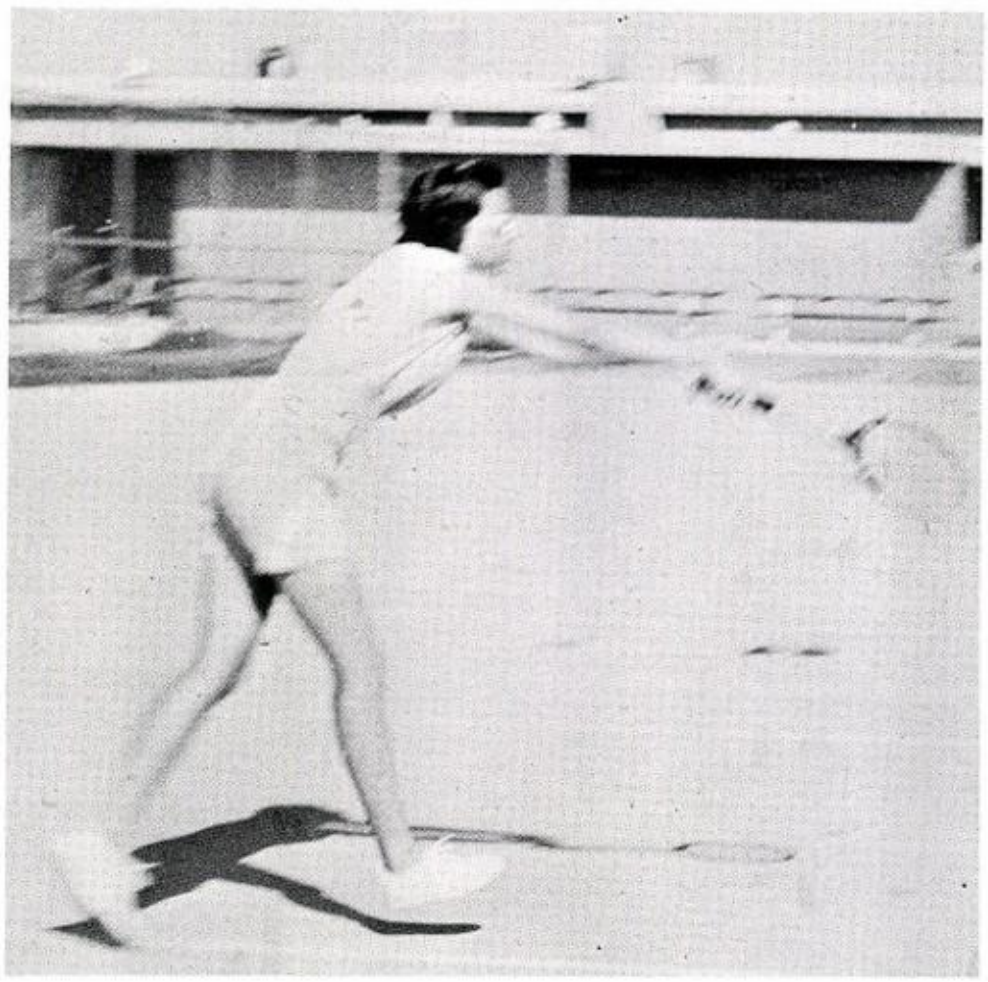
Miss Harriet Leeke, the Glendale girls' tennis coach, is the main reason for the success of the team.

Here's some of the action from the tennis courts. Every day of the week and most days of the week-ends and holidays you can see devoted team members hard at work. The girls are trying to take a place in the state tennis tournament held in Tucson in April. In these pictures, Cass Hayes, above left, slams back a forehand in a home match against Cortez. At right, Eddie Wallat serves at practice after school.



G.A.A. or the Girls' Athletic Association is one of the largest clubs on campus. Members participate in individual and team sports to earn points which entitle them to wear the G.A.A. insignia or shield, the numeral, and the girls' letter on their letter-sweaters. These are presented to the girls at the annual mother-daughter banquet at the end of the year.

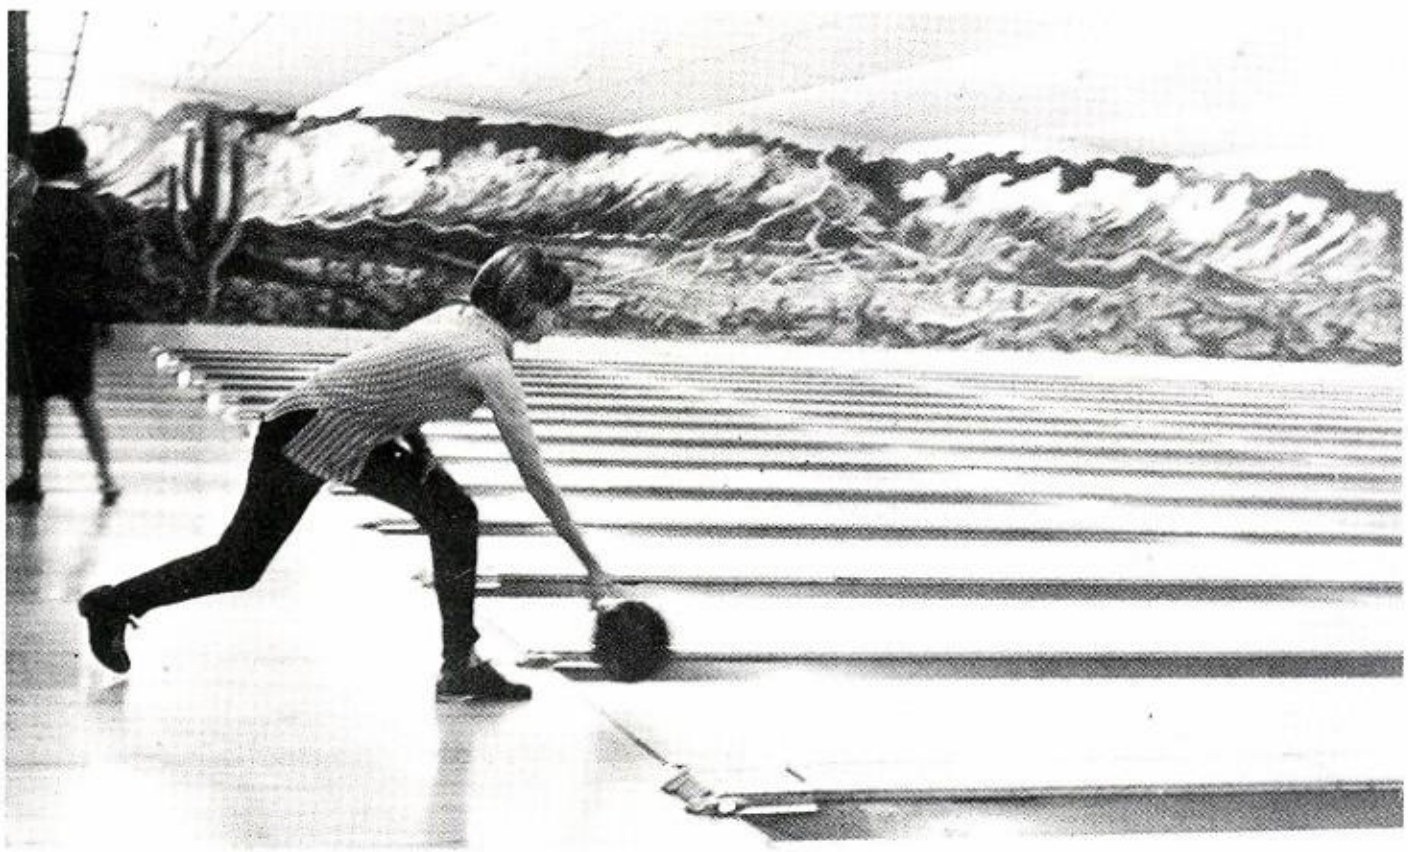
Basketball is probably the most competitive and the roughest of the sports for girls.



G.A.A. bowls at Glen-Fair bowling alley each Tuesday after school. Teams compete for trophies and awards. Glendale has some of the finest junior bowlers in the state.

Swimming was the first sport this year. Cass Hayes took first place in the swim meet this year. The meet took place at Rose Lane Pool on one of the coldest, rainiest days of September.

Sports

Volleyball was one of the four team sports played this year. The tournament lasted three weeks, with a senior team winning.

The Glendale High School varsity cheer leaders for 1966-67 are: Ena Loui, Teresa Patterson, Laura Inglebretson, Janice Northen, Captain, and Annie Williams. Behind the drum is the Glendale mascot, Peppy Cardinal. The cheer leaders attend all varsity football and basketball games to boost school spirit and cheer the teams on to victory.

Junior Varsity cheer leaders were chosen for the first time this year. They are: Toni Tenuta, Trisha Pullins, Peggy Sario, Pam Decker, Jean Paap, and Martha Keltner.

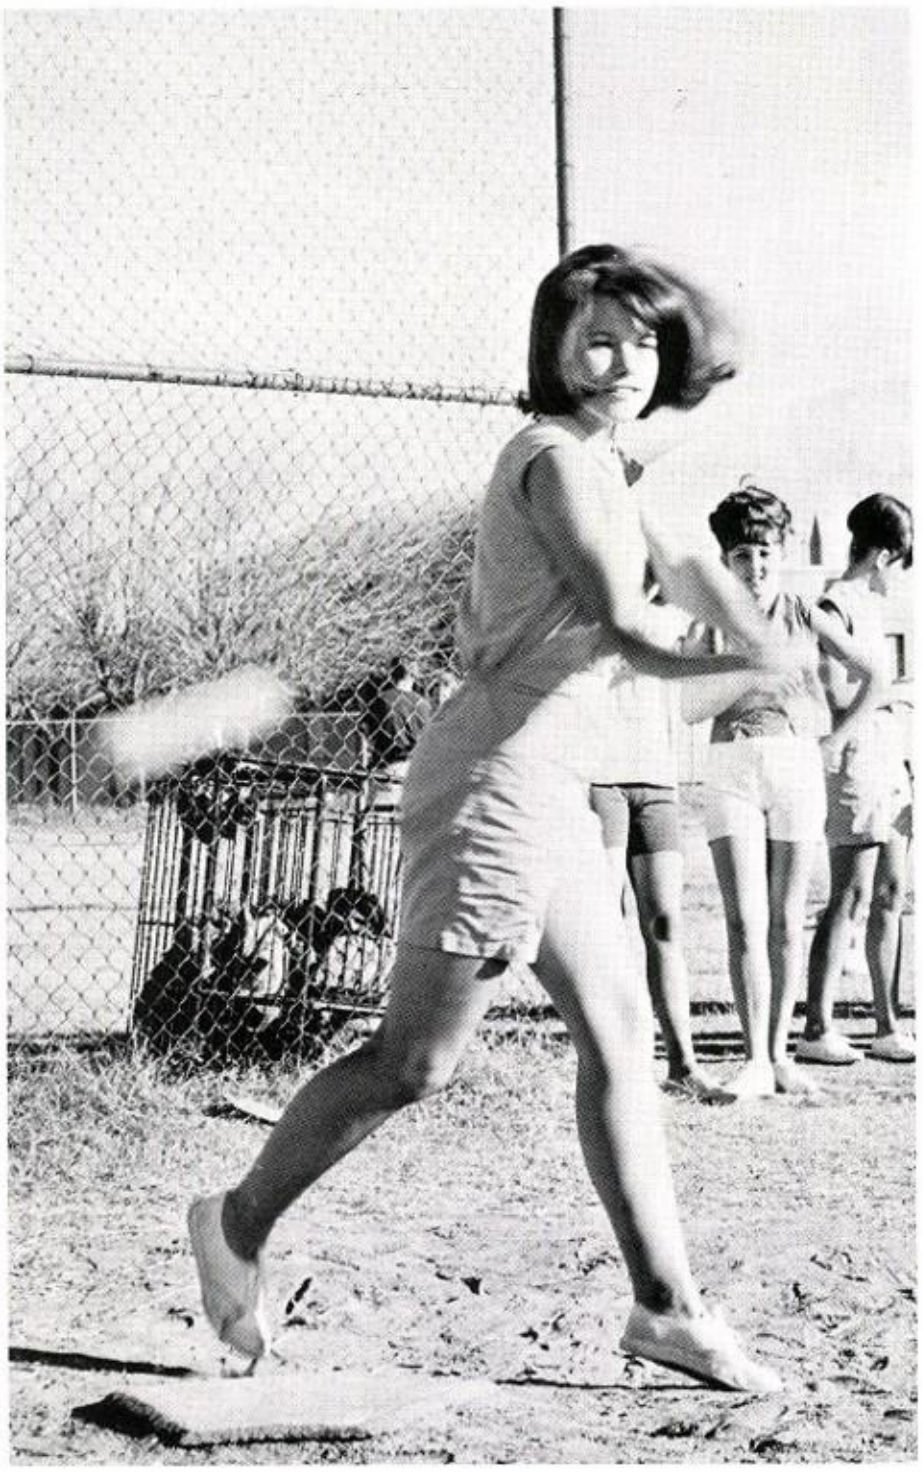
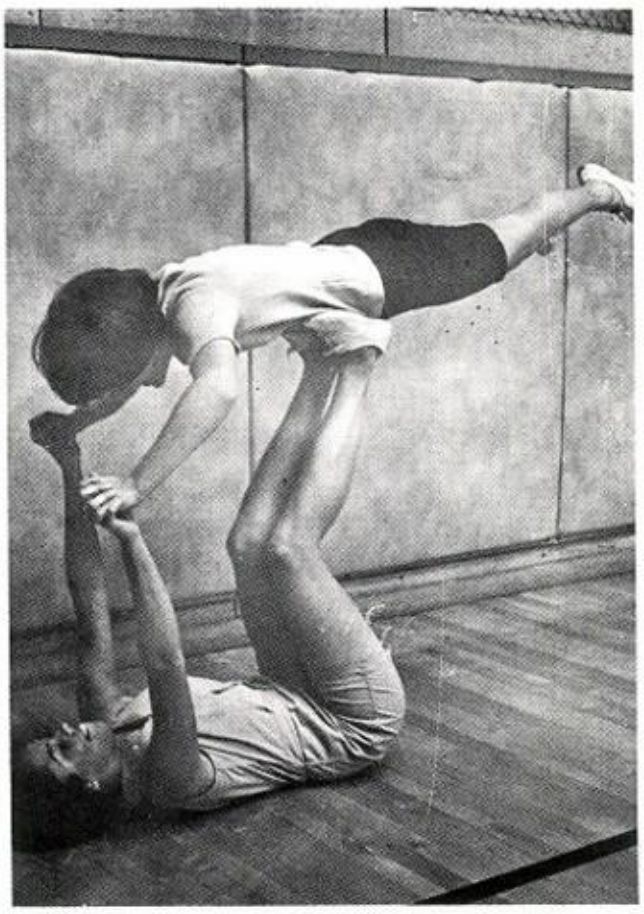
Softball is one of the most popular sports for girls. Here two teams are playing off for a chance at the championship. Team names vary from the Cha-Chas to the H.L.'s.





The winner of gymnastics in G.A.A. is usually the most agile and co-ordinated girl in the club. It takes skill and daring to even attempt some of the harder stunts. Some of the gymnastics done are: backward roll, forward roll, pike headstand, tripod, backbends, and handstands.

G.A.A. SPORTSLEADERS THIS YEAR ARE: (BOTTOM) Pat Grace, gymnastics; Betty Shaw, posture; (MIDDLE) Claire Wallace, softball; Ann Paulick, square dancing; Joanne Motoyoshi, basketball; (TOP) Diane Mason, archery; and Annie Williams and Janice Northen, co-rec and girl's volleyball.

This year G.A.A. took over duties of Pep Club. These were to decorate the goal posts for football games and to put up the victory signs at all home games. G.A.A. also sold booster ribbons. In G.A.A., girls compete in team and individual sports and receive awards at their banquet in May.

This is the world of girls' sports. The object of sports for girls is to build confidence, poise, and co-ordination. Physical fitness is just as important to girls as it is to boys. The cheerleaders, pom pon girls and tennis girls work just as hard to be good as any of our boys' varsity teams. In G.A.A. the girls get a variety of sports that challenge their skill and competitive spirit.

SANDI FRANZMEIER—JUNIOR MISS

Sandi Franzmeier was chosen to represent the northwestern area of Phoenix, which includes Glendale, Dysart, and Peoria.

Her first step toward being chosen to attend the state competition was a judges' interview, during which Sandi and the other contestants were judged on personality, goals in life, studies and school activities, and opinions on current events.

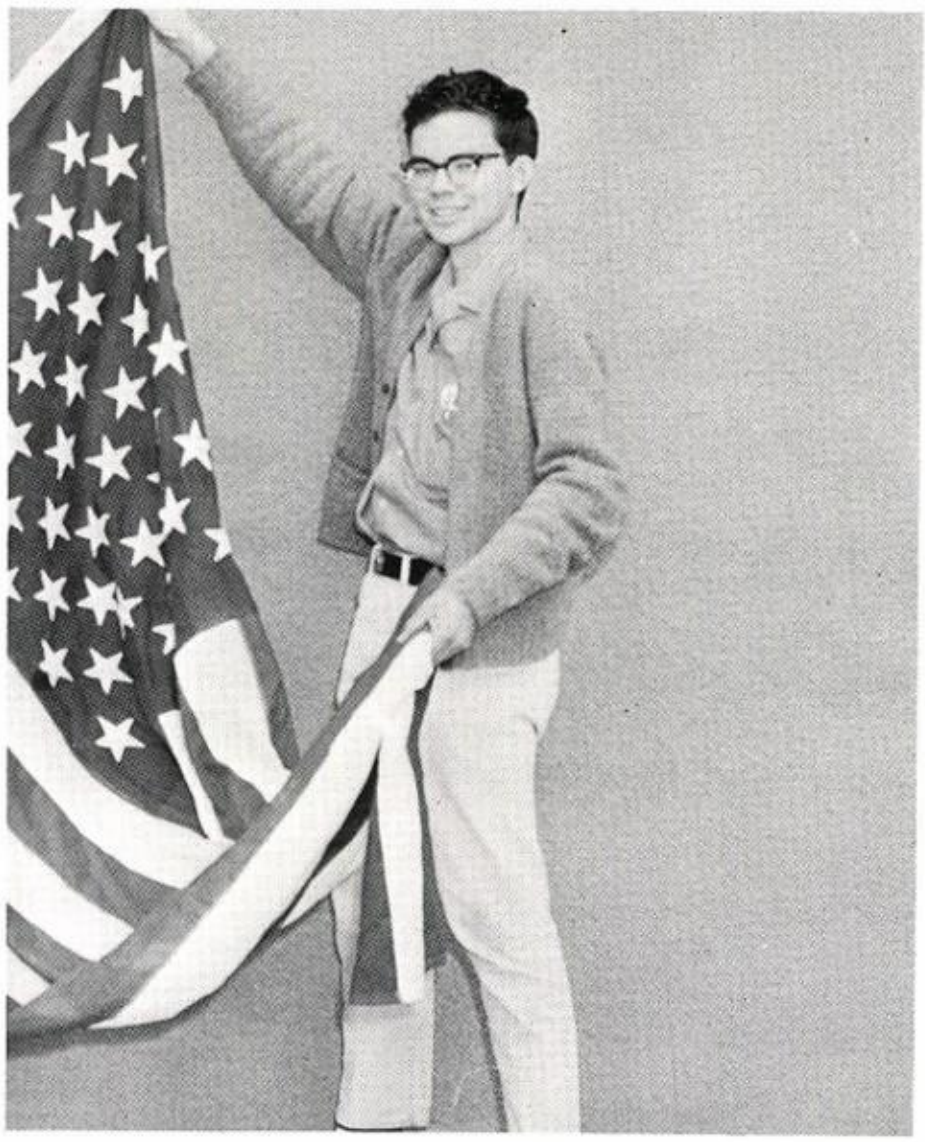
After being chosen, Sandi went on to represent Northwest Phoenix in the state contest on February 2-4, where along with other contestants from all over the state, she was judged on her poise and appearance, her ability in the creative and performing arts, youth fitness, and scholastic achievement.

D.C. TRIP FOR MARVIN

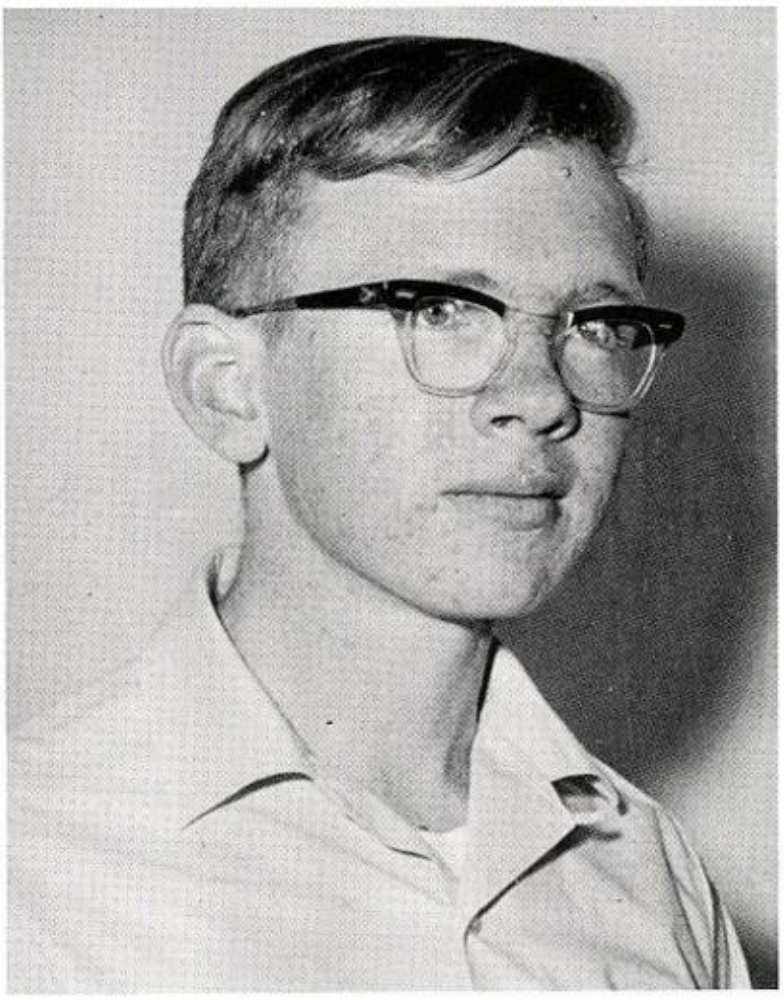
Marvin Colvin took a week-long trip to Washington, D.C. January 21-28. He took the trip through the courtesy of the U.S. Senate Youth Program. Two high school students from every state were selected and brought to the nation's capitol for a week of activity that could not be matched anywhere.

The Senate Youth delegates were based at the Mayflower Hotel. From there they went each day to see some important aspect of the control center of the nation; the Senate, House, Pentagon, the Supreme Court and White House. They saw important people, the President, Vice-President.

Here Marvin is displaying a flag flown over the Capitol Building, presented to him to give to the school.



TOP FIVE

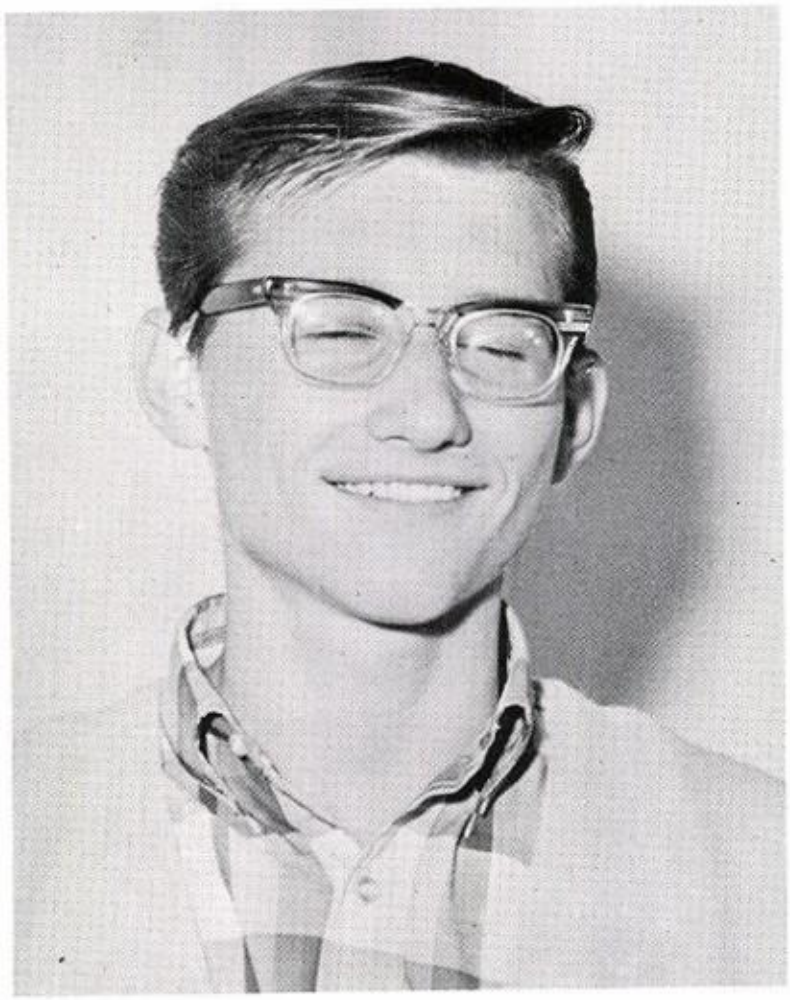


RON HOSPELHORN—VALEDICTORIAN

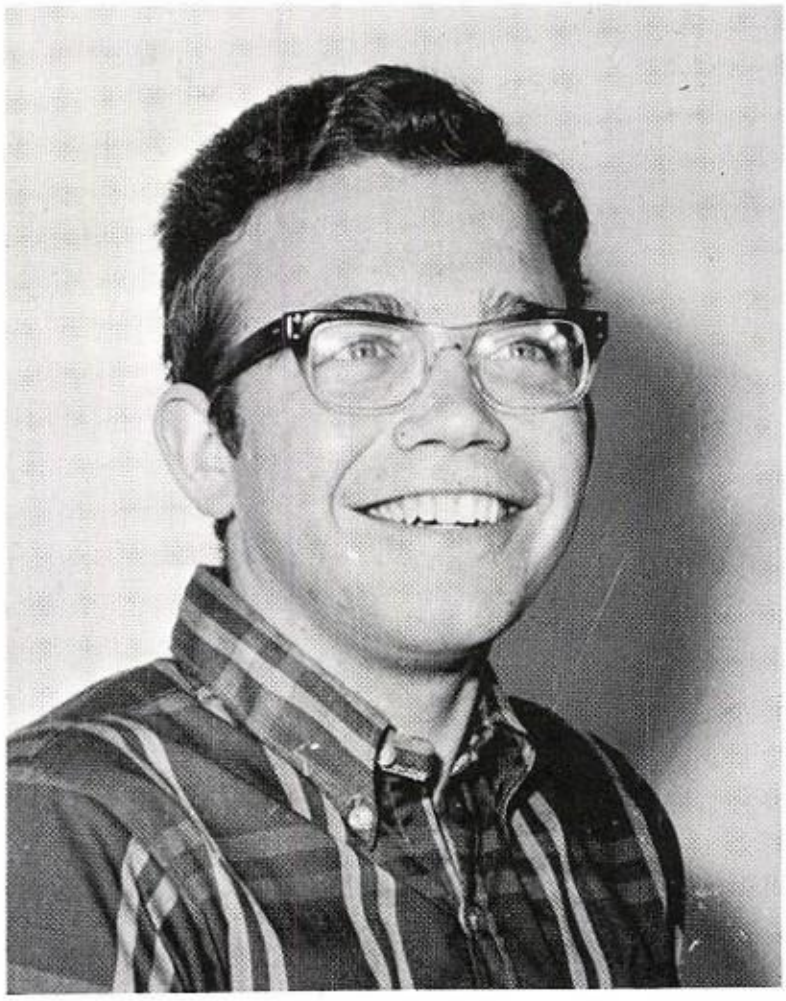
Ron is very active in school activities. He is President of German Club, Vice-President of Quill and Scroll, Co-Editor of the Annual, a Student Senator, and is in National Honor Society, and Science Club. He was selected Student of the Month for September and Rotarian for March. Math is one of his primary interests and he calls himself an "amateur radio nut."

MIKE STANIEC—SALUTORIAN

Mike is active in Science Club of which he is President and is also historian of National Honor Society. He is Boy's Sports Editor of the annual and is the newspaper photographer and is a member of two honorary clubs, Hi-Y and Quill and Scroll. Mike plans a career in either chemical engineering or biological science.



These are the top five seniors academically of the 1966-1967 school year. They have all been active in school activities, have received many honors, and have a wide range of interests. They are outstanding in leadership and citizenship as well as scholarship.



MIKE BAIRD

Mike's interests are many and varied. Mike has been an active participant of our school's government. Last year he was Student Body Vice-President and this year is a senator. He is co-editor of the annual, President of National Honor Society, is a member of Madrigal Choir, and played on the Varsity tennis team. Among his many honors are District winner of Arizona Oratorical Contest, Boys State Model U.N., and a member of All-State Choir for three years.

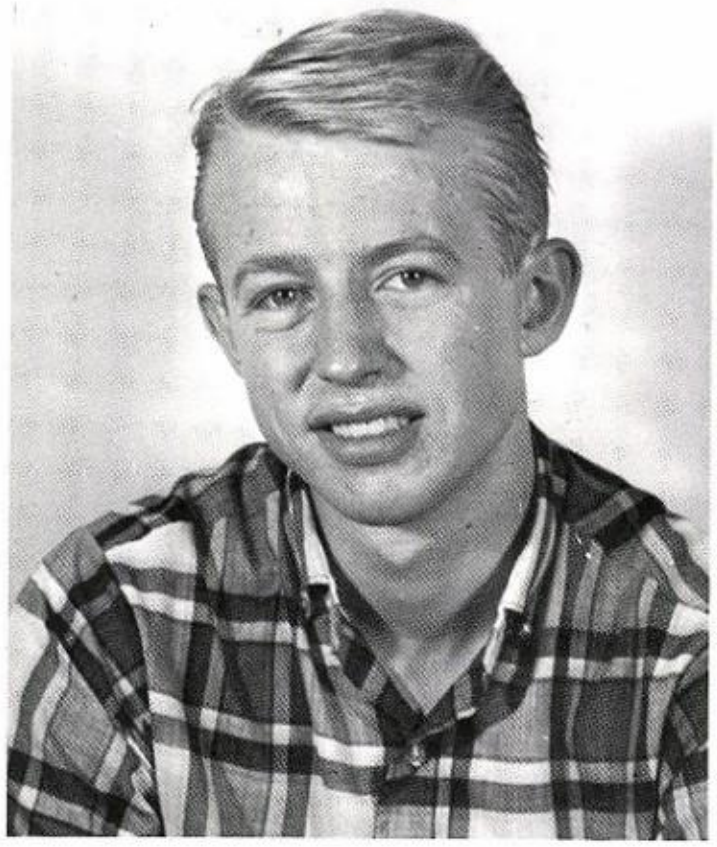
JOAR AASEN — FOREIGN



EXCHANGE STUDENT

JOAR AASEN AFS

As long as people are separated by boundaries, talk different languages and therefore develop different cultures, there will always be a certain amount of prejudice and misunderstanding. The only way to combat prejudice is for people to meet and exchange ideas at the same level. The American Field Service is one of many organizations who work for world peace and understanding and I have been so fortunate as to have a share in this program. I am indebted to the American people, who, through their interest in promoting this basic AFS purpose, have opened their country, homes and hearts to me and thousands of other foreign students.

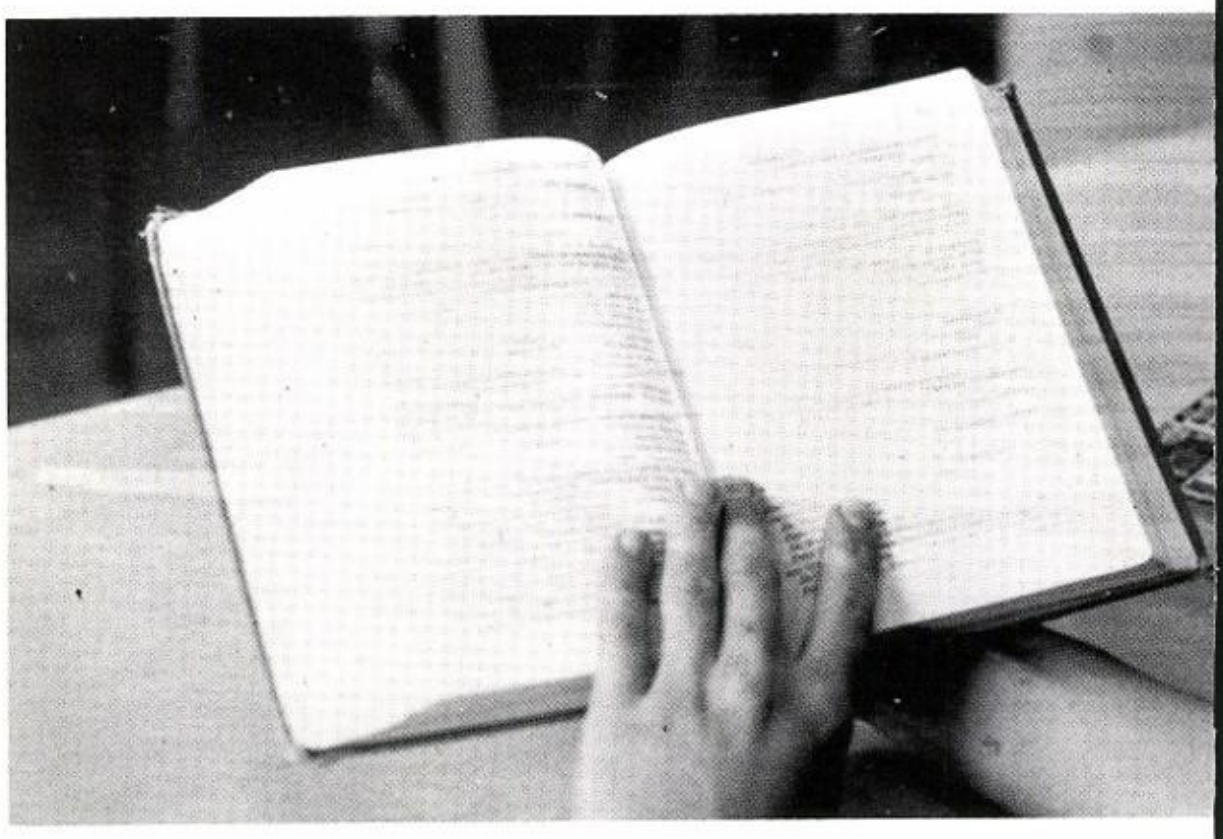
Academics

Study is the most important part of the Academic life of Glendale High. The library, a study hall, or home is often where you find the student putting in that precious study time.

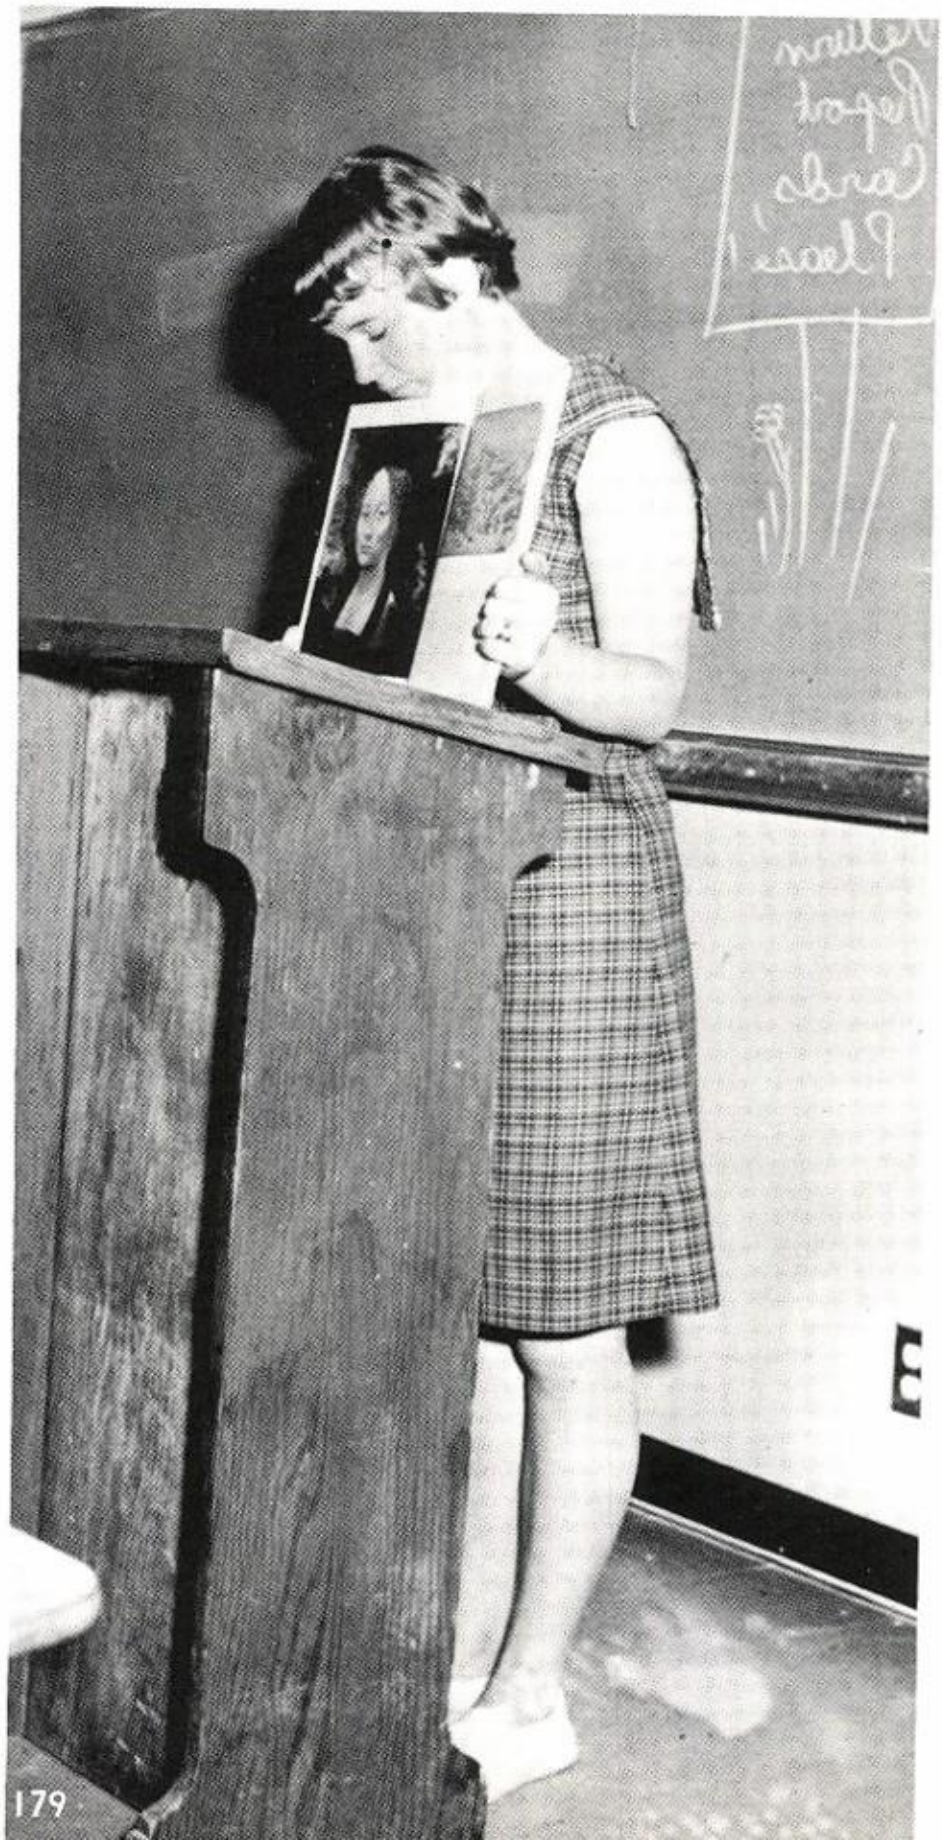
English Students Explore, Interpret

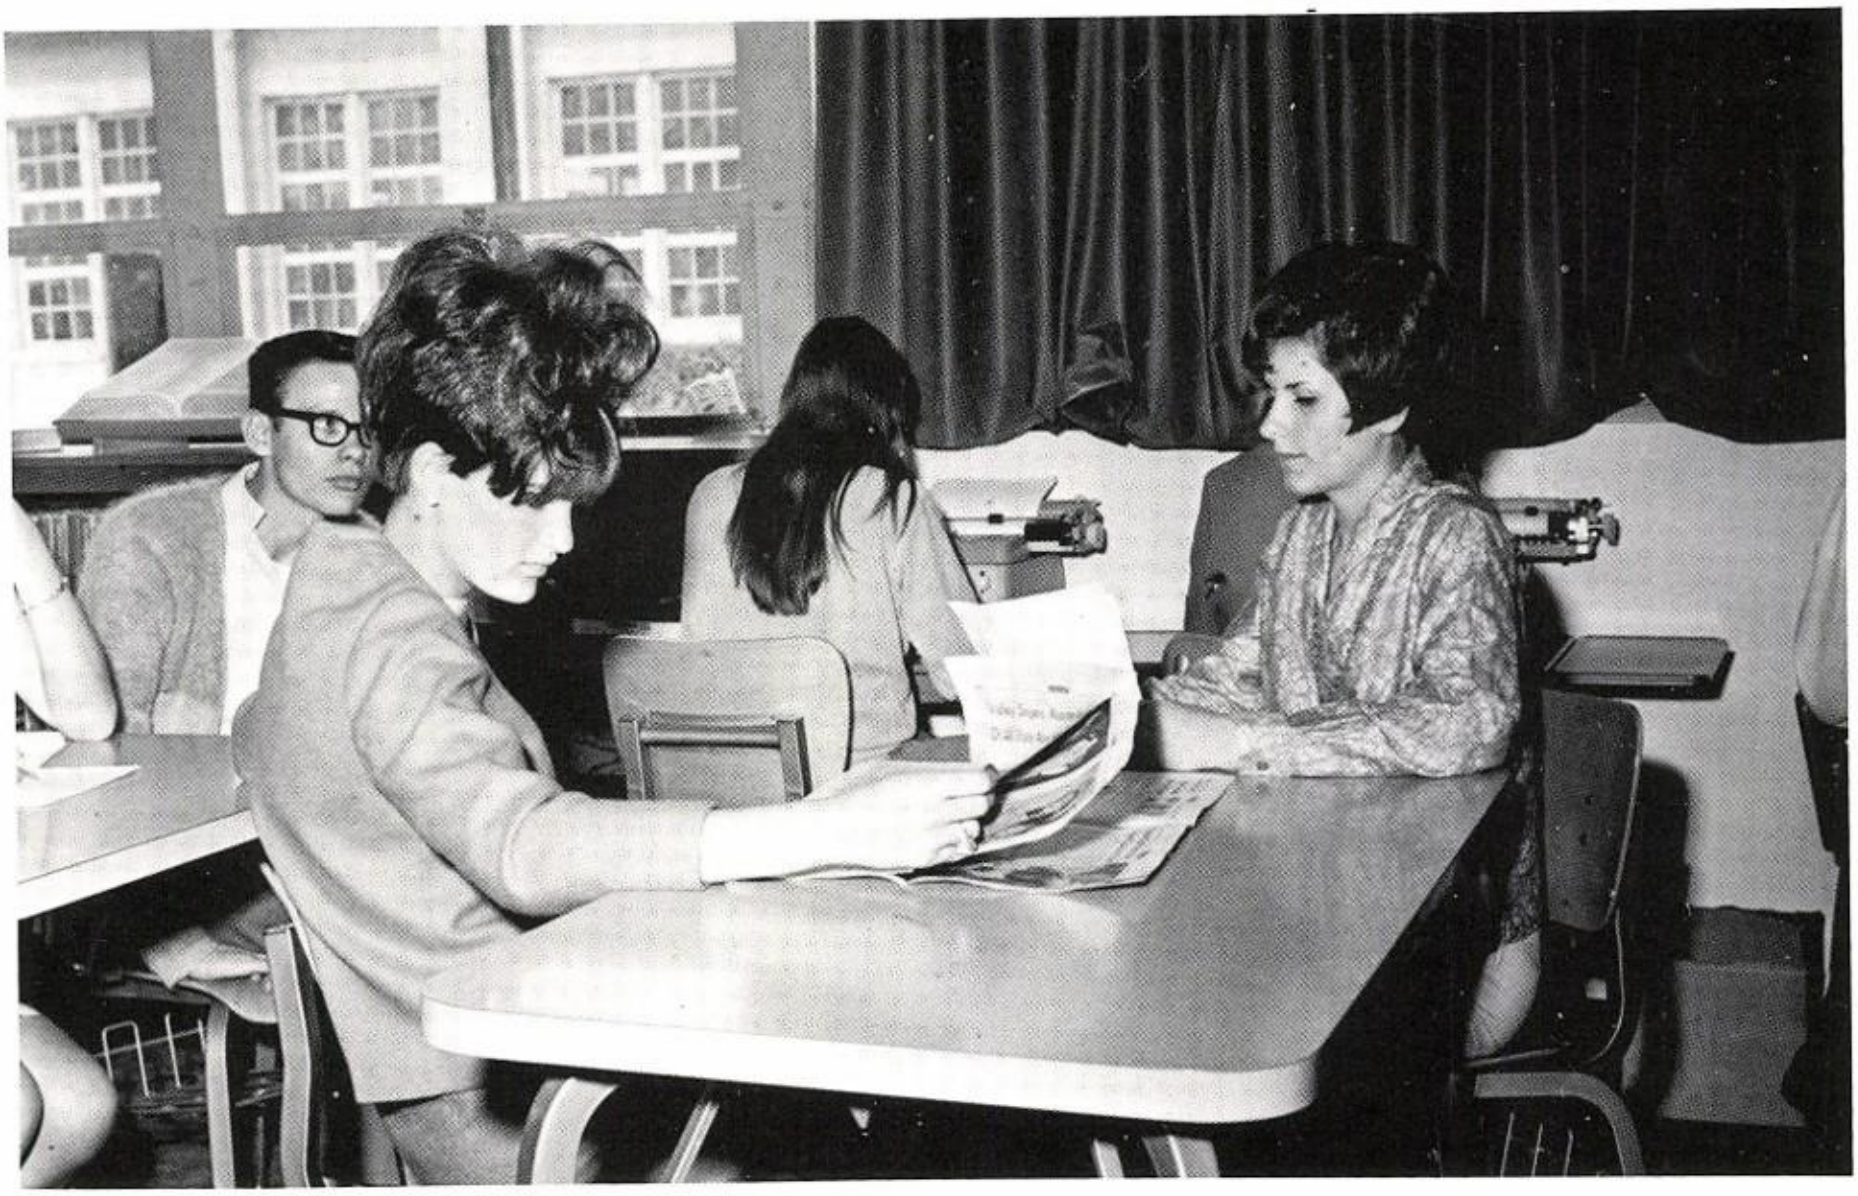
Because it is a required subject, English is an integral part of the academic life of Glendale High. Our knowledge of the humanities is acquired in our four years of English. We share with the great poets and writers, present and past, the beauty of the written word. Our ideas on love, beauty, hatred, or the human soul find expression as we read great literature.



As a freshman we become acquainted with Silas Marner or Julius Caesar. Sophomores and Juniors share the experiences of George and Emily in the play Our Town. The seniors learn of the bloody antics of Macbeth, and in world literature, we find out how to drink tea.

Mr. McAllister uses a literature map to illustrate his teaching.



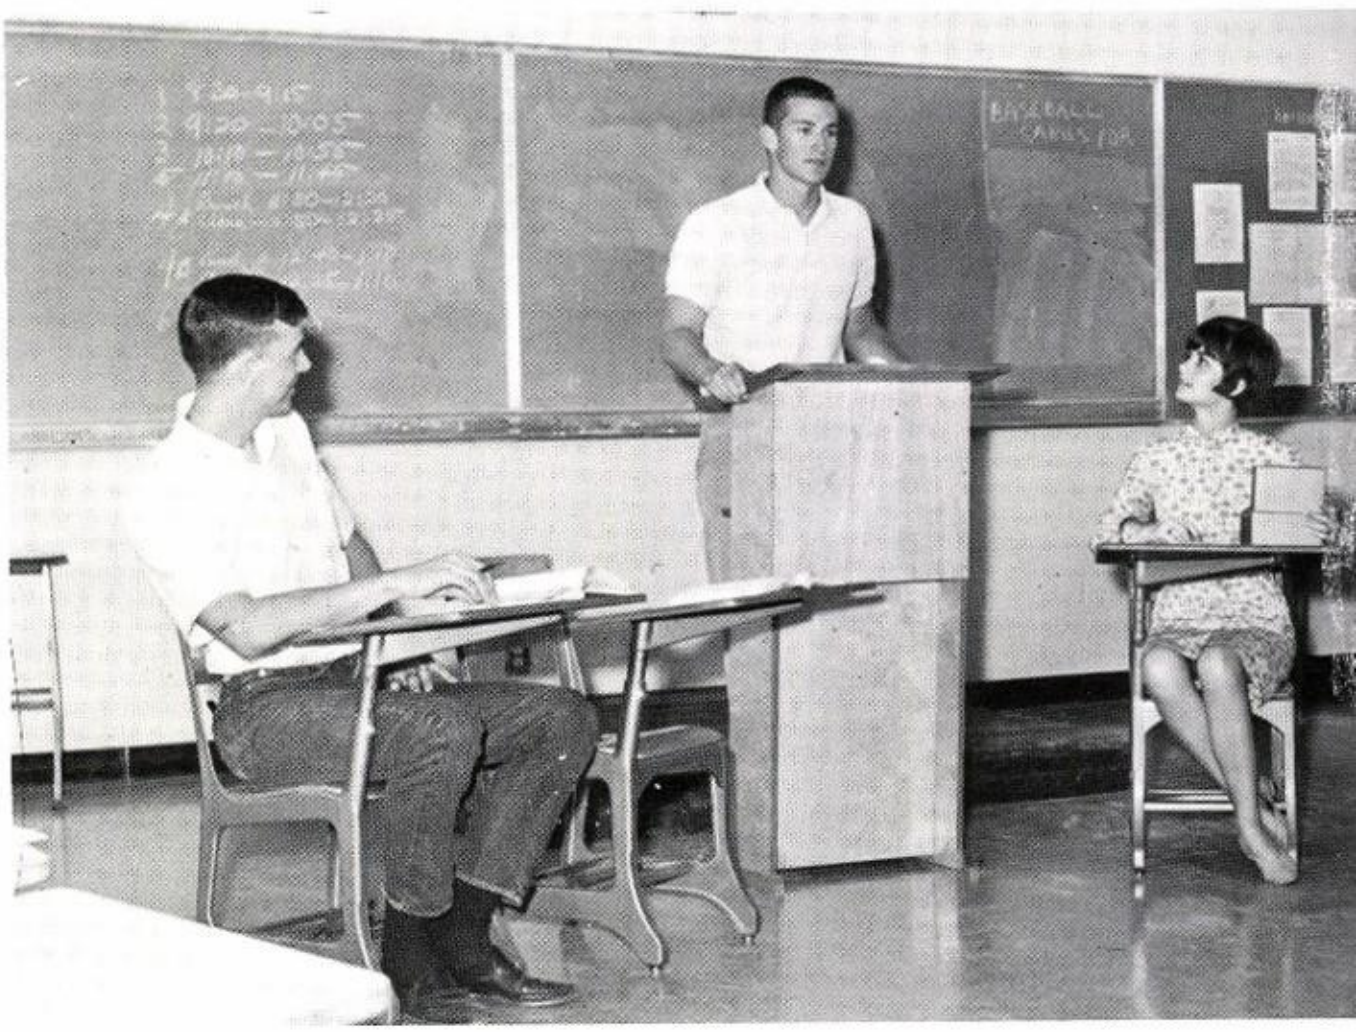


Every two weeks brings a moment sucr as the Hi-Lites staff makes final preparations for the paper. The press awaits.

English Extends To Journalism, Speech,

The publishing of a newspaper can be a complicated process as some will tell you. It involves getting the story, writing it, and getting the whole paper to the printers. The Cardinal Hi-Lites is the result of our working journalism staff.

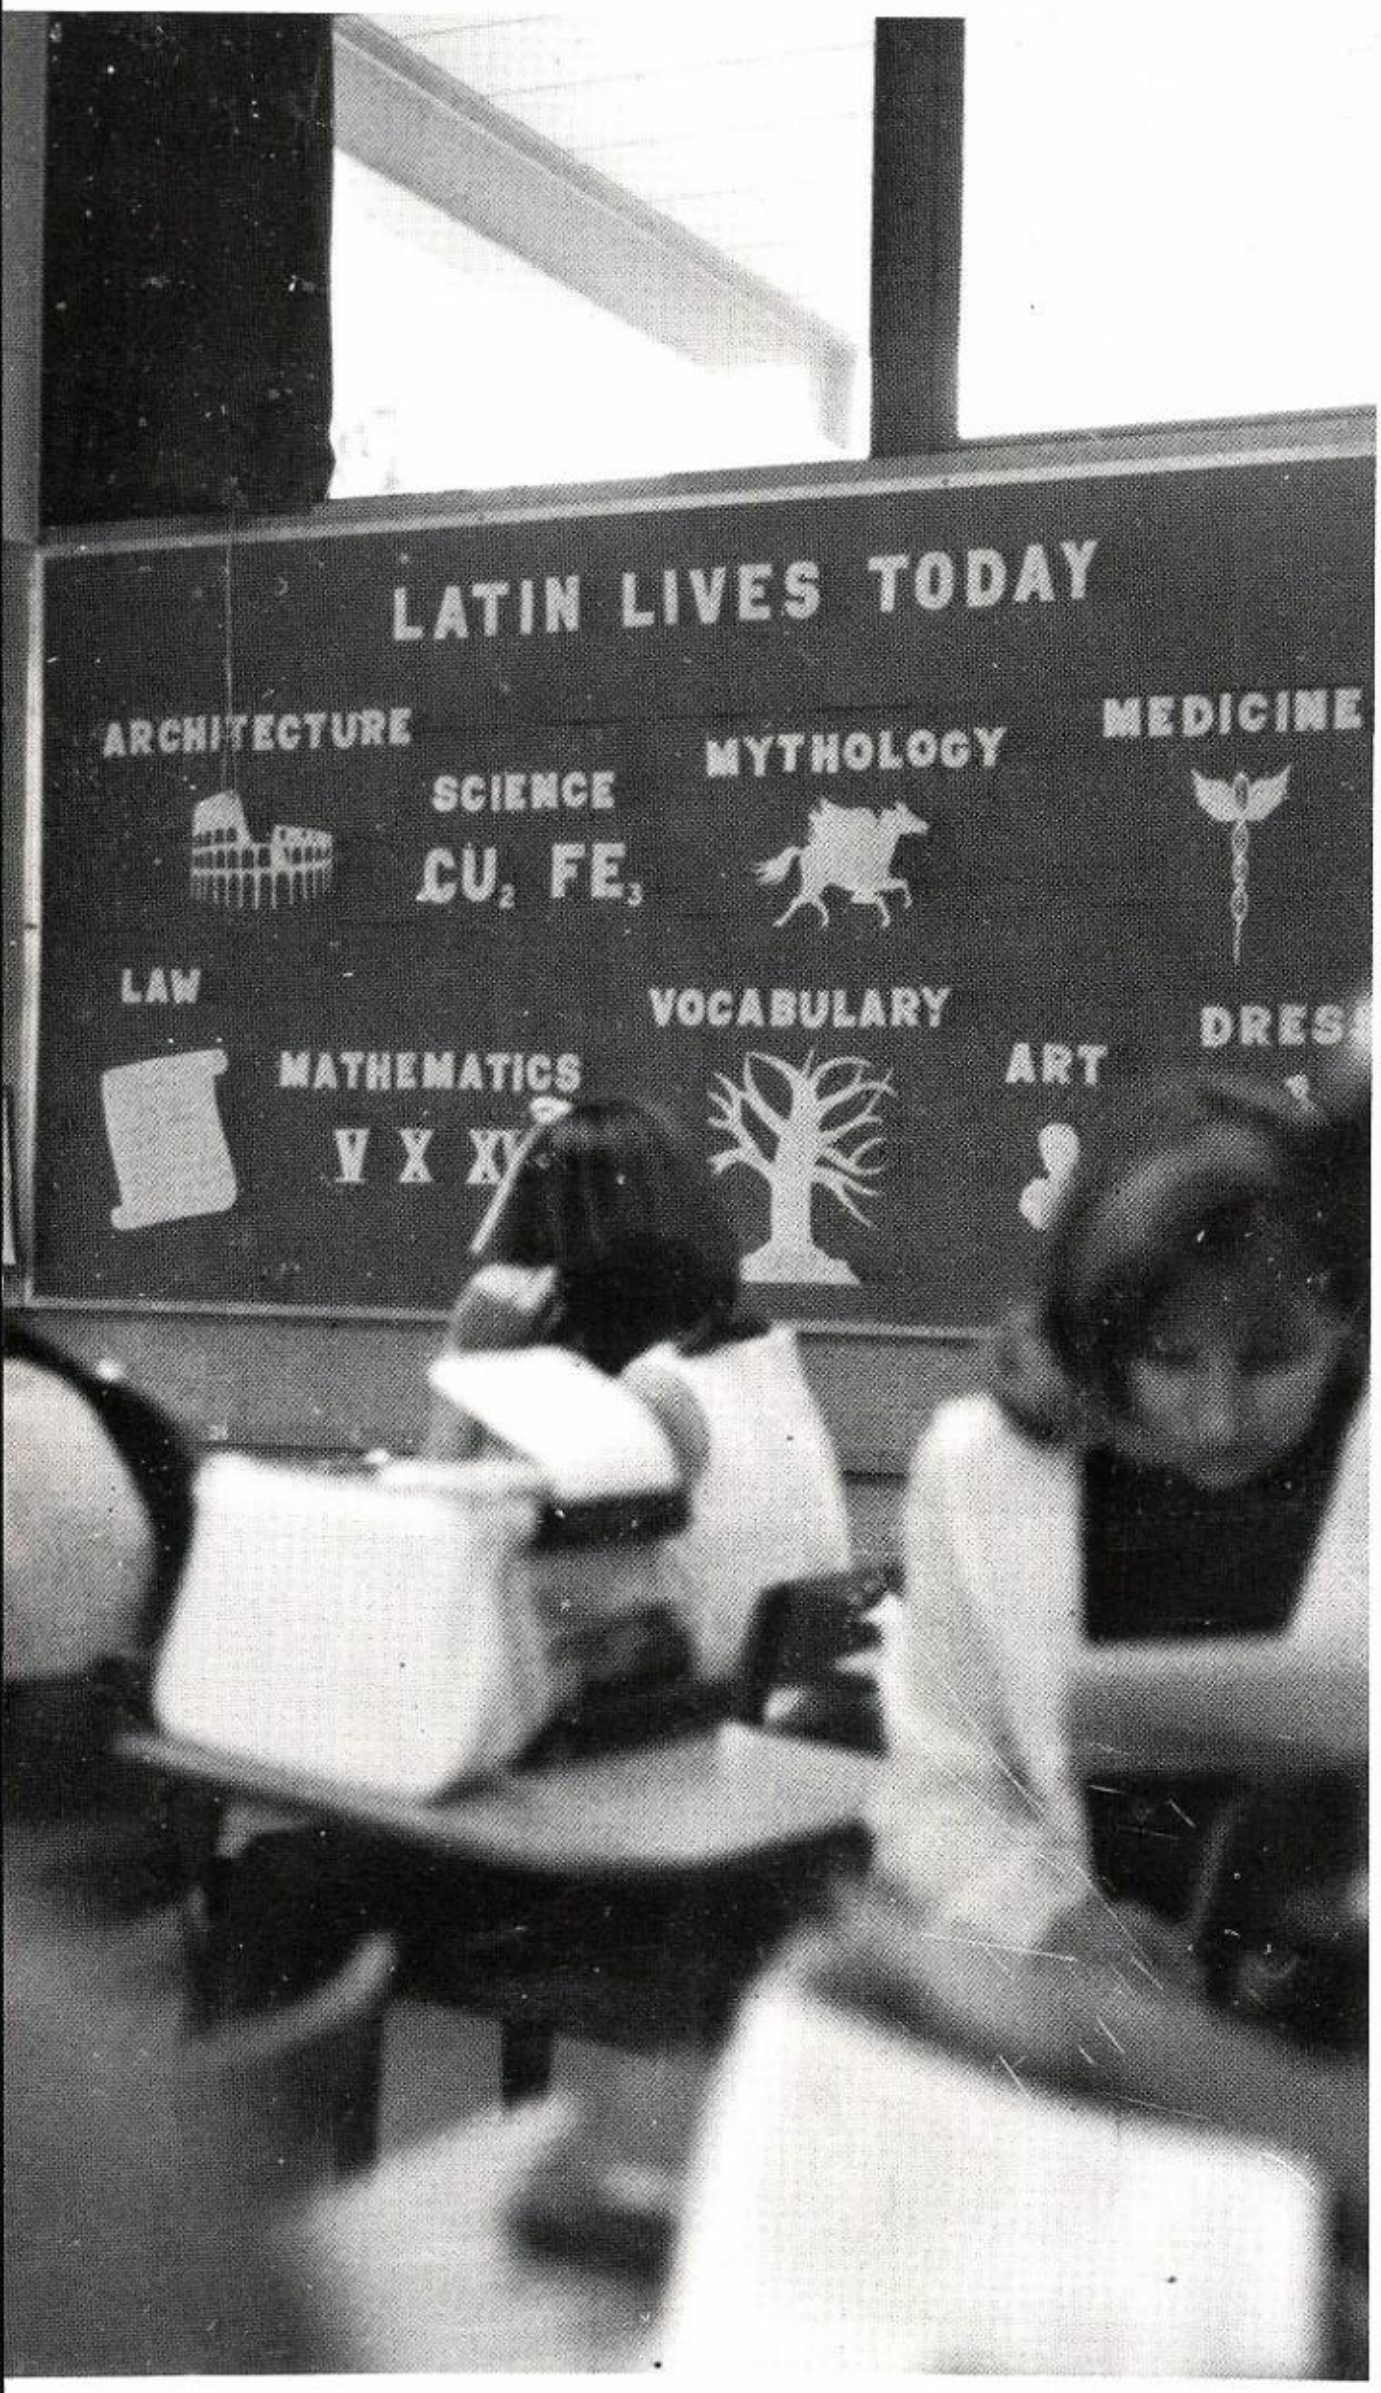
Debates are second semester activities in Speech class. Nervous debaters often present interesting cases in defense of international organizations to control nuclear weapons. But everyone comes out a little more poised and a little more persuasive.



Debating is a keenly intellectual game. If you are not on your toes, you can become very confused. If you are, it can prove very exciting.

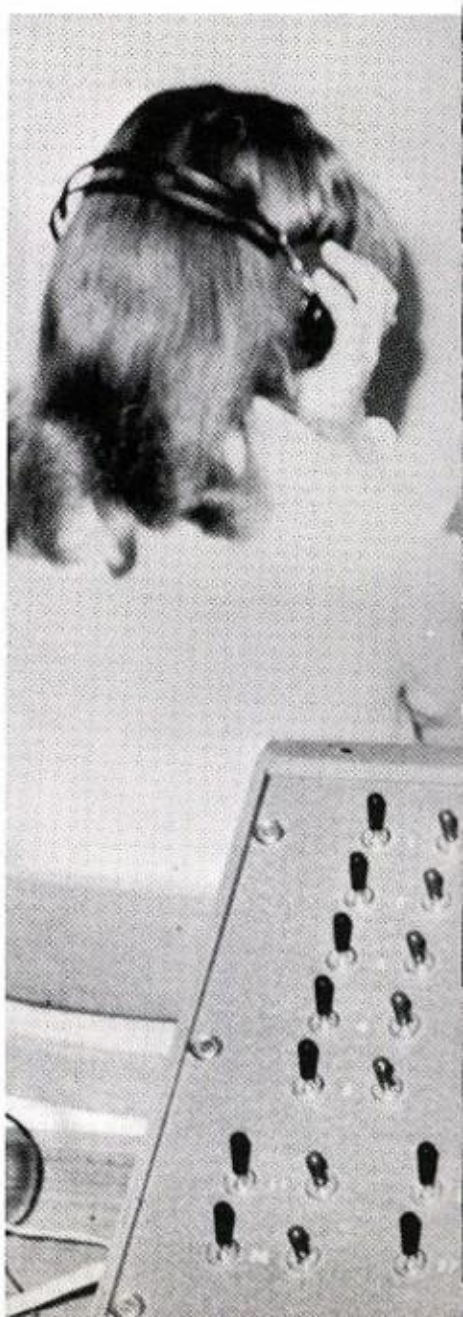
Drama

Drama class provides its students with an opportunity to perfect their acting abilities. The stage to these students is a form of art, and drama class often proves to be the high point of the day. Here the actors put to life a scene from a play. Putting to life what has been only written takes more skill than merely reading what has been written. Show biz is a challenging business.



Glendale High offers Spanish, German, Russian, and Latin to its students. In studying these languages not only do we learn the grammar and vocabulary but also the customs, habits and attitudes of the people who speak that language. Third and Fourth year German students read the words of great German authors. Spanish students take part in the many Spanish customs. Each year they break a pinata at Christmas and during the year have many fiestas. More than likely the custom of the siesta is observed. Latin students sometimes acquaint themselves with our ancestors, the Romans. Aeneid takes on a different light when read in Latin.

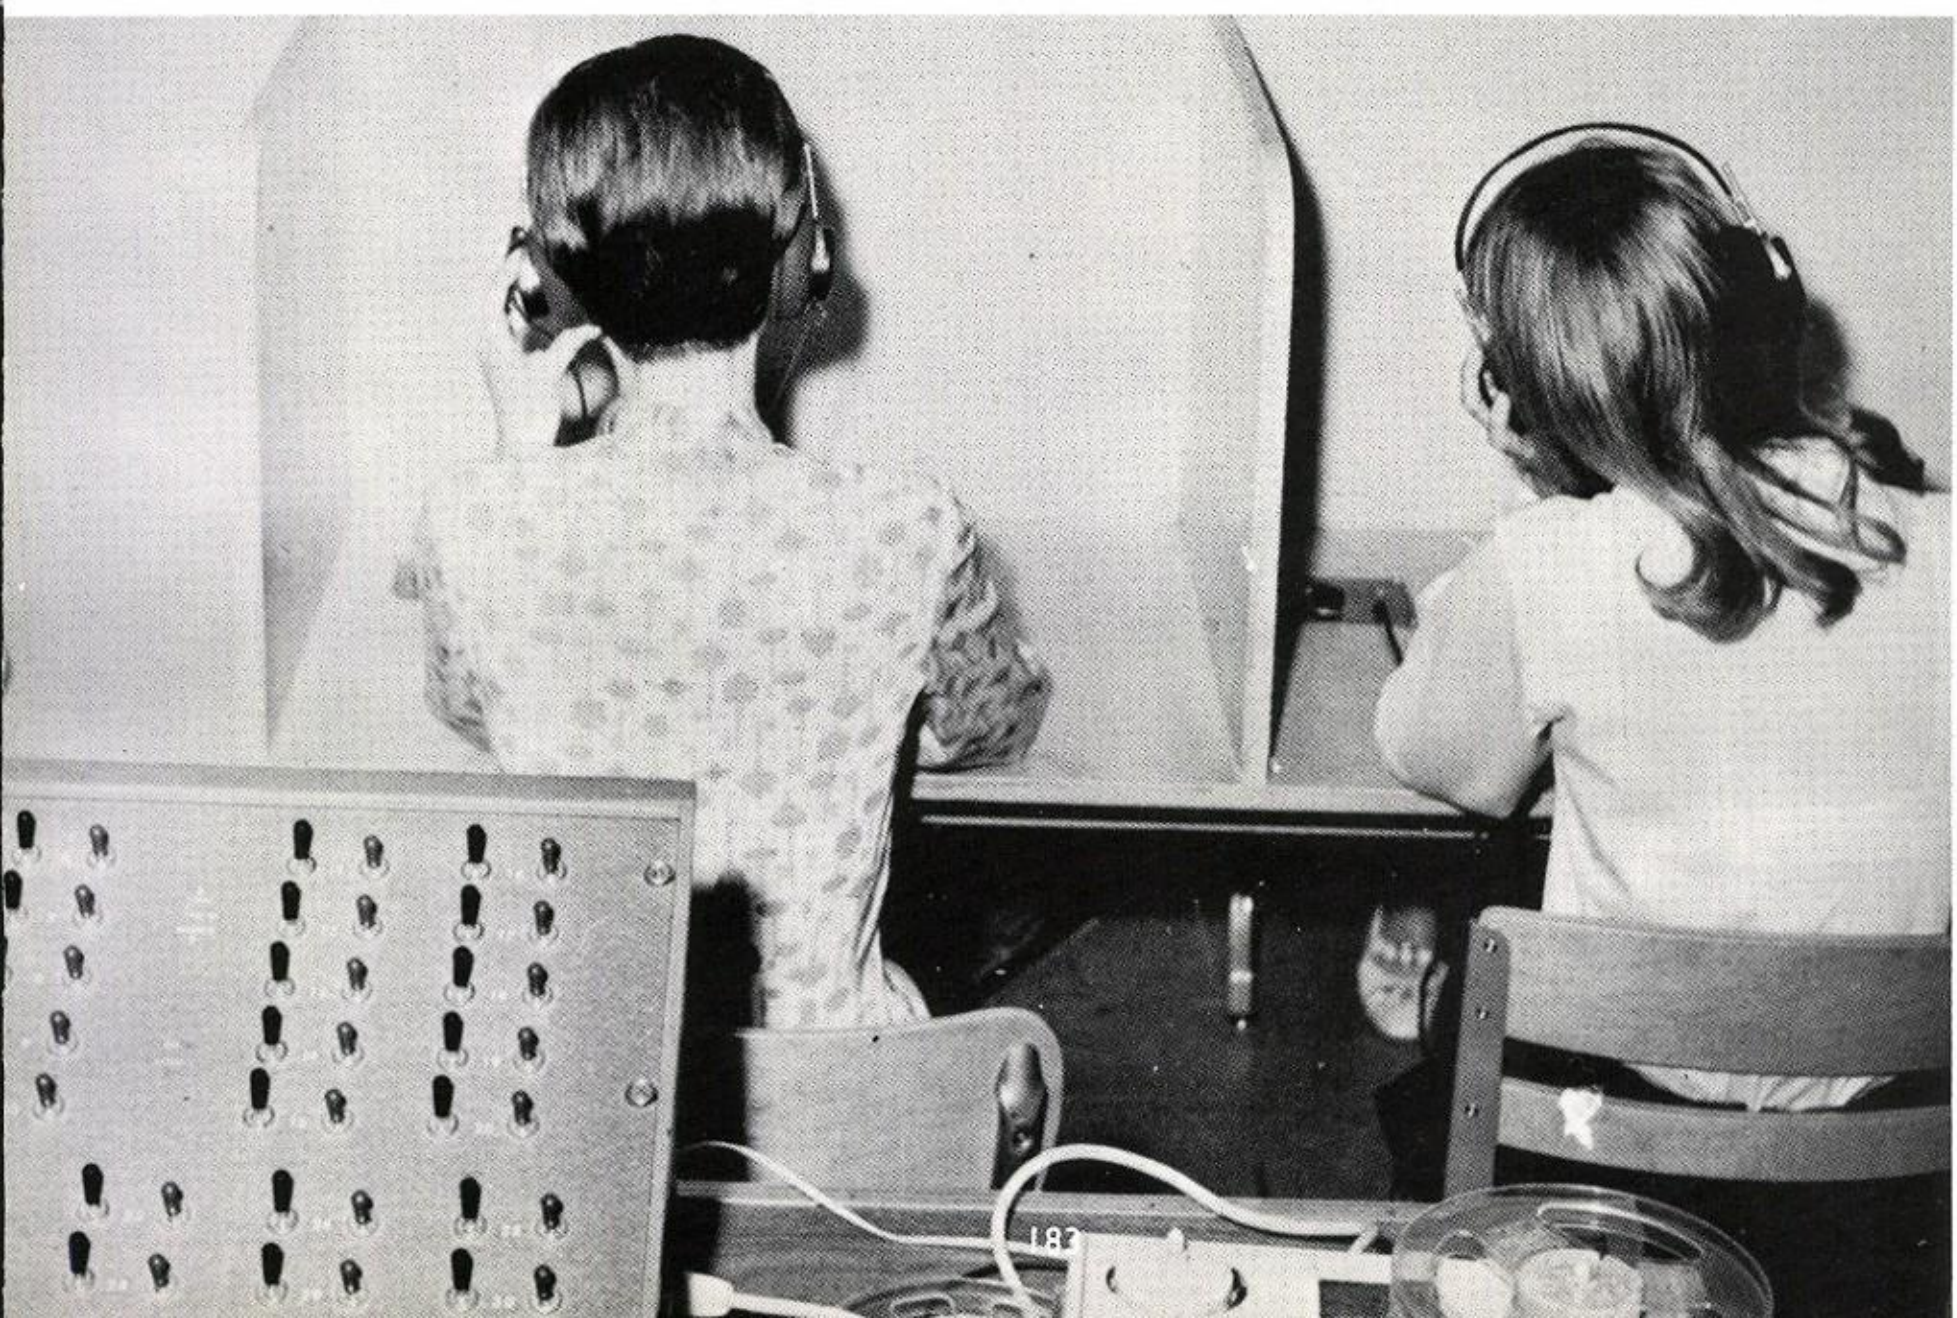
Language

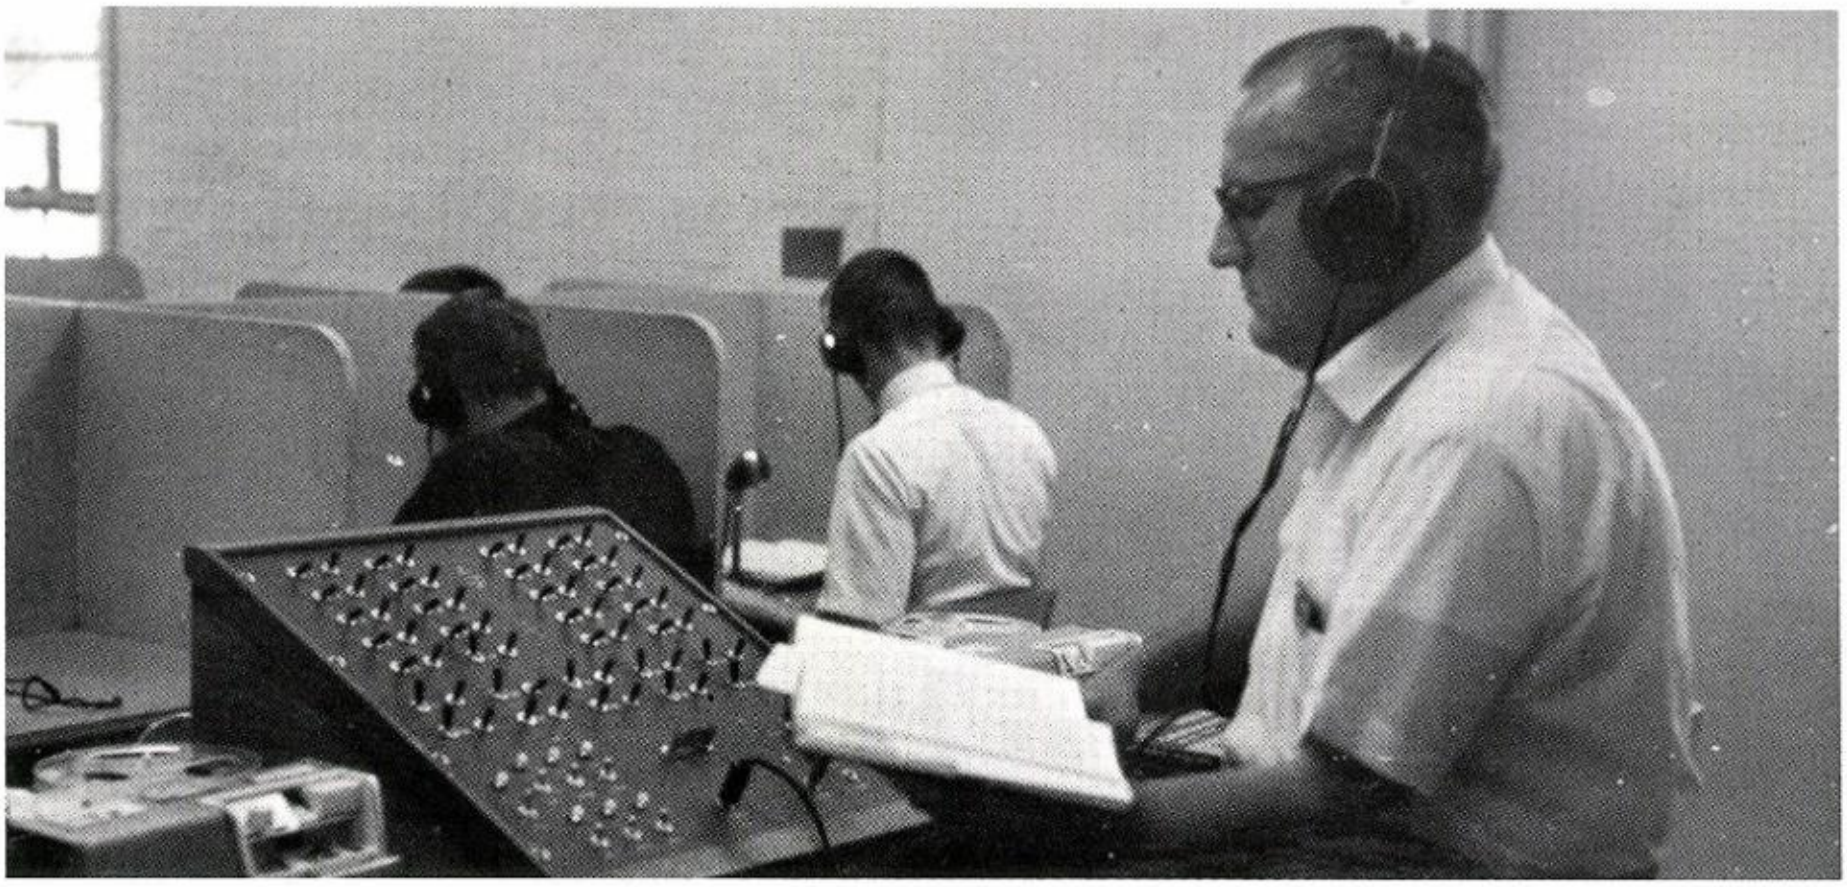


One convenient method of learning a foreign language is to do it in small groups. This is a German study group. As one reads the others will follow and a discussion ensues.

Labs, Study Groups Aid Learning

In the language, you listen through these earphones to a voice as it speaks the dialogue of one of the lessons. Besides a sore ear one can get the proper pronunciation.





Russian students use the language lab, also. Mr. Wucinich leads the class in a drill.

Languages Aid In Study Of Social

Learning a foreign language is an educational experience. Knowledge of our own language is enhanced. Students find a certain fascination in reading, hearing and speaking a language other than their own. Once you get beyond the "Como esta" or "Sprechen Sie Deutsch" stage a whole new world of understanding and expression will unfold.

These language skits were given during the Foreign Languages Week.

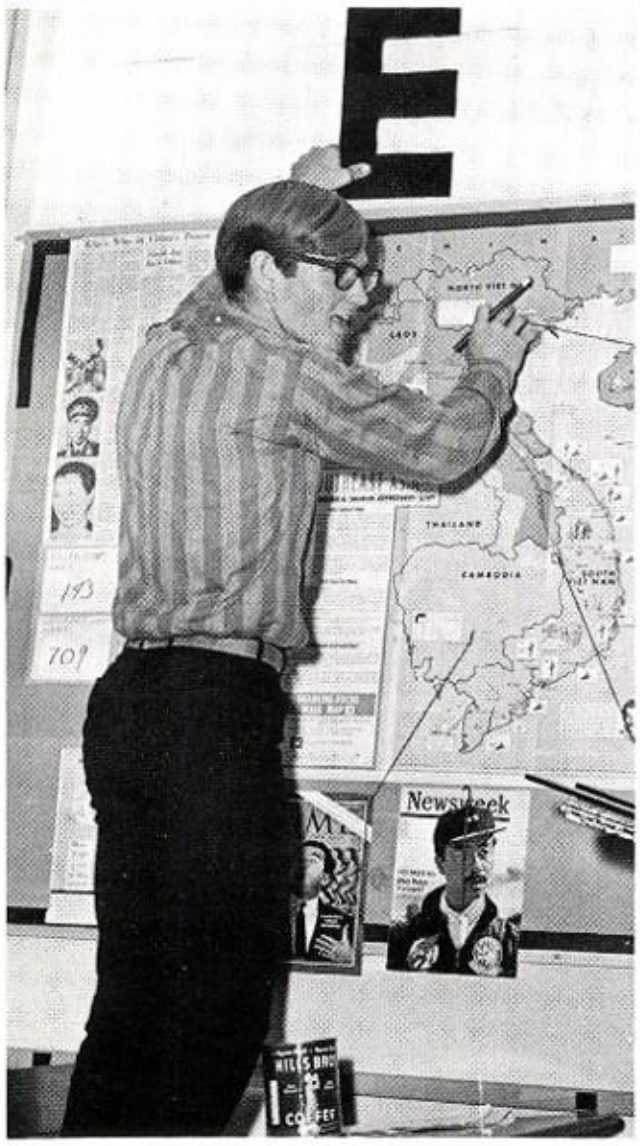
Sciences

In Civics Mrs. Cropper shows a film. A simple little film like U.S. vs. Darby gave some of us heartburn.

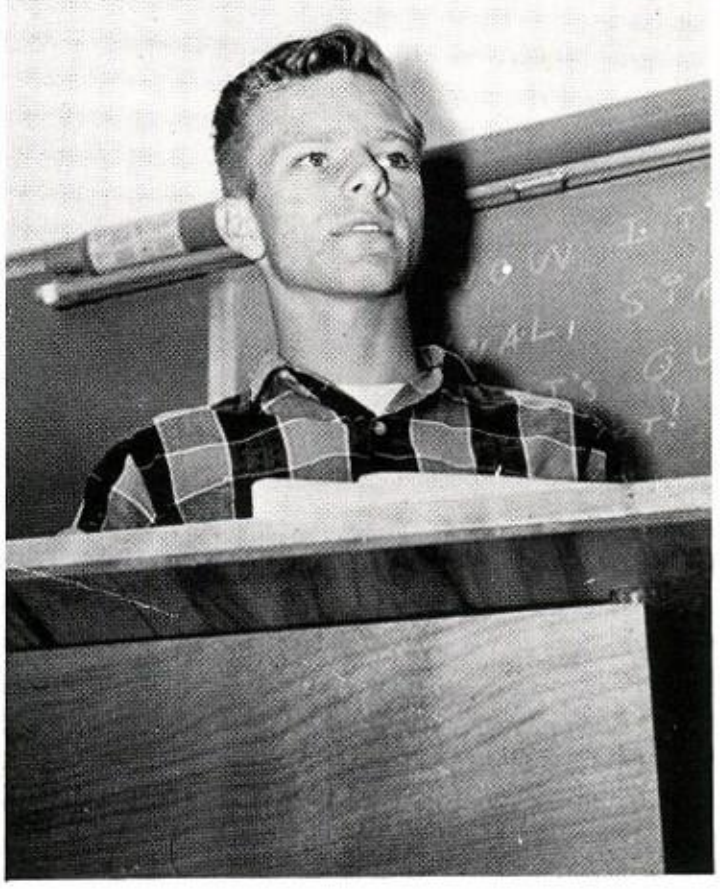
"Disarm the U.S.," demands the Mexican delegate. "Mexico can go jump in the lake," shouts Mike Sullivan, the U.S. delegate to this O.A.S. meeting.

Maps, Bulletin Boards Of Current

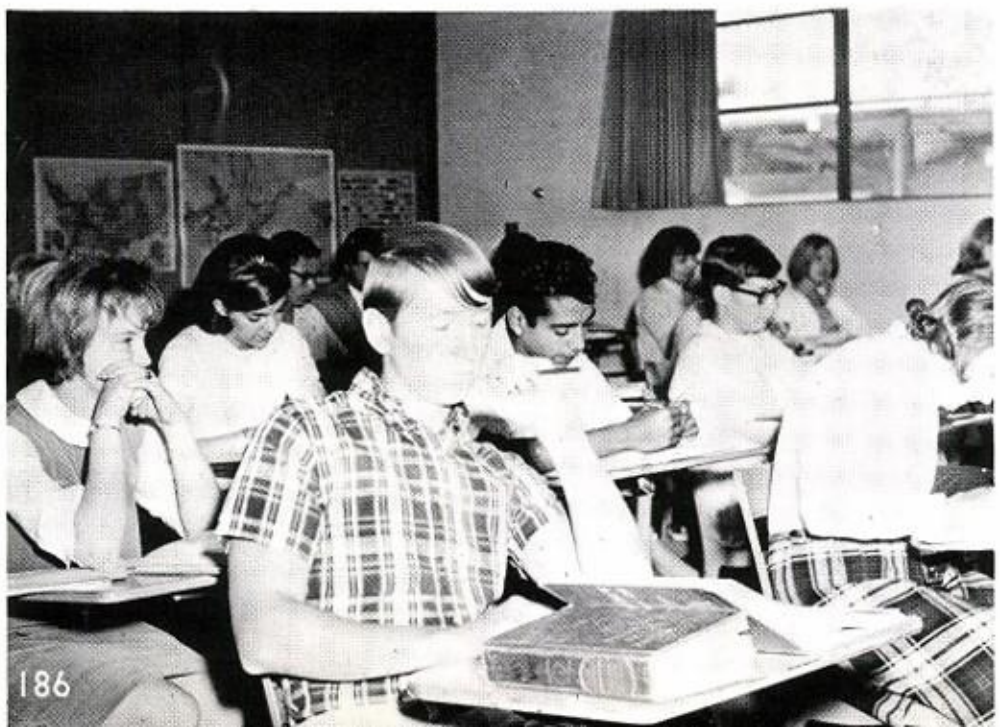
World History students even plotted out a Medieval Manor on one of the bulletin boards



Students will sometimes go to great heights to make their displays colorful and educational.

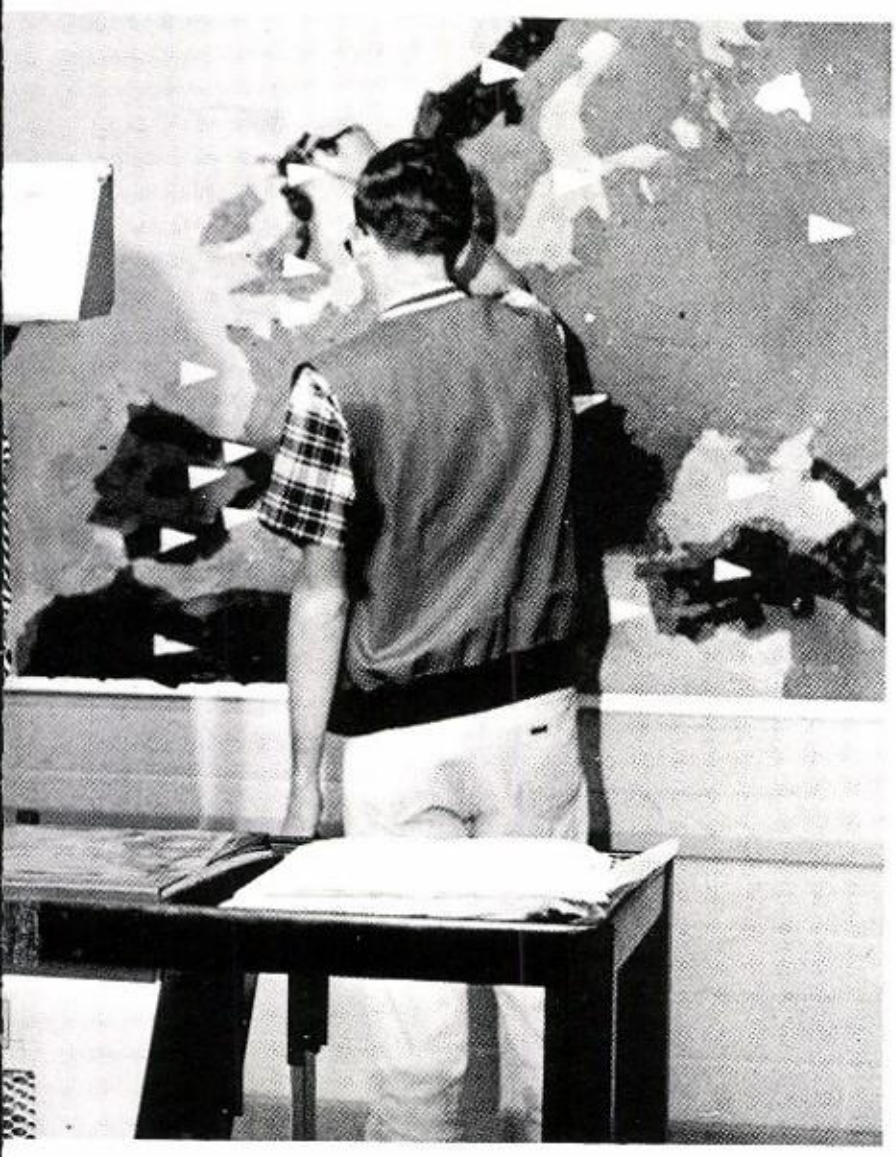


Presentations by the students are a large part of the learning experiences of the world history student.



This U.S. history class is taking notes on the lecture concerning manifest destiny.

Enhance Study Events



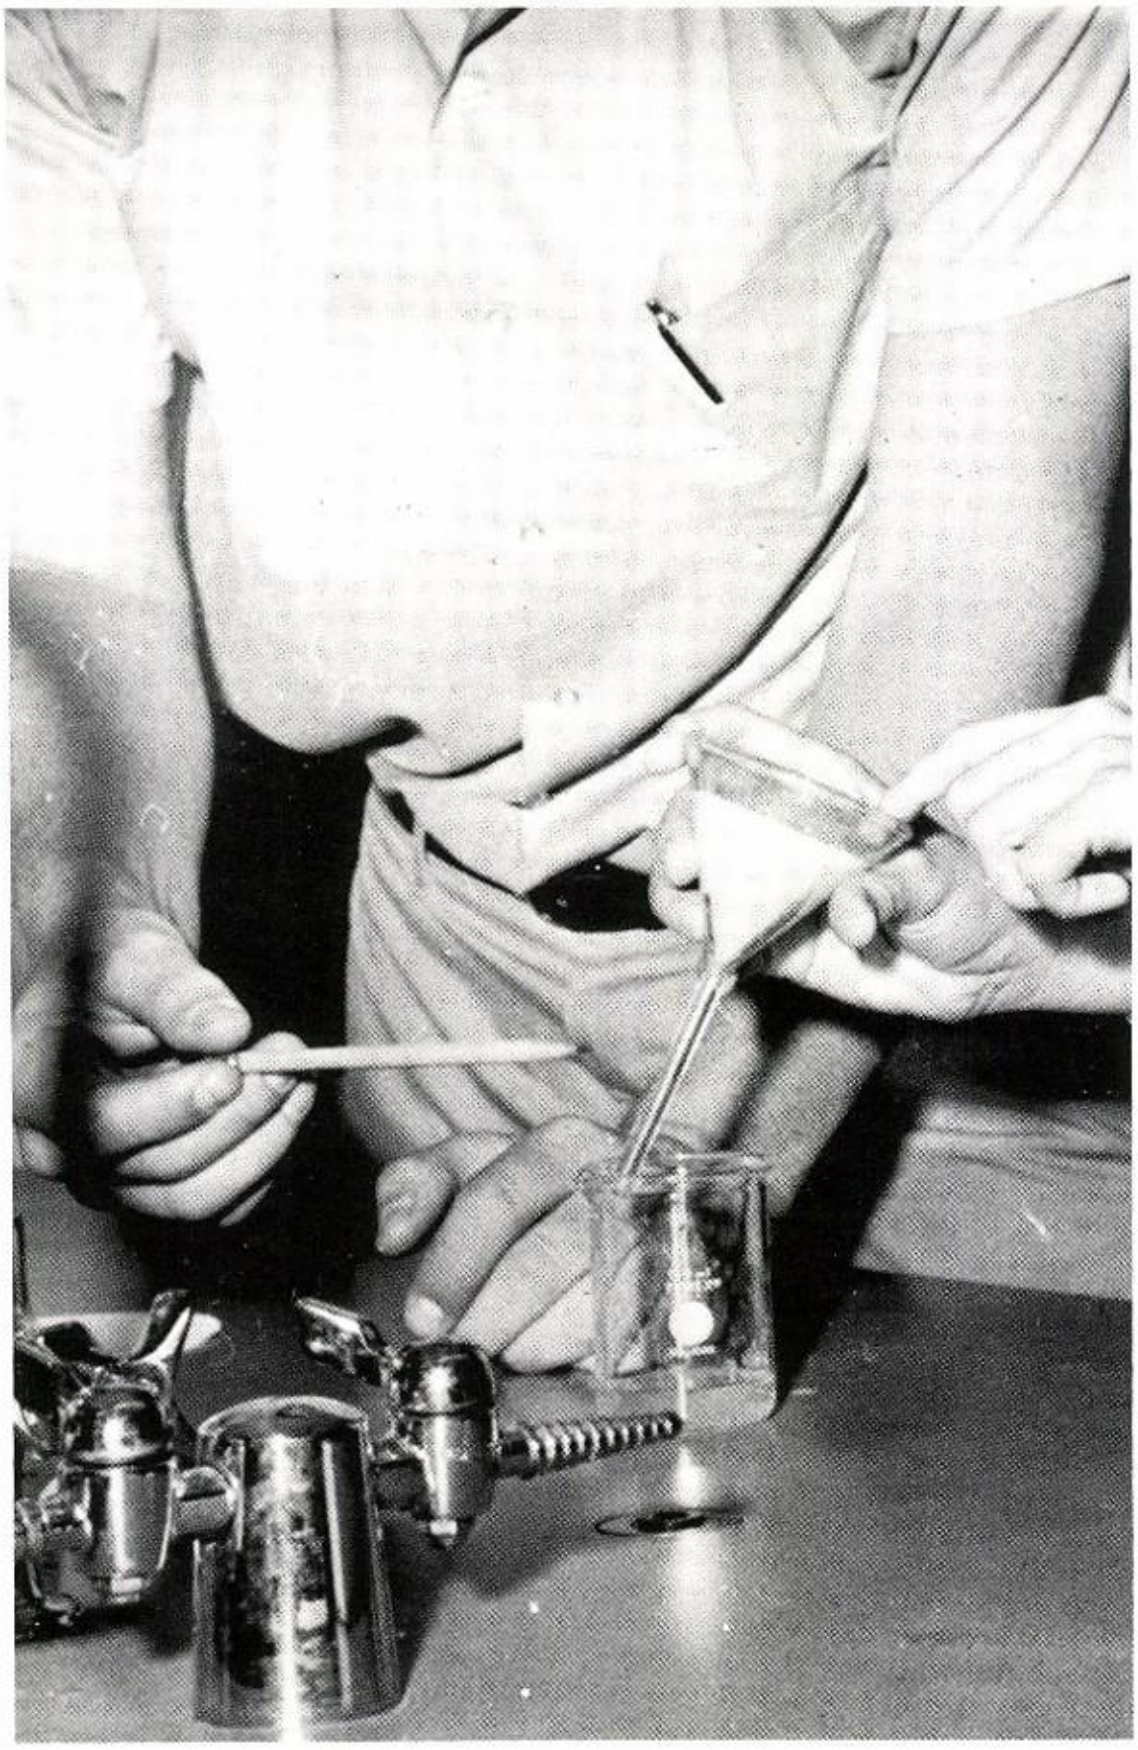
As one person projects the drawing on the board, the other traces it.

The first touch of social studies that the student receives is sophomore geography. Maps, Goode's World Atlas, bulletin boards, and debates make the class exciting. The sophomores learn that Alaska is more than tundra and that Africa is more than desert and jungle.

The juniors study United States history. They see films of beautifully (?) enacted moments from early American history, hear records on the civil war, or memorize the Gettysburg Address. Current events is often a part of the study of U.S. history. When it is, newspaper articles begin to disappear from Dad's newspaper and reappear on the bulletin board at school.

Civics is for seniors. Films, lectures, debates, and panel reports are on the agenda. Economics takes the last two six weeks of study time and then the seniors go out and become the labor force that they have studied about.

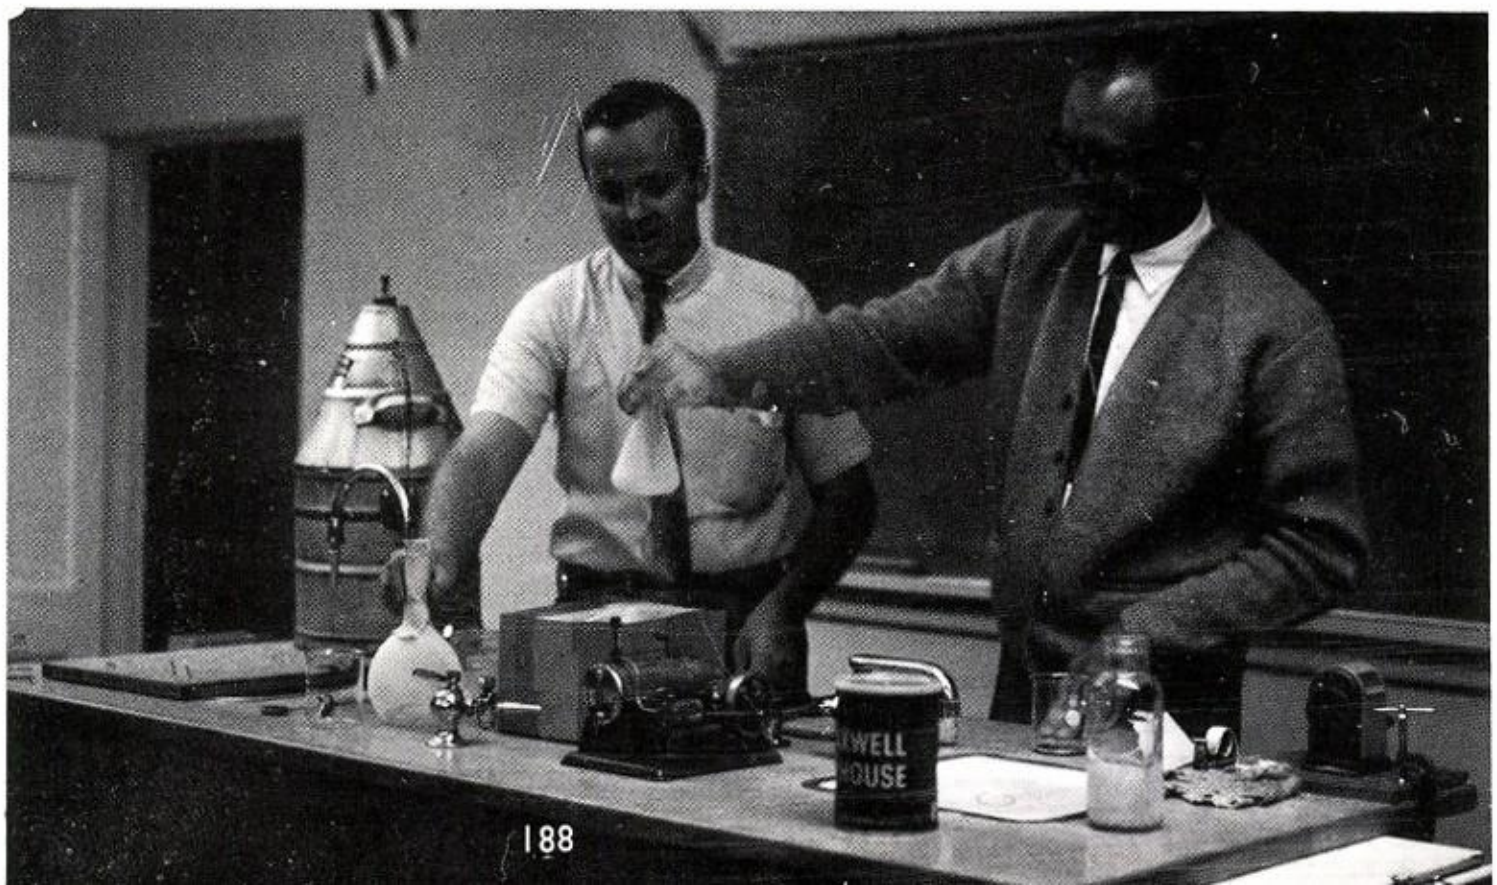
Latin American history and world history give any student interested in social studies a chance to expand his horizons many times. These add to the broad educational experience provided by Glendale in the realm of social studies.



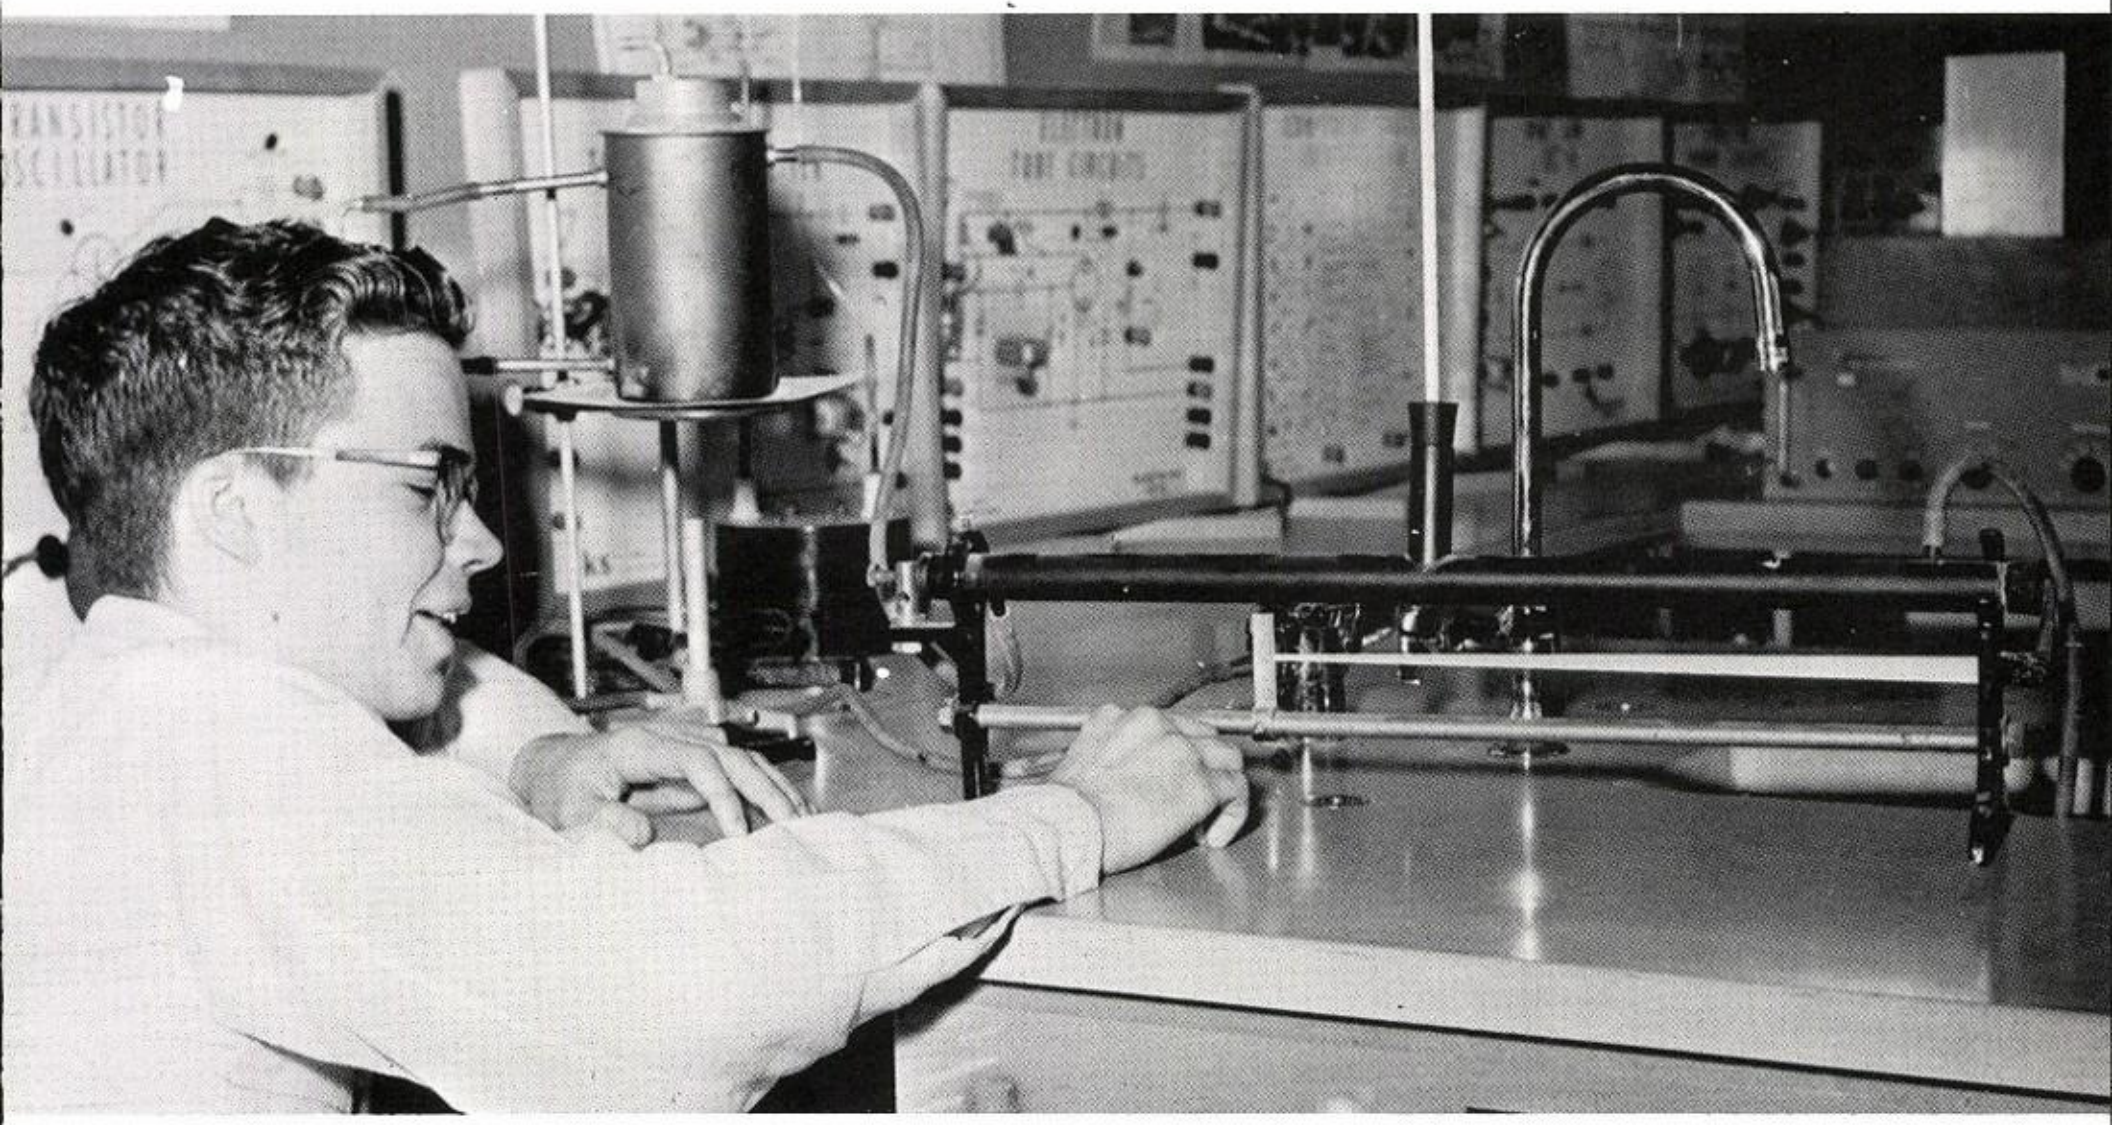
One intriguing facet of academic life on the Glendale High campus is the science department: physical science for the freshmen, biology for the sophomores, chemistry for the juniors, and advanced biology, physics, or electricity for the seniors. Experiments, surveys, projects, and term reports are a part of the learning experience of the science student. The science we study here at Glendale we find to be all around us in the world. The study of rocks, animals, atoms, or weather help to round out the over-all character of the Glendale High student.

Young

Such experiments as the one here provide the chemistry students with unique experiences. They are doing an experiment with bases.

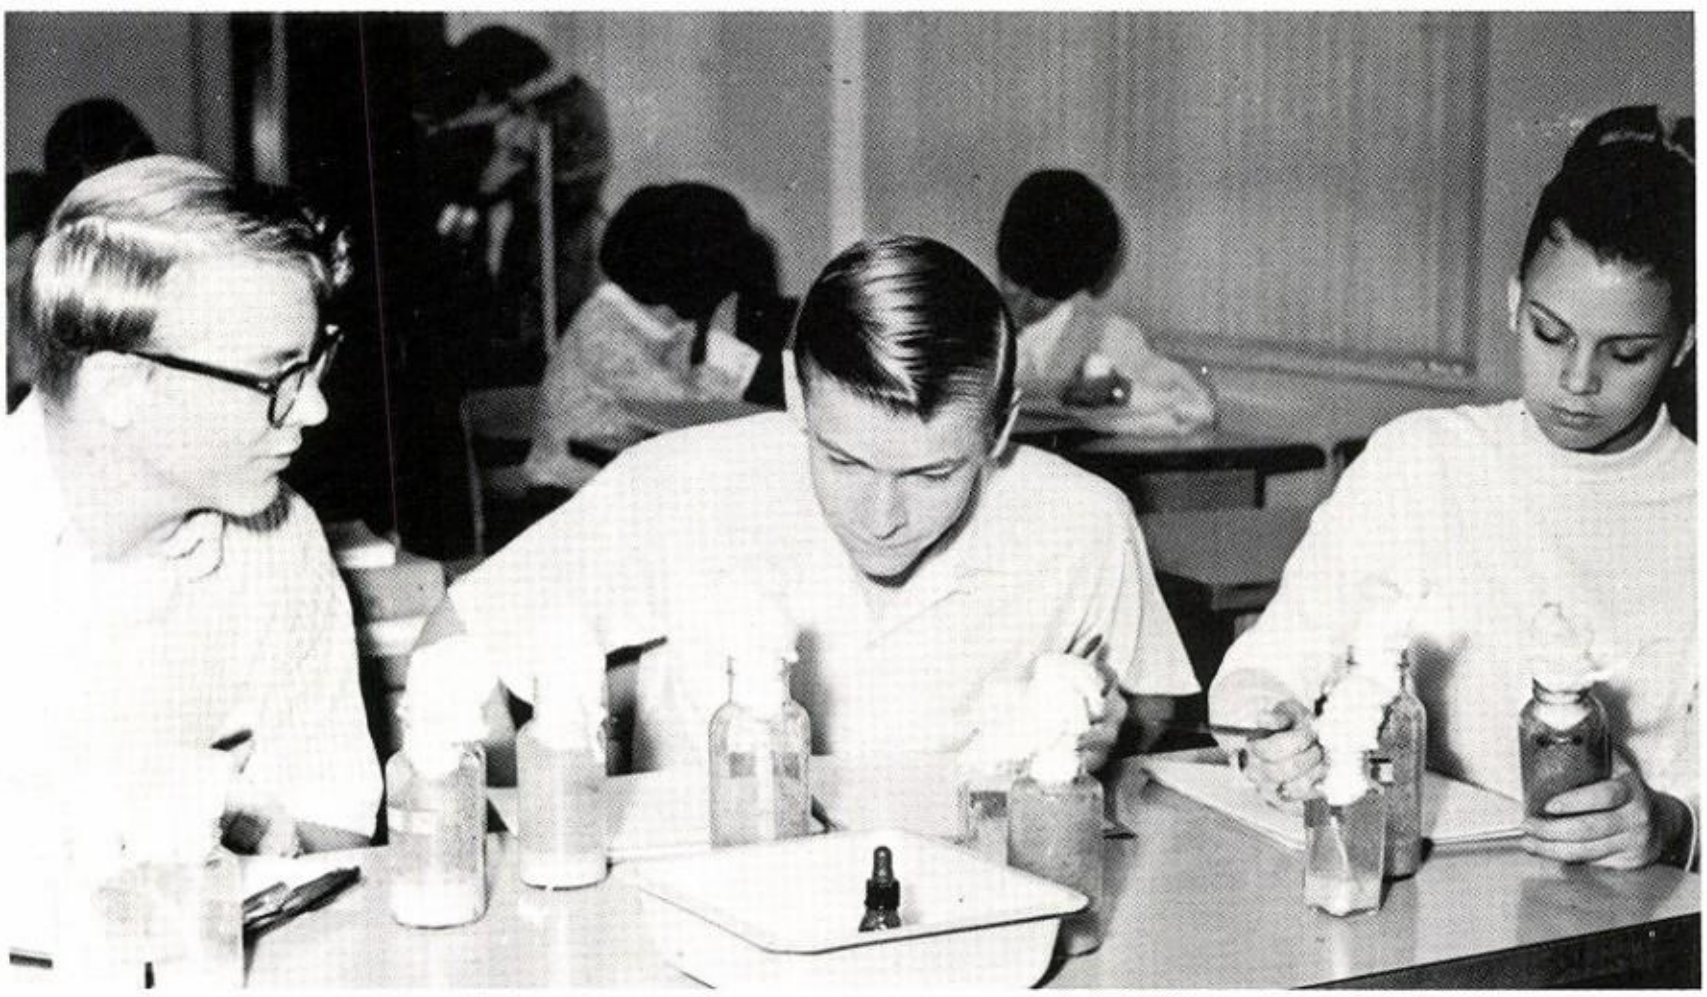


Mr. Forsman proceeds to freeze a ball of mercury for the freshman physical science class. Liquid nitrogen is used.

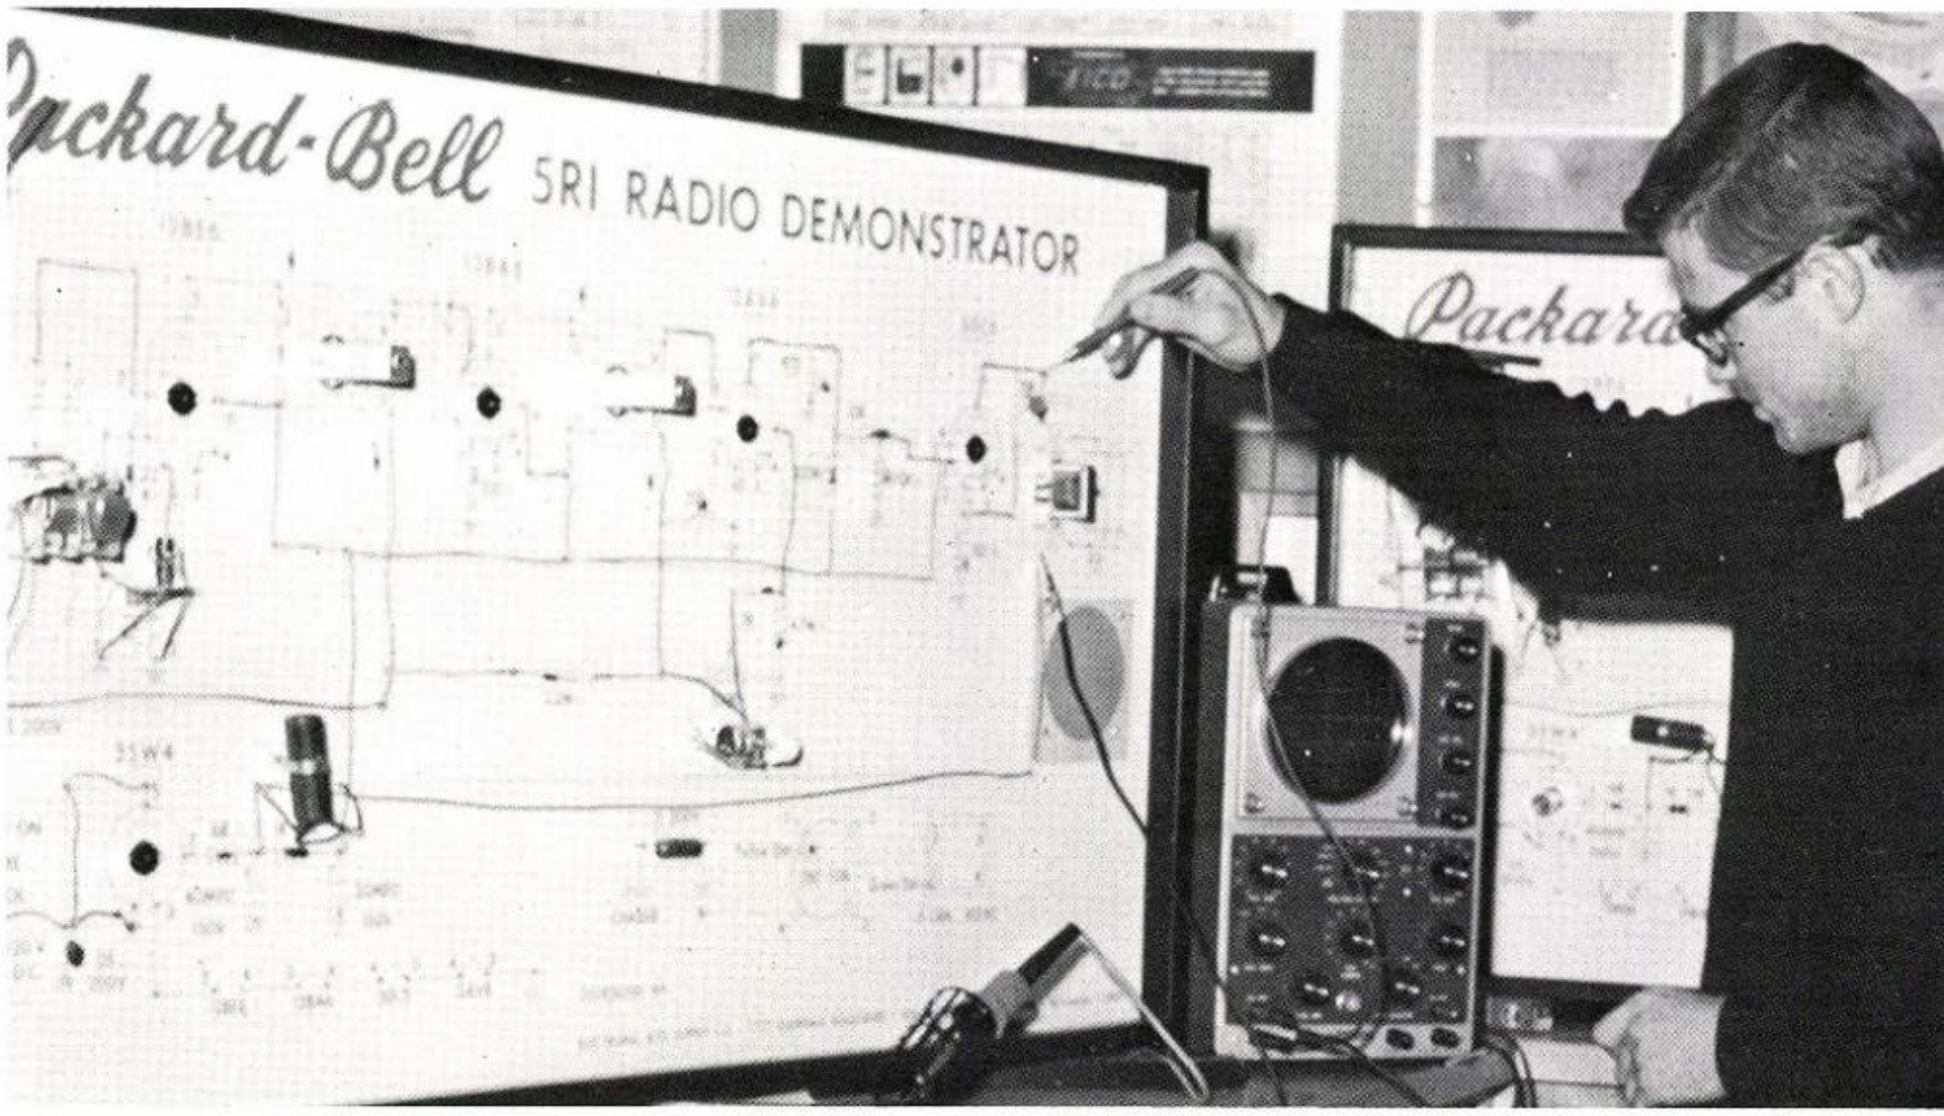


Sometimes the equipment involved in a physics experiment is complicated but if you're like Marvin you can catch it all. To the people in this class the measurement of thermal linear expansion has its good points.

Scientists Explore, Discover

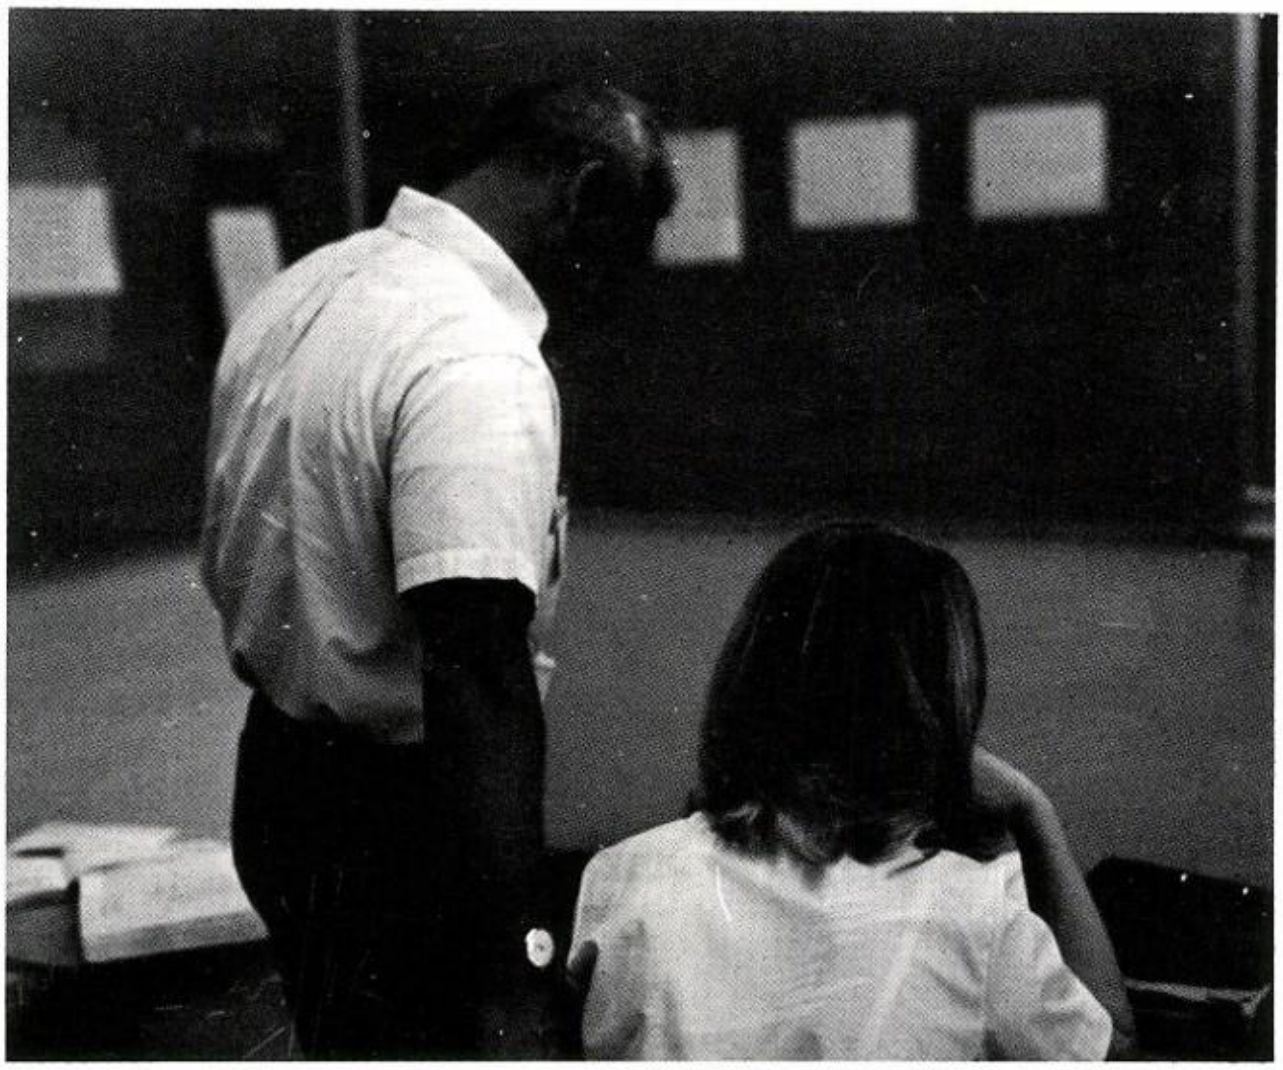


To the people in advanced biology the dating and mating habits of the fruit fly is important.



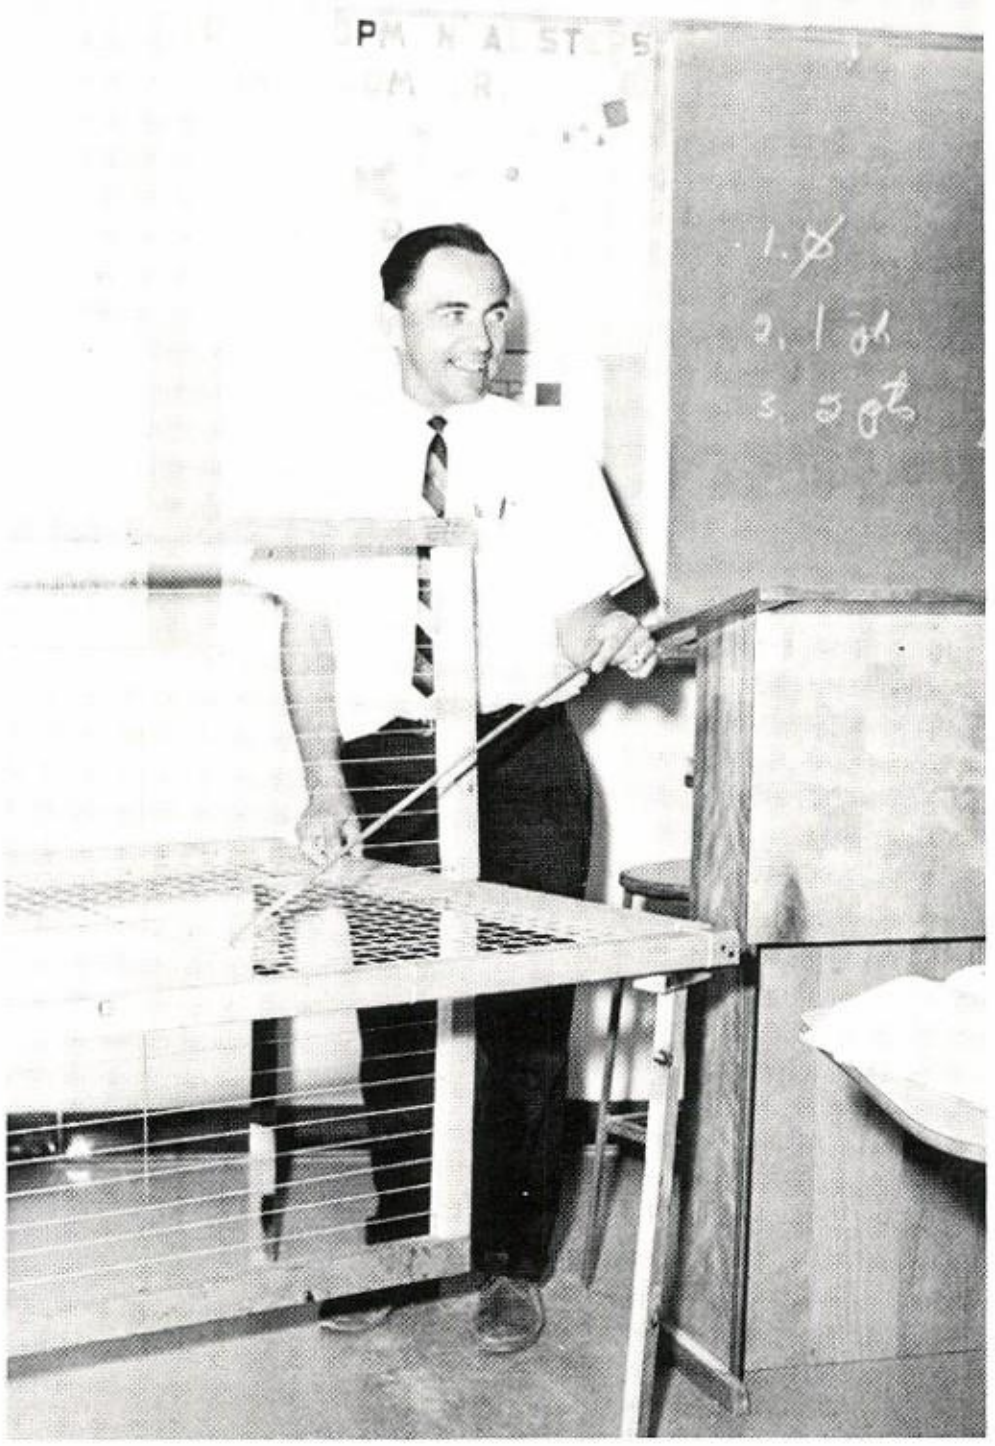
Bob Kanaley tests out the radio demonstrator in Mr. Roberts' electricity class. The oscilloscope he is working with registers electrical impulses on a fluorescent screen.

Mathematics Blazes Trail For

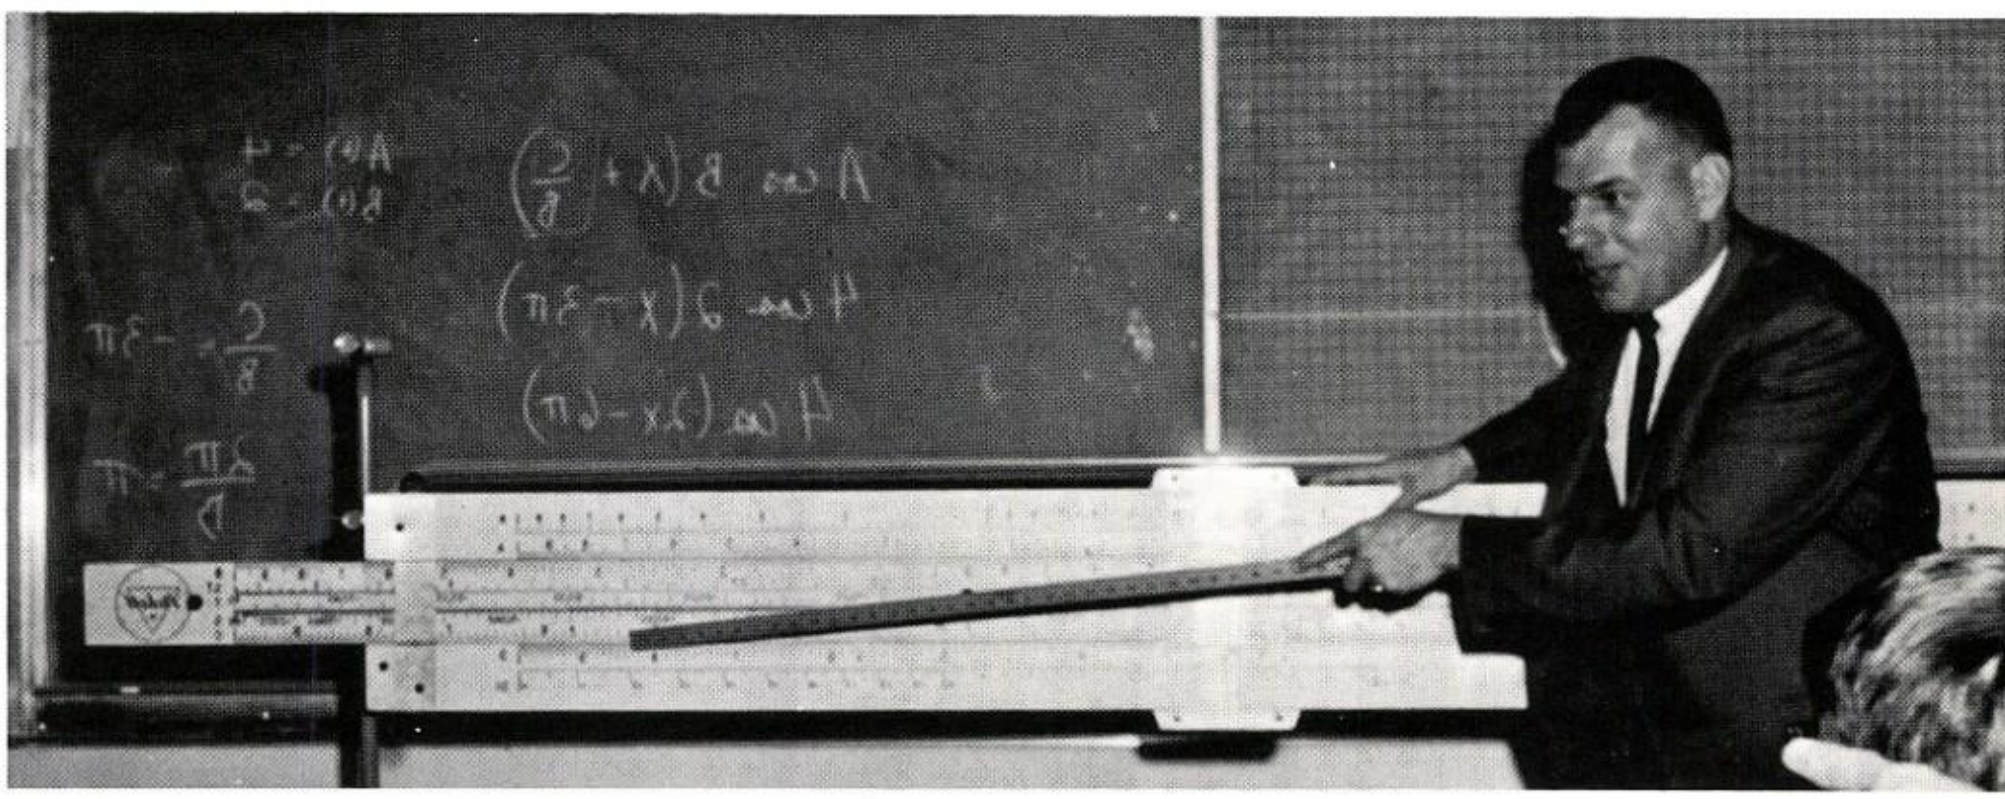


The basic arithmetic is taught in the general math class. Mr. Forrey here gives a student aid on a problem. Our math department has turned out some of the leading mathematicians in the state of Arizona. Glendale offers everything from general math to senior math.

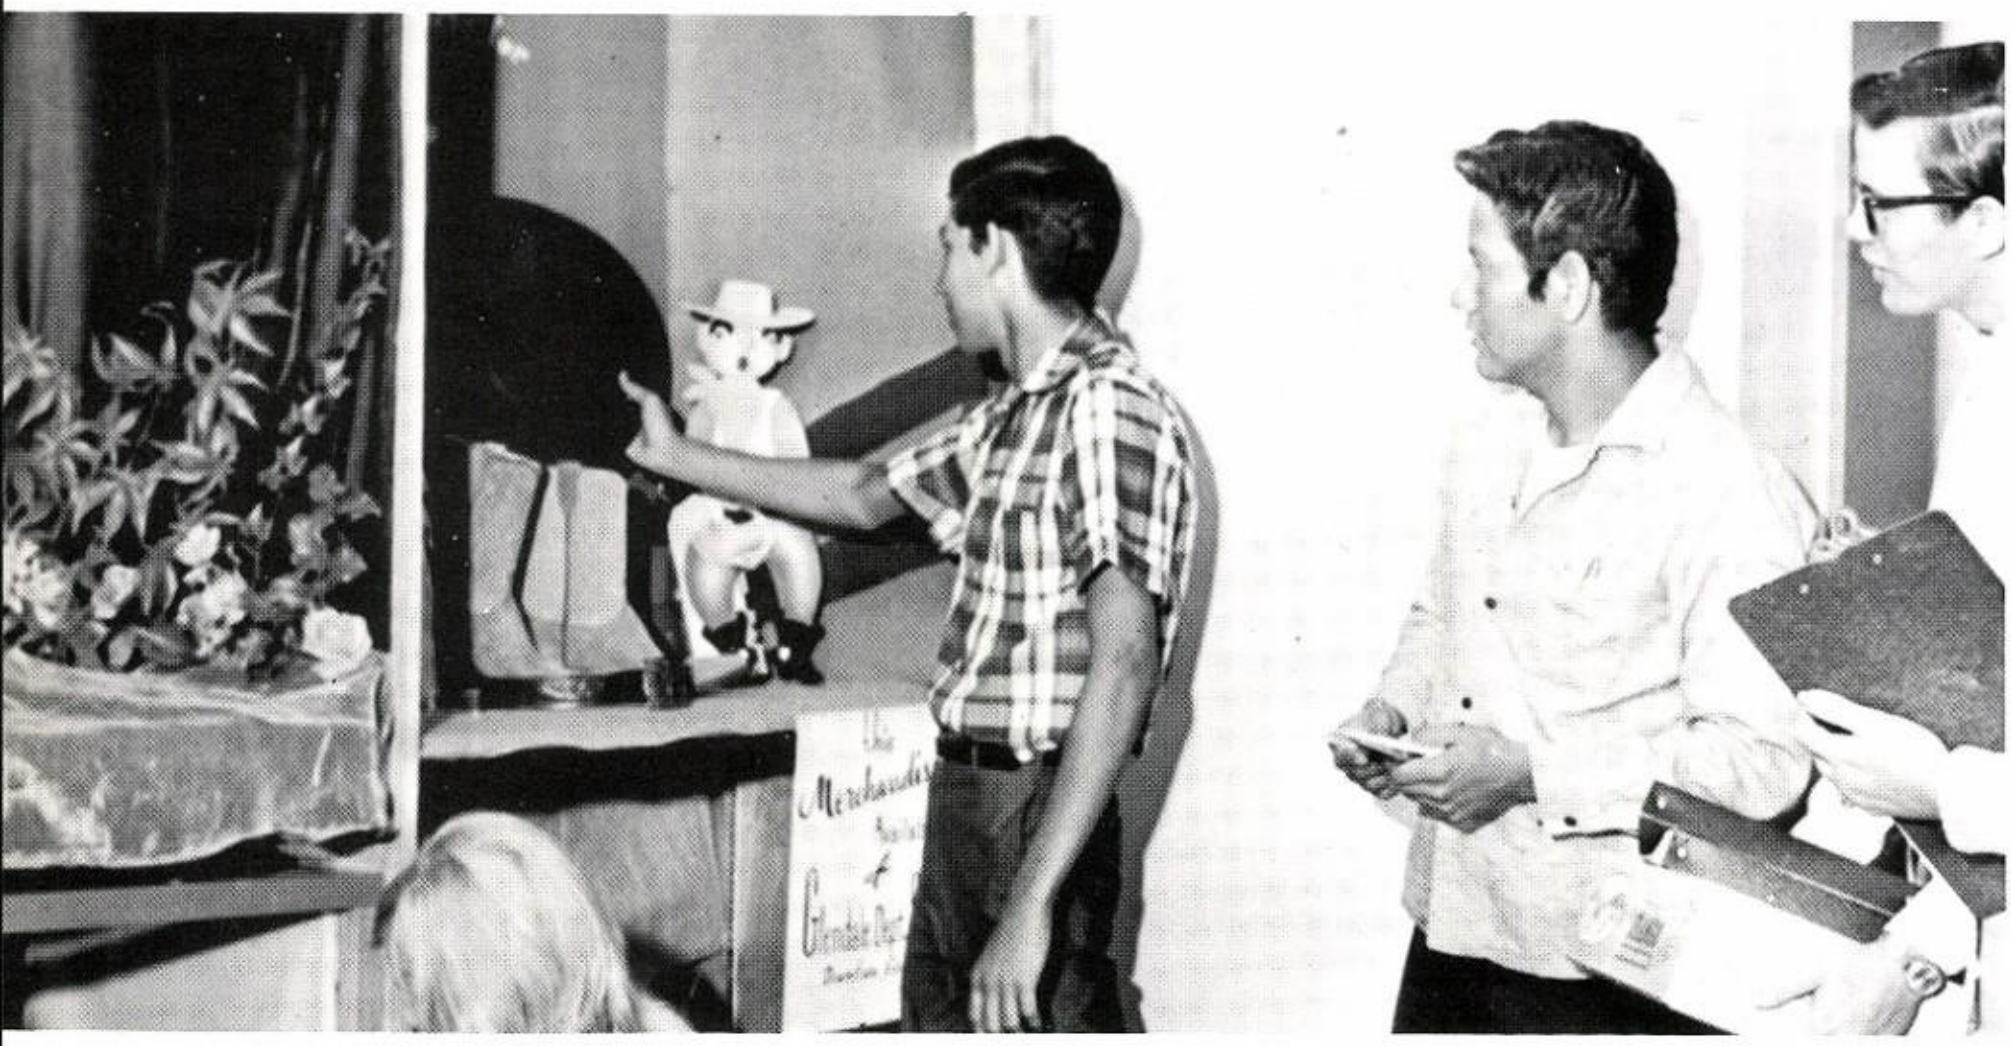
Science



Mr. Fleming uses an intricately-designed model of a three-dimensionalgraph to illustrate a point.



A slide rule like this always helps to enlarge matters. This large-scale model is used to teach others how to squint at their own.



The merchandising students arrange window displays for almost any season or special event at school. Here last-minute details are checked before Miss Jarvis comes around to grade them.

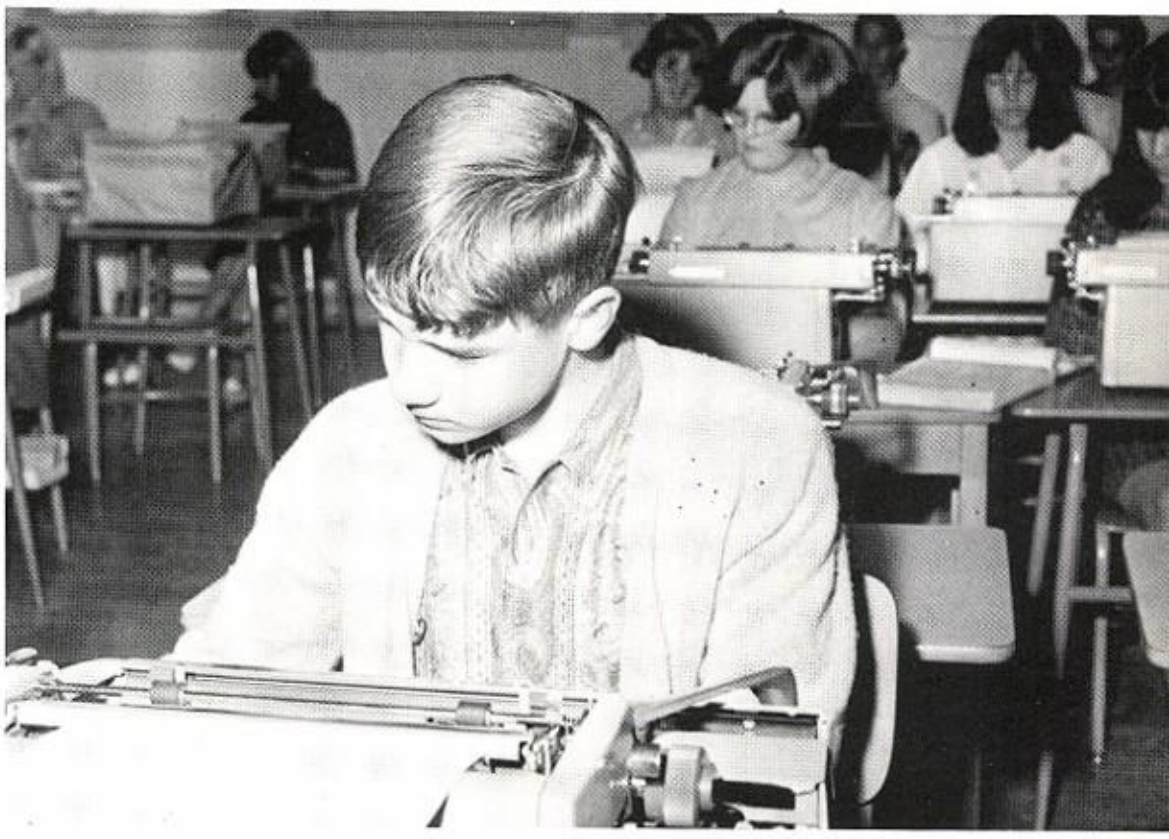
Business Education Teaches Clerical

"Dear Mr. Brown ..." and 80 words a minute later "... very truly yours" and the test is over.

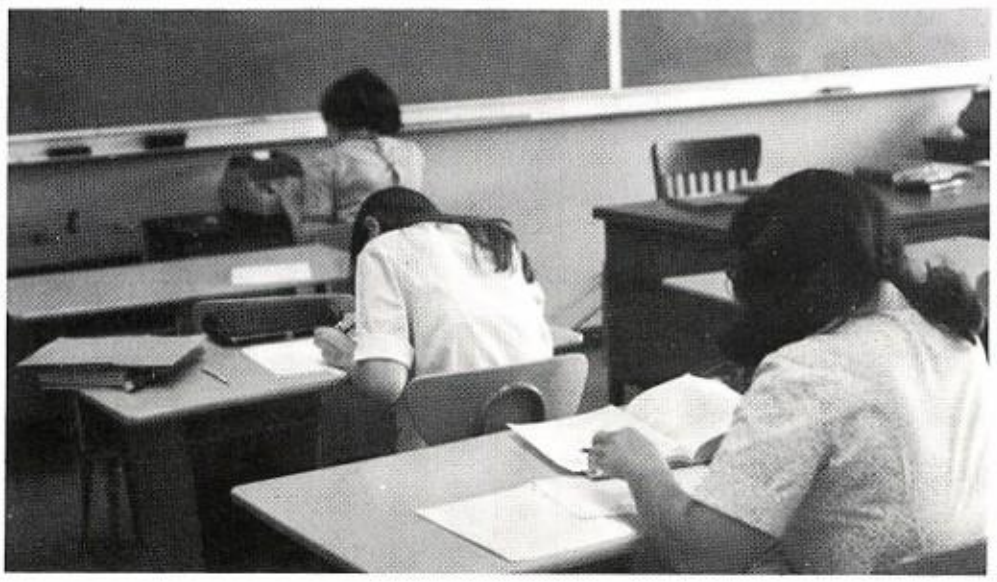
With all his excellent notes and jokes Mr. Heatwole presents another entrancing lecture.

Skills

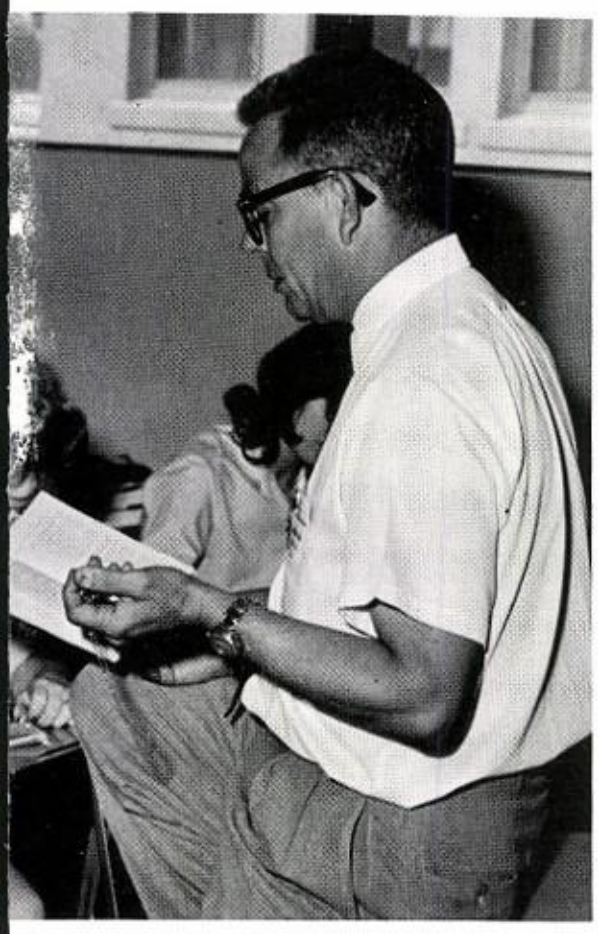
At Glendale a student can take almost any kind of business course he would want to take. General business is always popular with the freshman. Shorthand attracts mostly girls but the boys find it to be worth their while, too. Business law is available for prospective secretaries or businessmen. The typewriters in the typing classes are kept busy every year by those who want to learn to type. Our Distributive Education program is one of the best around and gives many seniors on-the-job training.

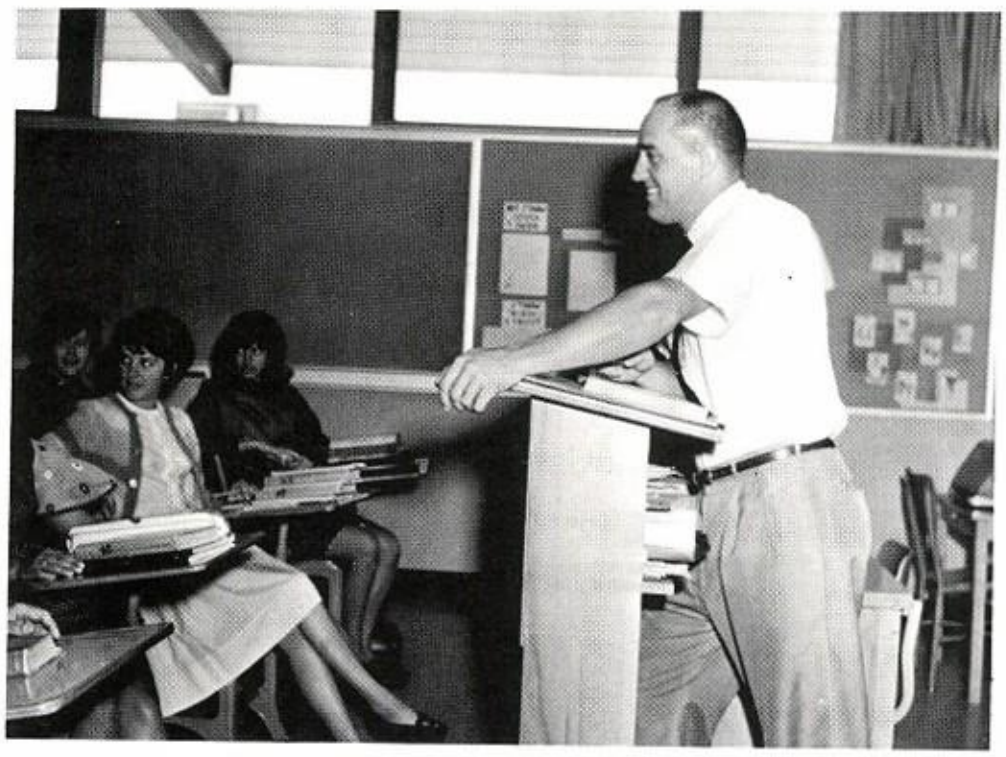


A lot of concentration and frustration goes on in this room where the Glendale students are learning typing.



In bookkeeping these girls are finding out that being a secretary is sometimes a very exacting job.



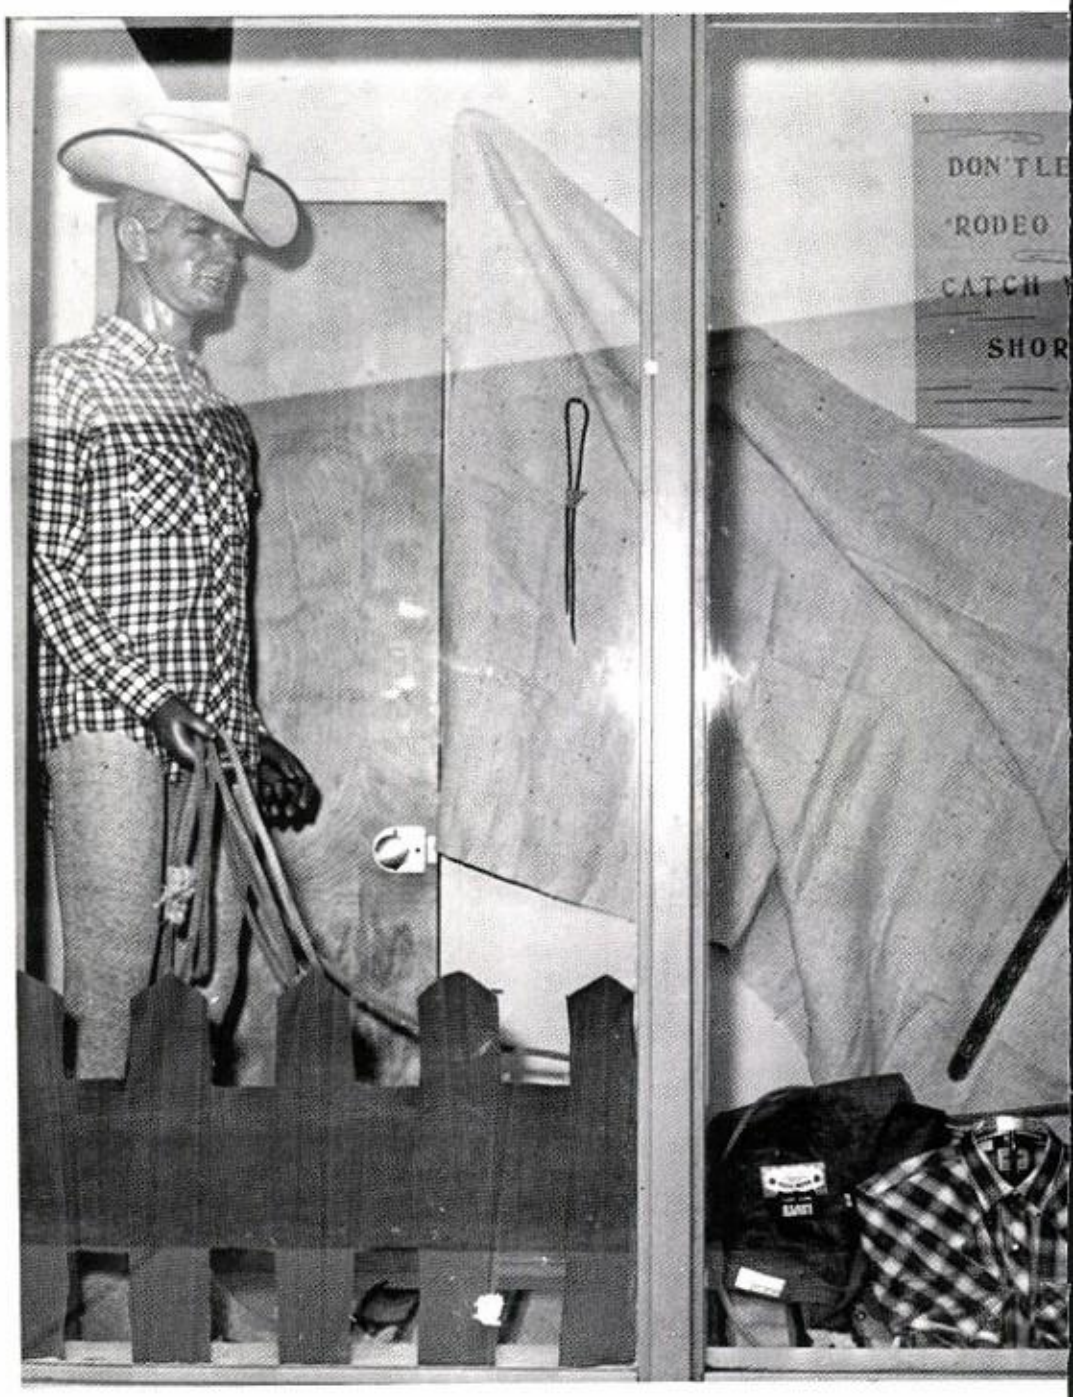


Mr. Miller holds a class discussion on business law.

A guest speaker lectures on alcoholism to the family living class. This topic is just one among many that the class covers during the year.

Cooking class always brings interesting results.

This window display catches the spirit of the Rodeo days.

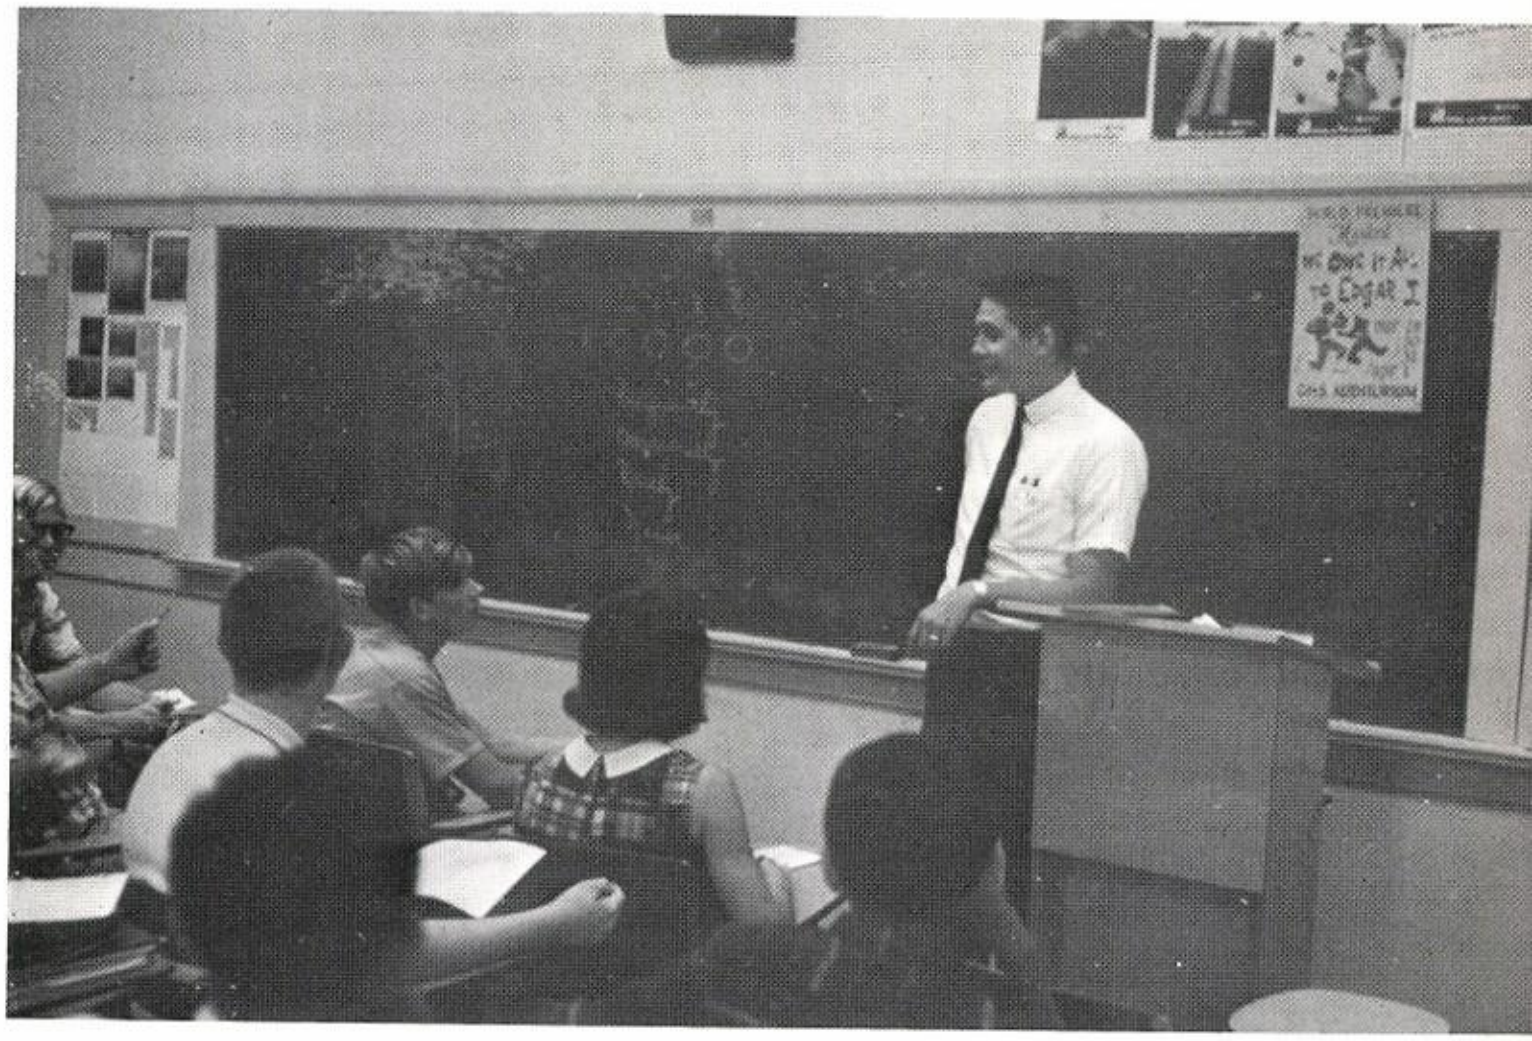


Some of the most enlightening moments for some of our faculty are in the Drivers' Education cars teaching the new students how to drive. Mr Amaya looks very enlightened, he made it back.

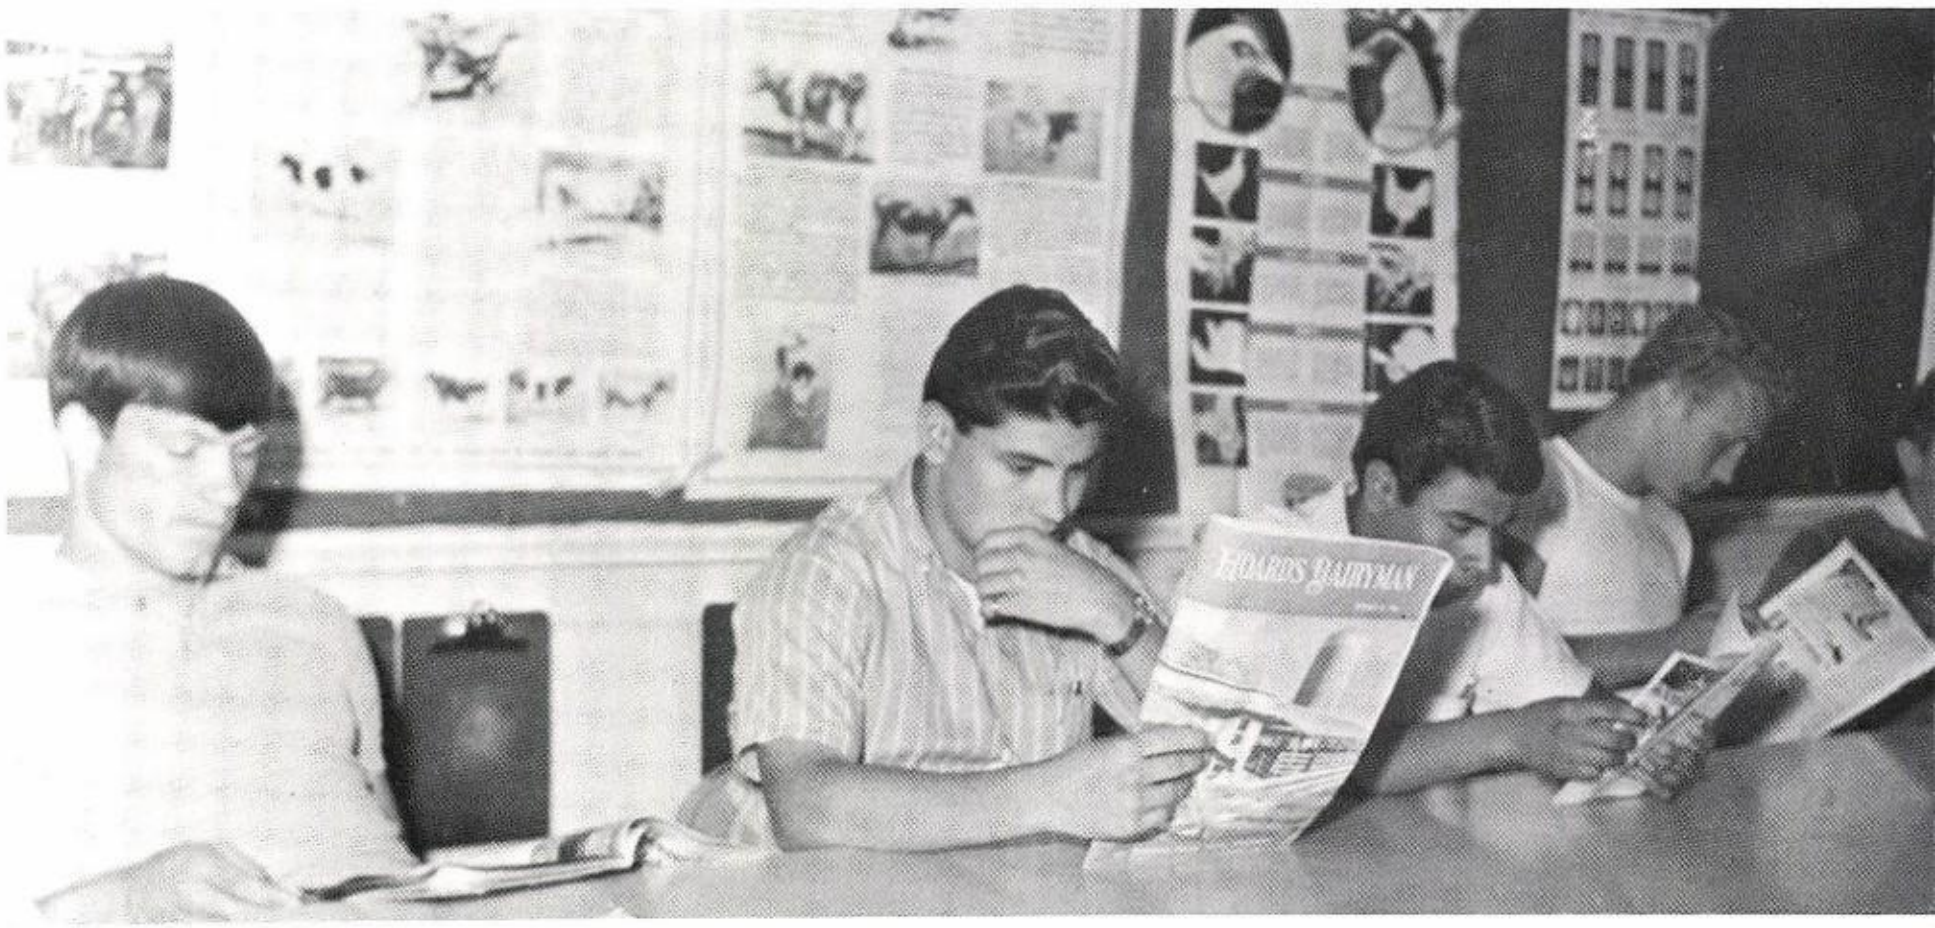
Even Academics For Everyday Life

G.H.S. girls can prepare for their future as homemakers by taking home economics or creative clothing. Practical experience is the key to learning in some areas of study in these classes. Ovens, sinks, and sewing machines are provided for use in learning the art of homemaking.

Courses in safety education are given to any student wanting to learn the finer points of driving. The actual driving experience is also provided.



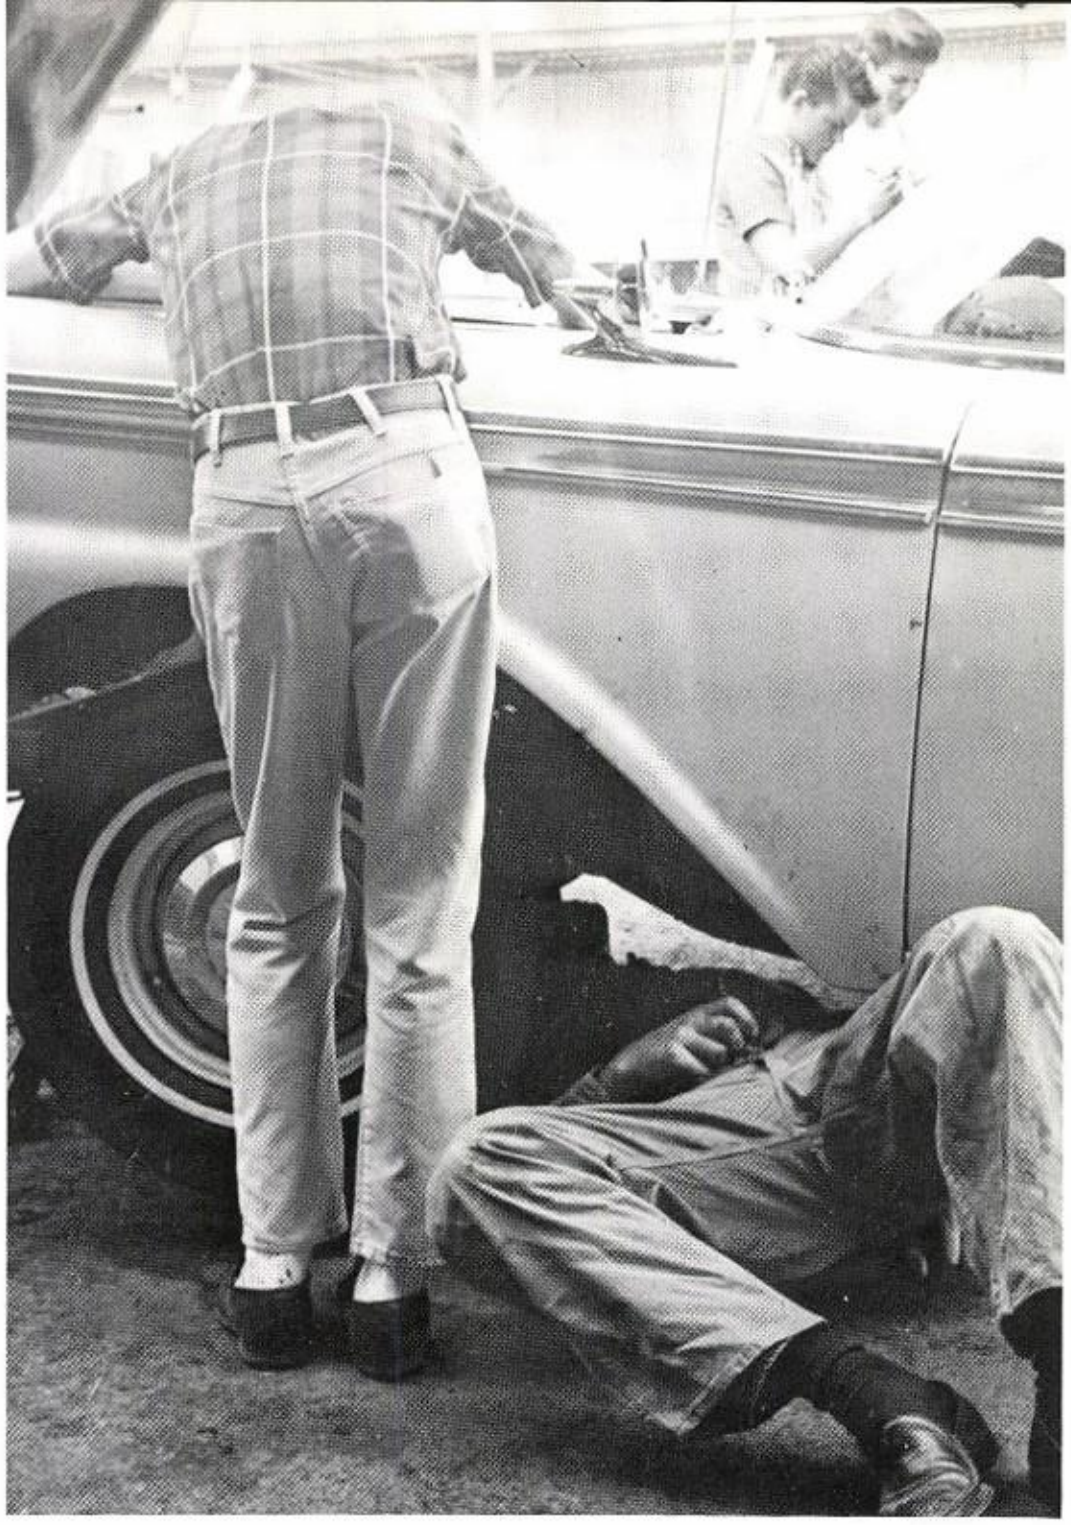
Agriculture Class Molds Future Farmers



Periodicals contain much information for the Agriculture students. Recent, up-to-date material is important to these people. Here they study some of those magazines.

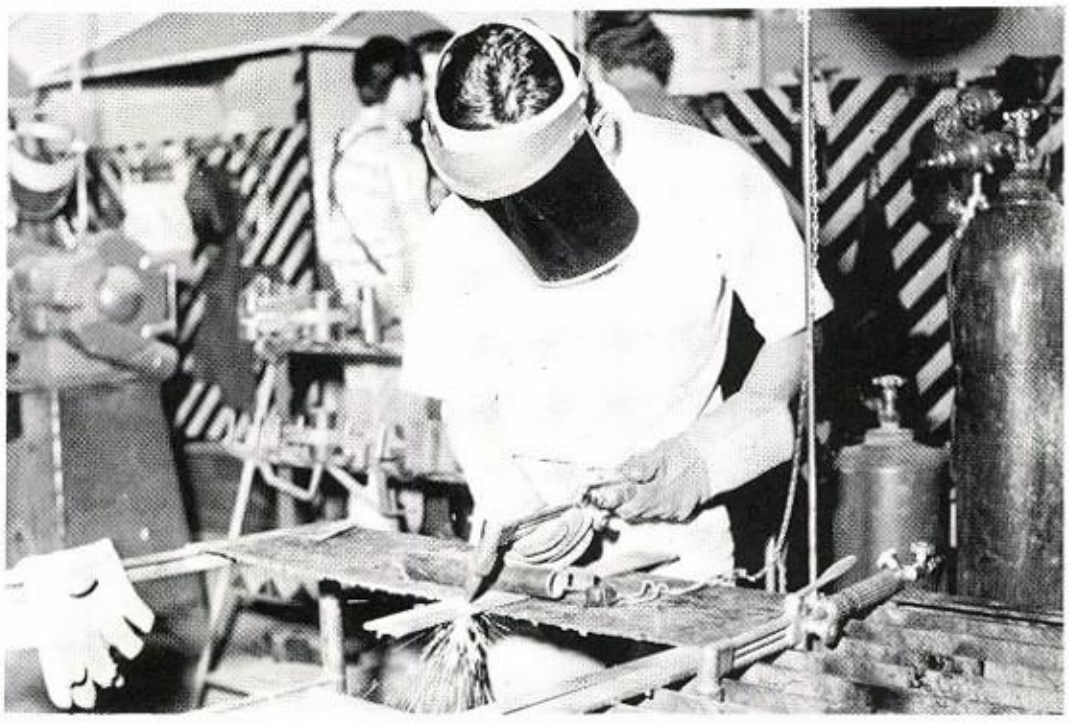
To any boy or girl who is going into a farming career, agriculture is one of their main interests. This class is found not only in the classroom but also many times on the farm. Individual projects, such as raising goats or pigeons, is required. The newest farm techniques and equipment are studied. Here, as in home economics, practical experience is a method of learning.

Jim LeForce demonstrates a measuring device that can be used on the farm to conveniently mete out distances.



Teamwork, as shown here, is often necessary to assemble or disassemble a car.

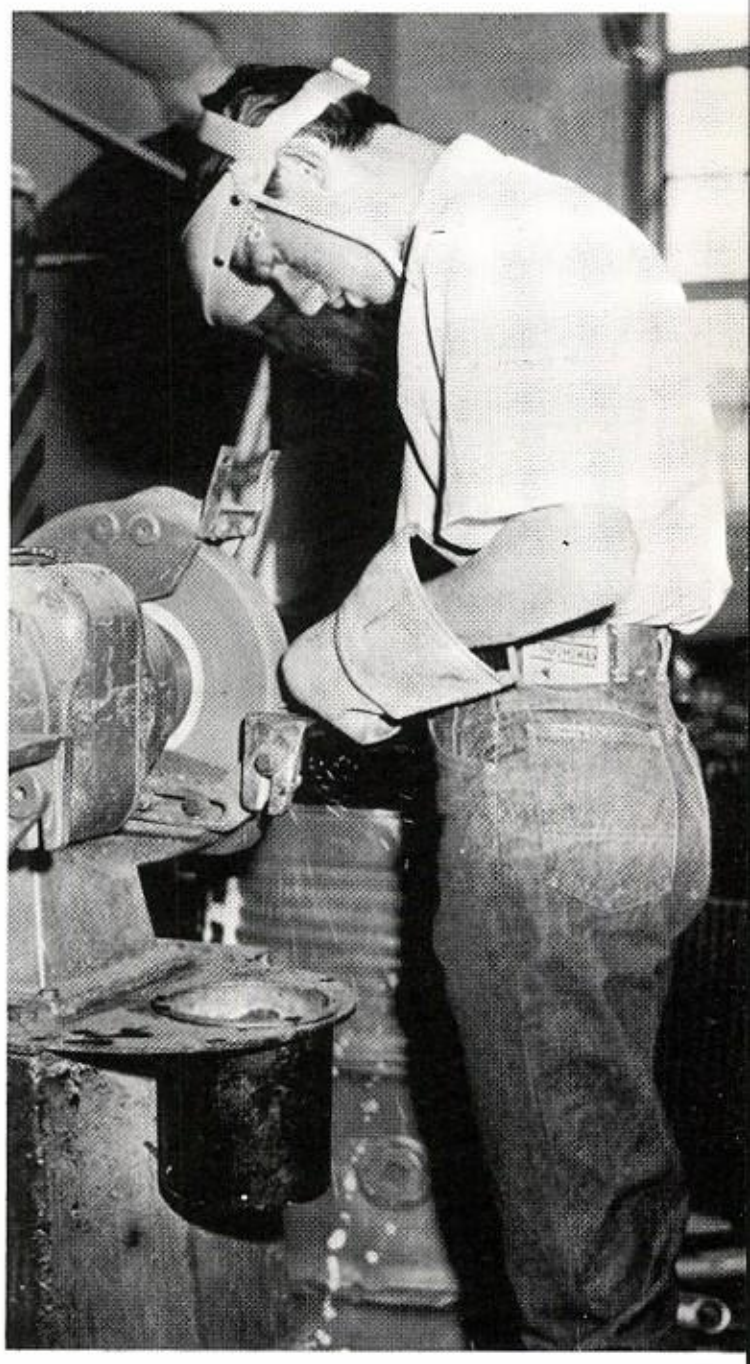
Metal Shop Provides Practical Experience



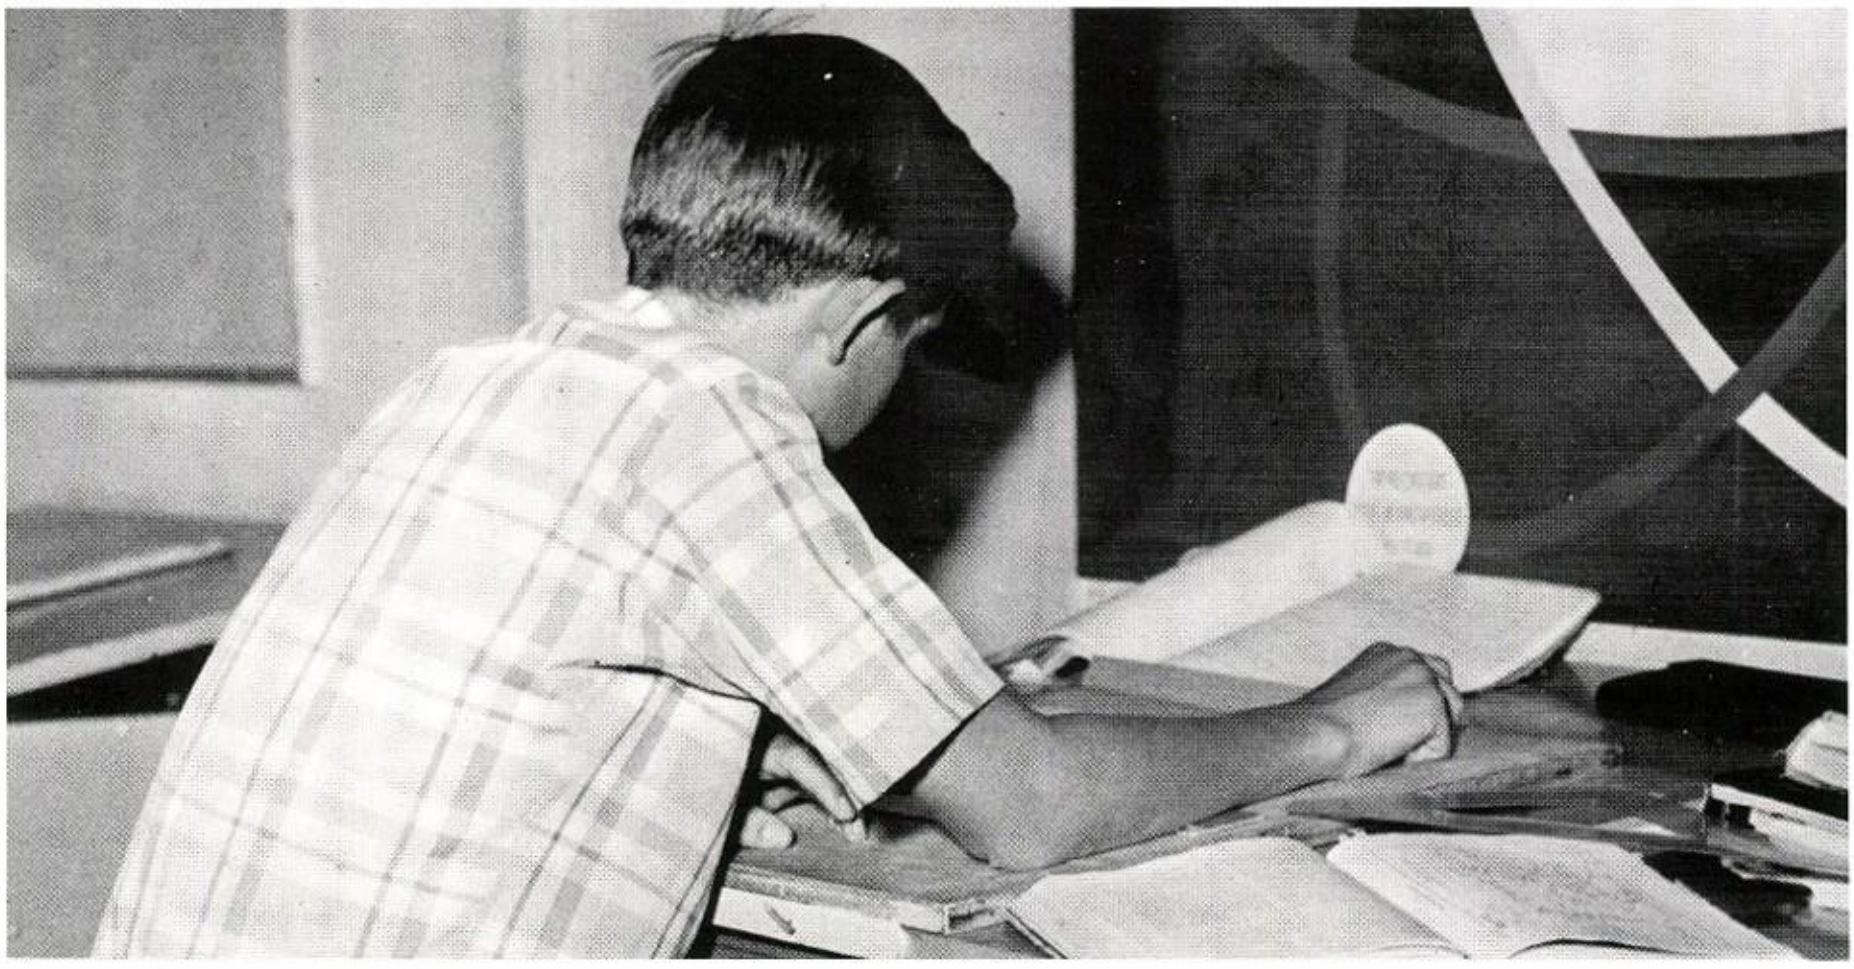
A metal shop student makes quick work of a strip of metal with this cutter.

Our auto shop is well equipped to handle the curiosity of any boy who wants to see what he can do with a car. This course, auto shop, also helps to prepare young men for a career in mechanics. The skilled instructor and the available tools provide the instruments of learning. Grease is the password and a good sounding engine and a smooth running car is the goal.

In the metal shop works of art or practical implements are made. Heavy equipment is used and hard work is done. Students in this class use lathes, torches, cutters, and polishers.



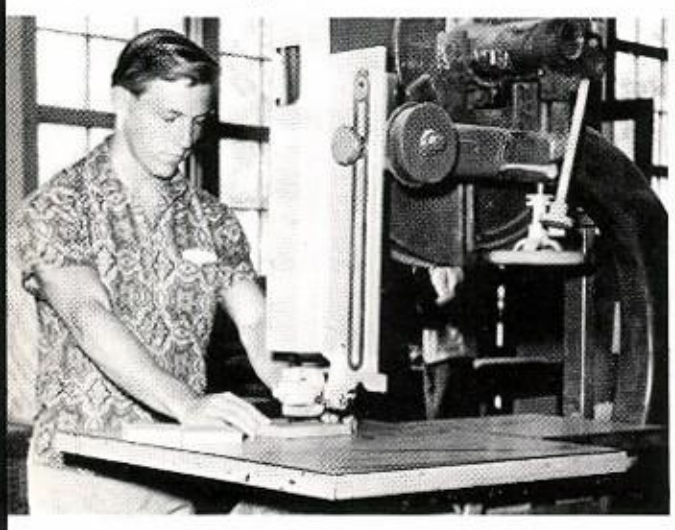
They use the sander to grind the metal to just the right size.



In drafting, the boys find that drawing with a pencil can become a science. This student concentrates on one of those drawings.

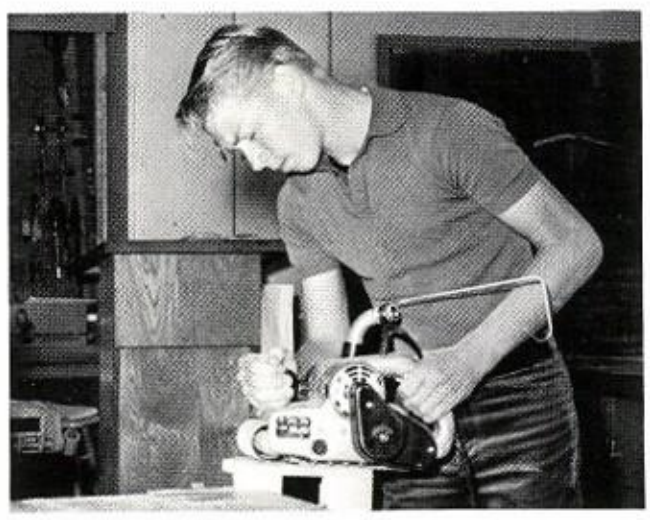
Artists Find Expression In Wood, Canvas,

Many different tools are used in the wood shop, the band saw . . .

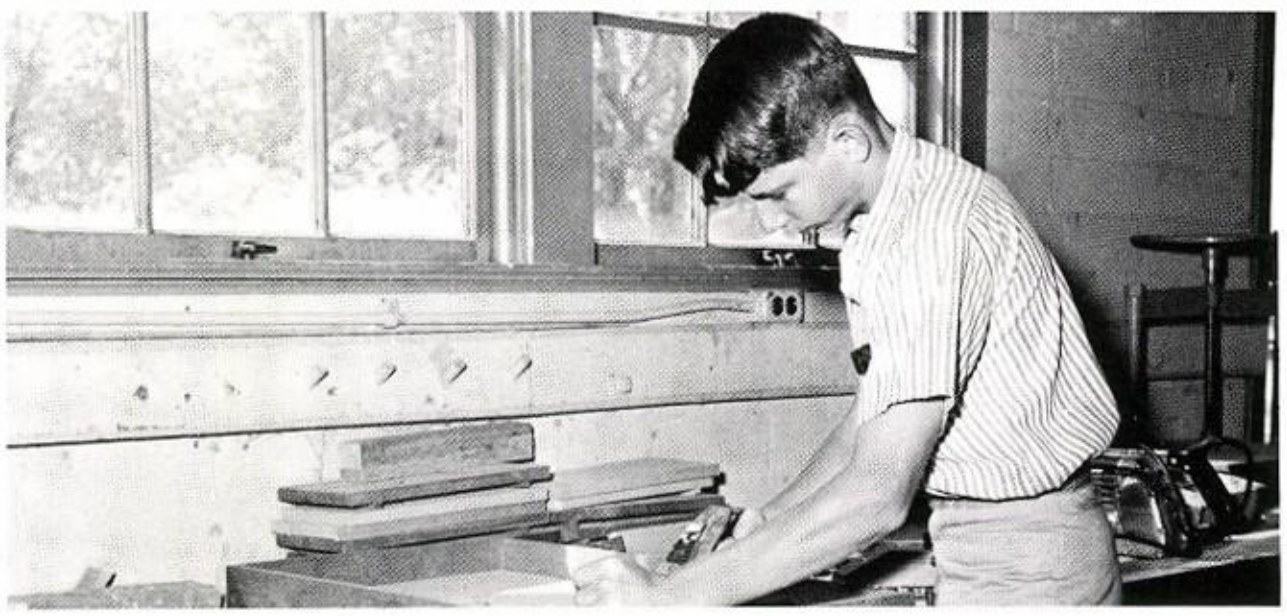


and the lathe.

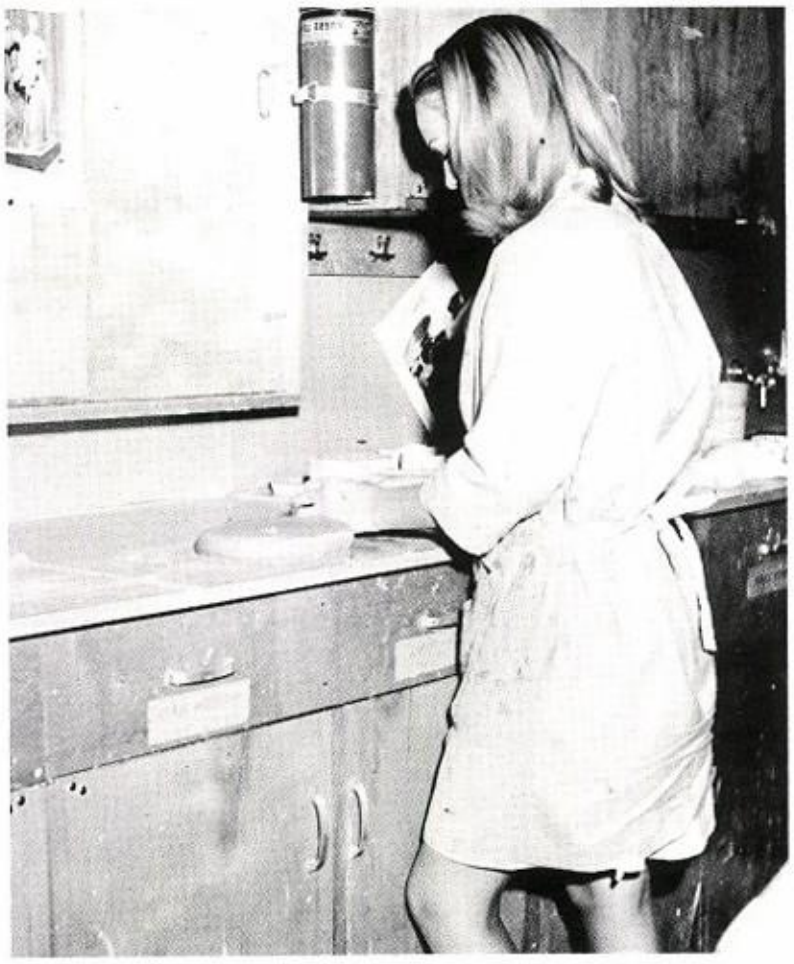
the sander . . .



In the wood shop, each boy takes on his own project. Skills in making joints, putting beautiful finishes on wood and all the various phases of carpentry are taught.



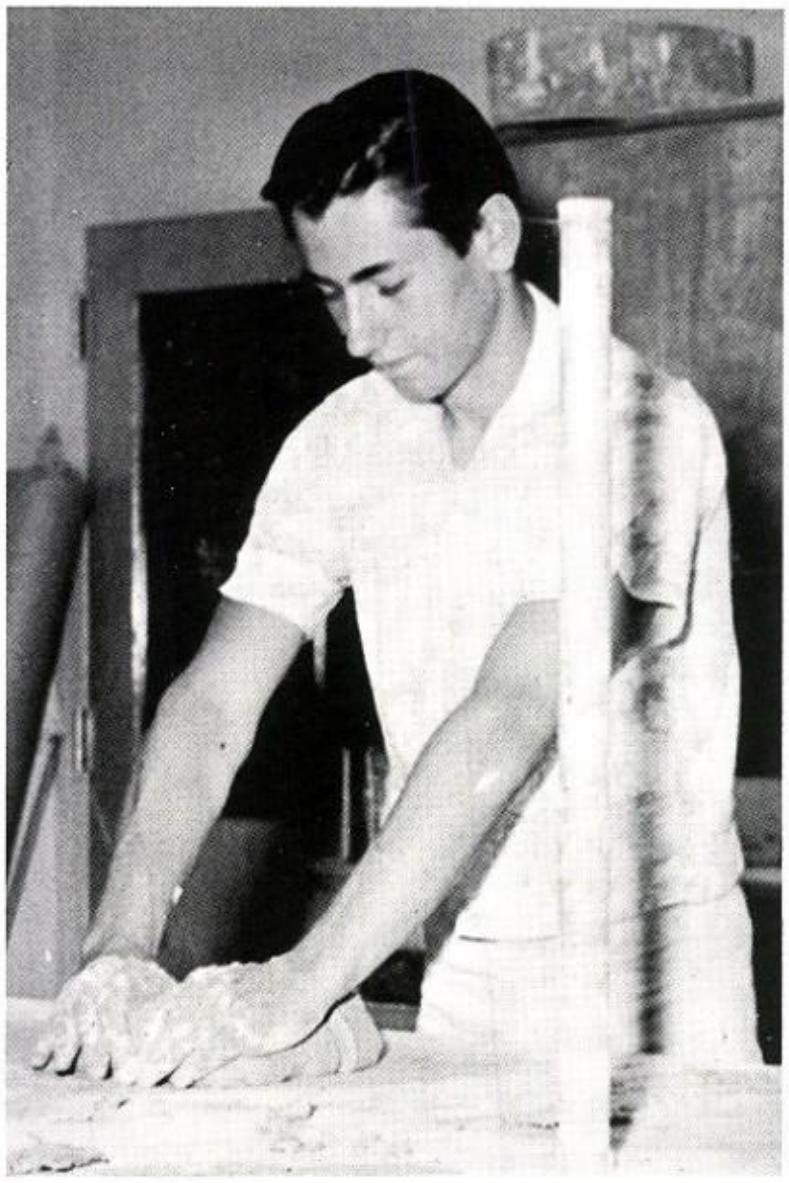
Individual projects are an important part of shop.

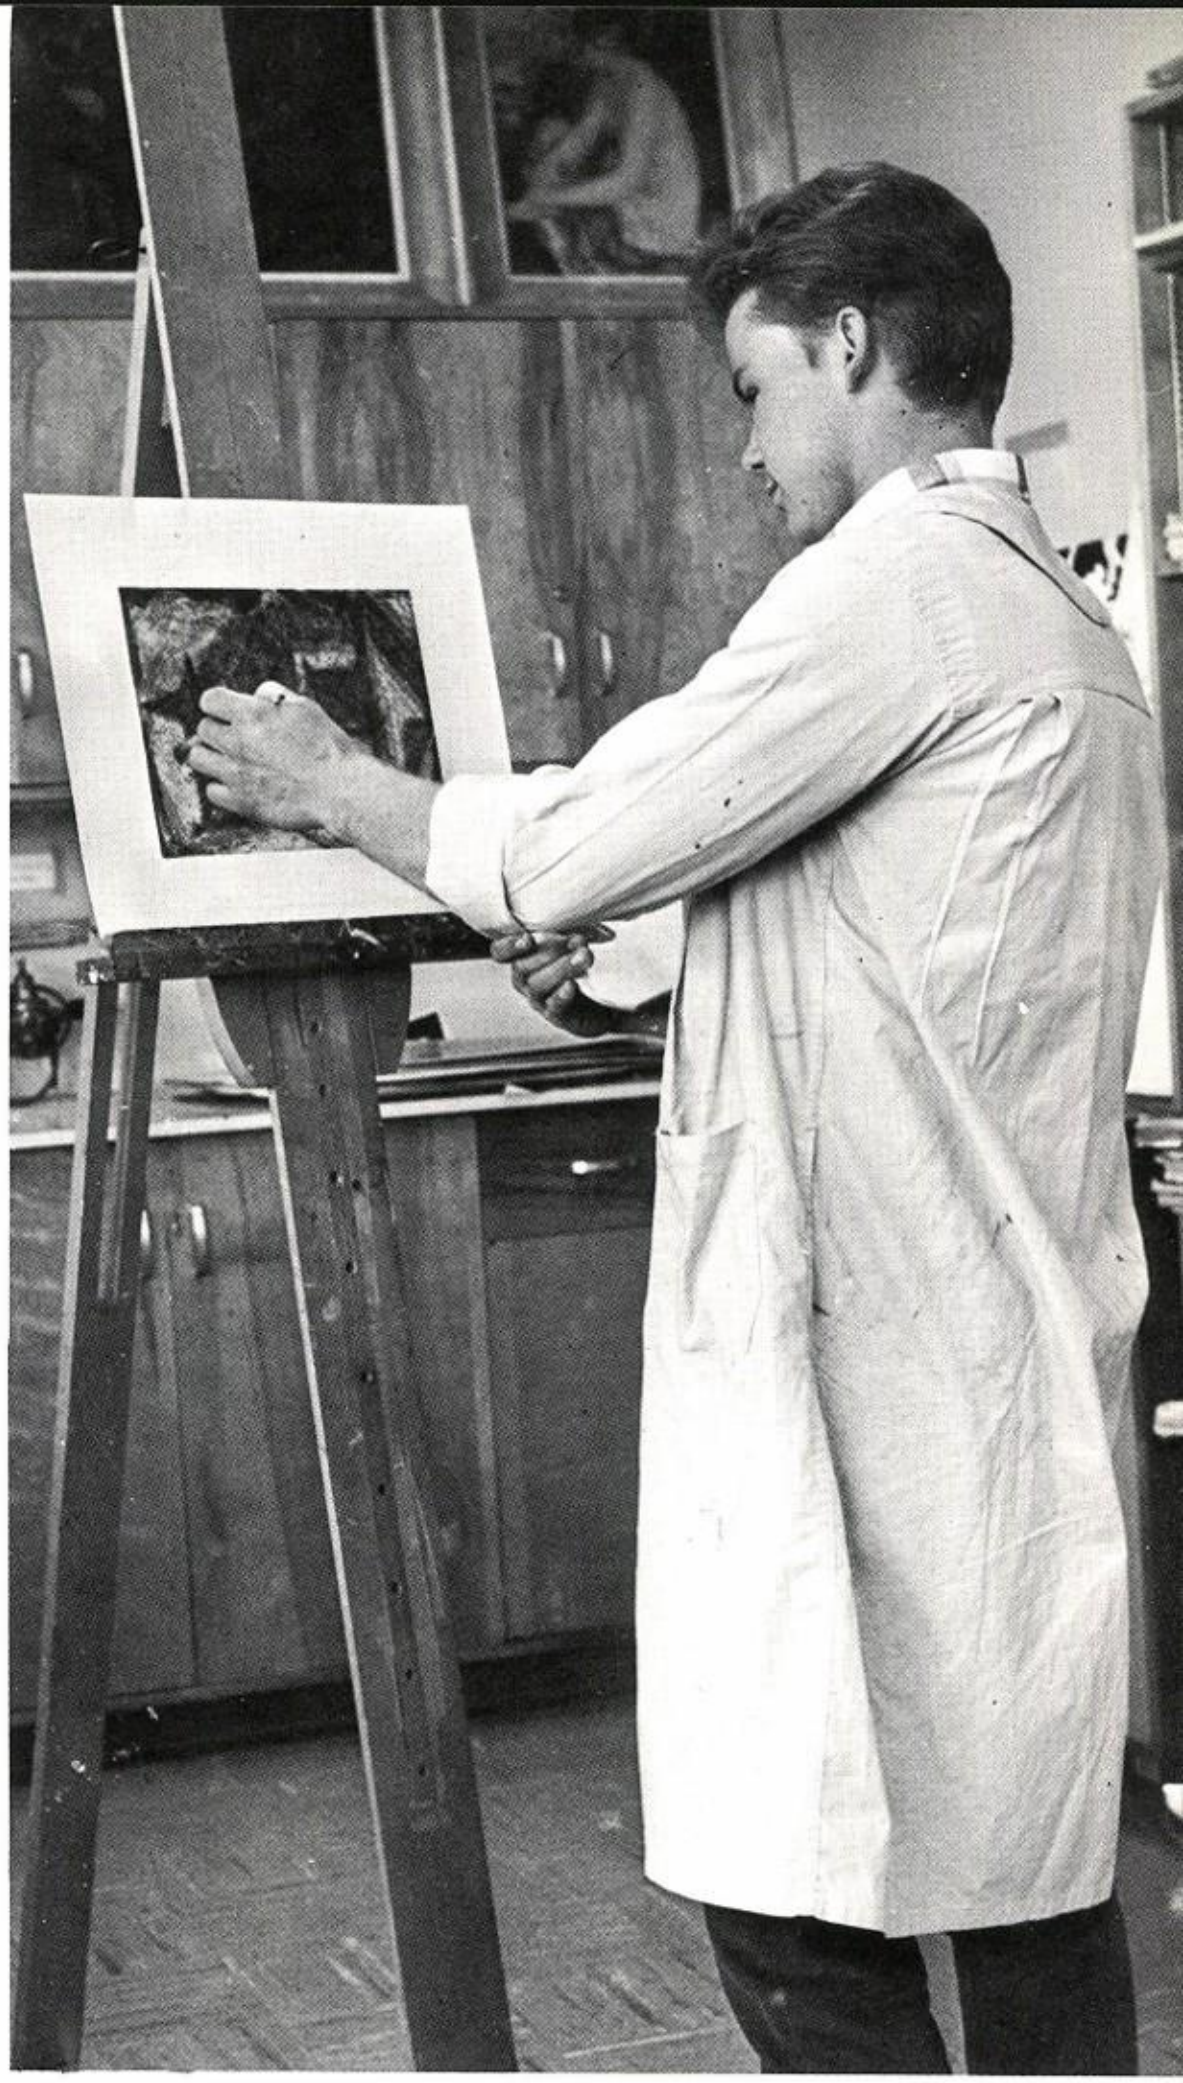


It just takes patience and a pair of dirty hands to get the job done.

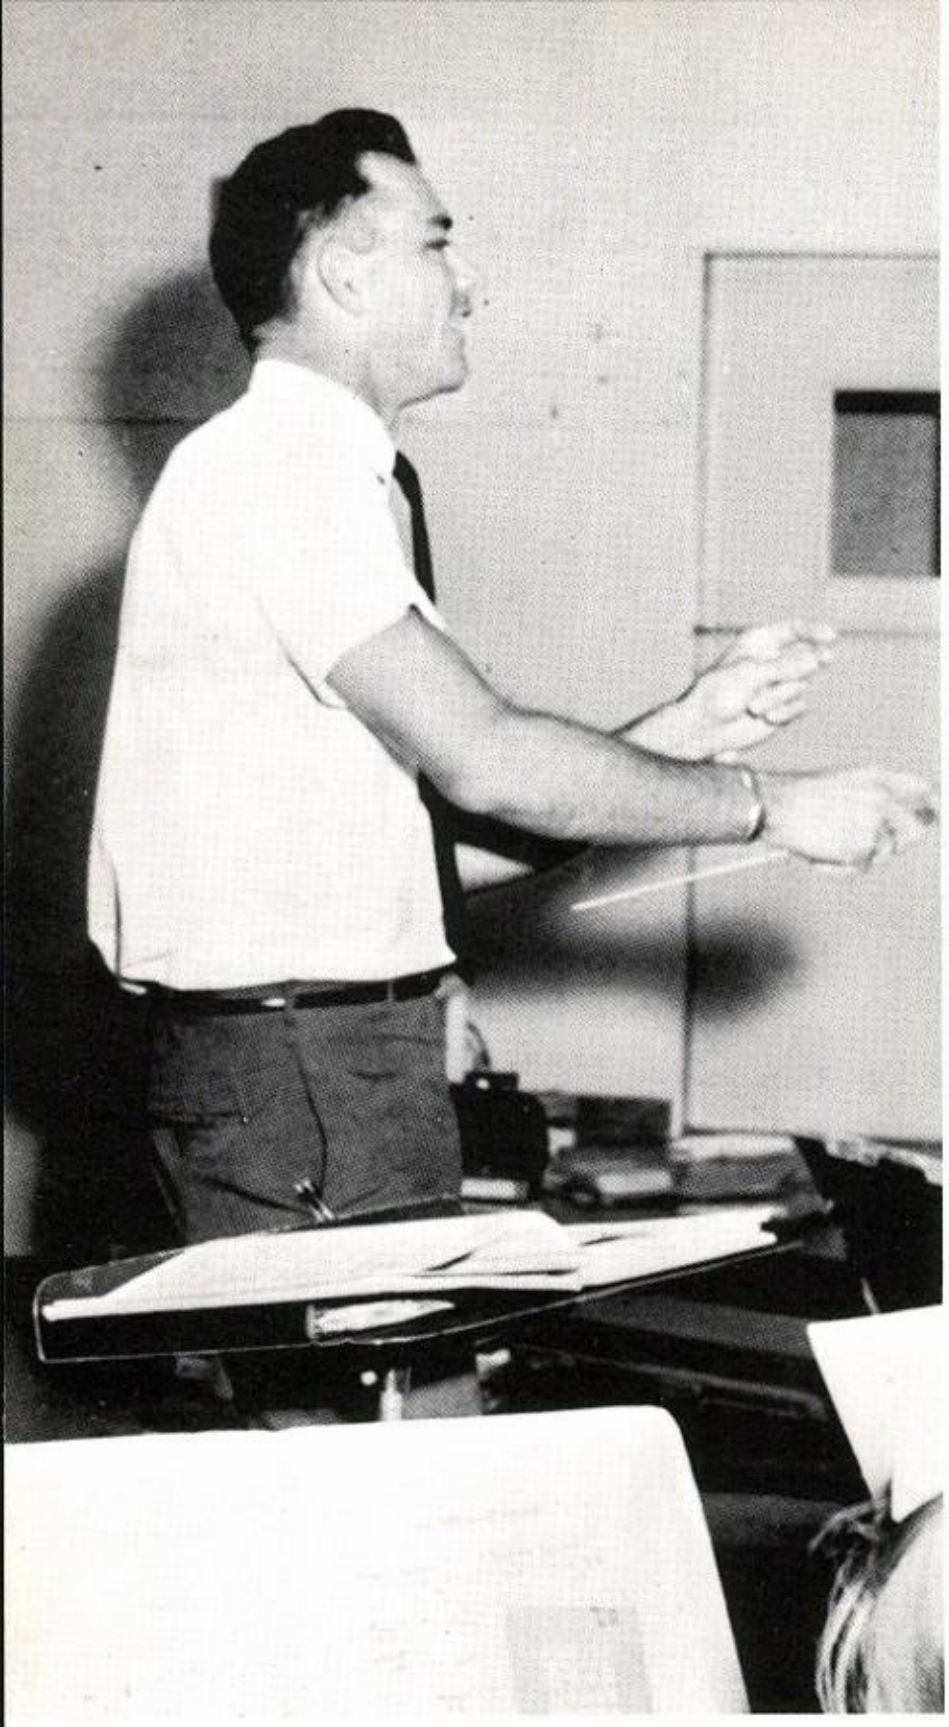
Ceramics

What starts out as a lump of clay soon becomes a beautiful work of art.





Part of our art students spend their time working in ceramics. Others work with different forms of art. Glendale has produced some of the state's best artists. This is an important segment of our academic life at Glendale.



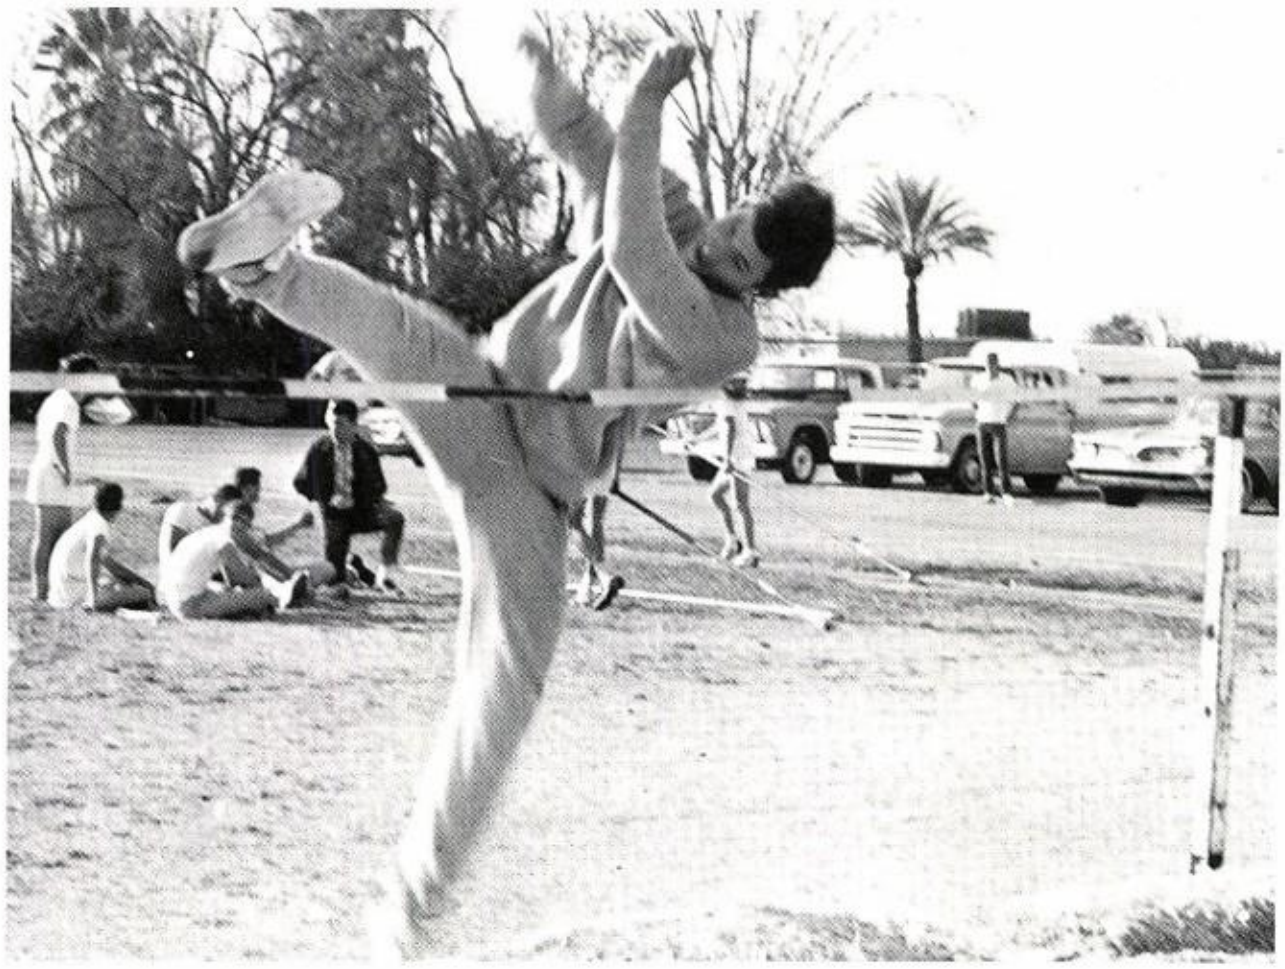
During one of their rehearsals, the band follows Mr. Koch in interpreting the finer points of the music.

Vocal music, band music, and orchestra are part of the music curriculum at Glendale High. Concerts are given almost all the time. Special performances are given by the vocal groups. Our marching band is one of the best in the state. The orchestra produces beautiful music of its own. Glendale has some of the best musicians in the state.

Though small, the orchestra comes up with some inspiring pieces of music.

Music Builds Soul

The boys' chorus rehearses for a performance. Other groups are the advanced girls chorus, the beginning girls chorus, the symphonic choir, and the madrigal group.



Each end must go over at the right time in order to clear the bar.

Physical Education, Body

John Barber lets go of a shotput and watches it sail.

The rules and techniques of the sports that most of us are only spectators for are taught in physical education. Football, baseball, basketball, wrestling, track, tennis, and square dancing are all a part of the P.E. curriculum. Healthy bodies are the goal. Our P.E. department and the sports activities of Glendale go hand in hand.

This broad jumper gets the height and the distance.

Why is there a Student Senate? Its purposes are generally outlined in the preamble of our constitution: we work to instill school pride in the student body, we plan activities and help coordinate those of other clubs, and we act as a "go-between" for the administration, faculty, and students.

But more important than all of this is the fact that it builds leaders. There is nowhere on campus for a sudent to develop leadership as he can in the Senate. Working in student government is a good experience; I only wish all the students could know how rewarding it is.

TROY HAMILTON
Student Life

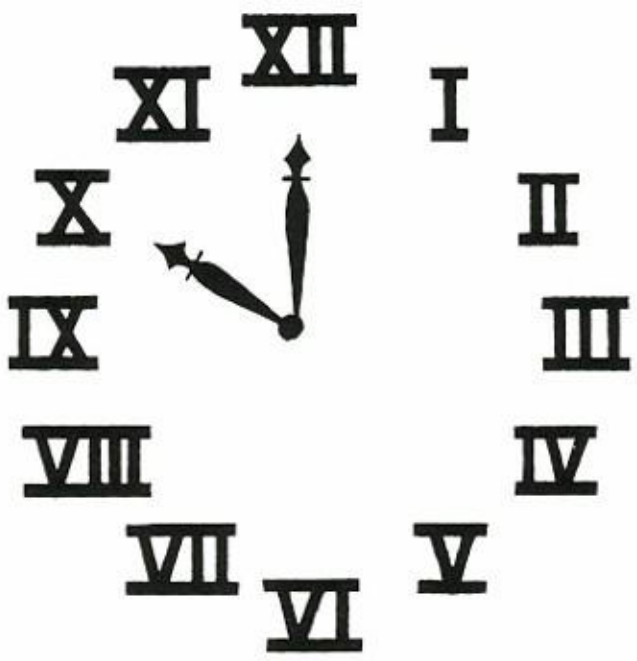
We would like to extend our deepest appreciation to all those who contributed to the production of this annual—from the students who put on their brightest smile for the camera, to the teachers who so willingly gave of their advice and class-time.

Putting together an annual is no easy task. It requires many long hours of work after school and sometimes sleepless nights to finish all the pages before tomorrow's deadline.

The purpose of an annual is to record the activities of the past school year in pictures. We sincerely hope that this annual is one of meaning for you and that we have presented an accurate and descriptive picture of the 1966-1967 school year.

—The 1967 Annual Staff—

Student Life

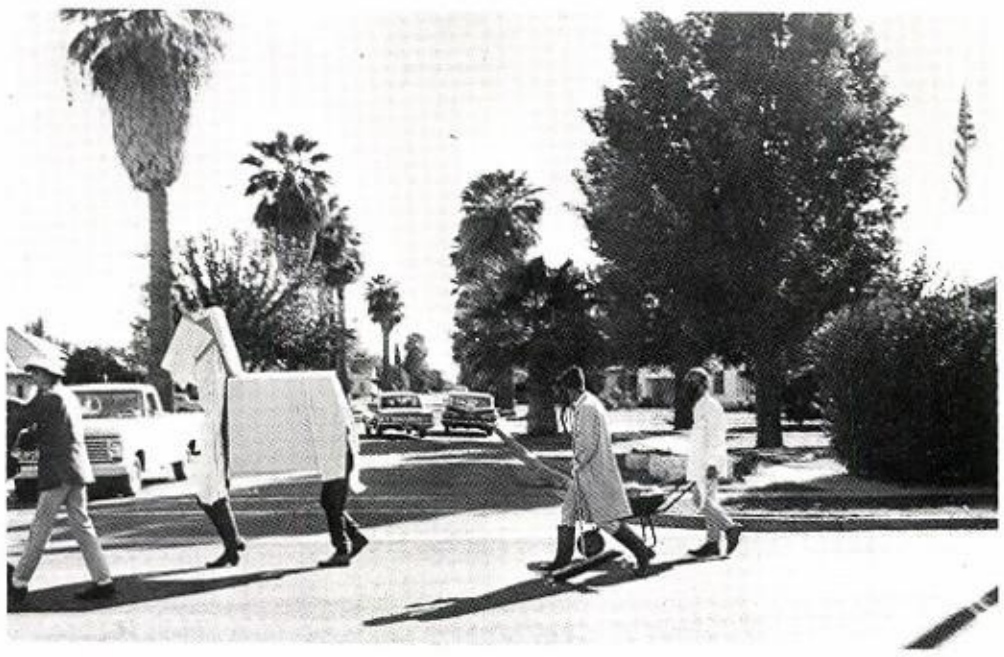


HOMECOMING 1966

Tension mounts as the Homecoming Parade is about to begin.

GAA Members decorate the goal posts before the Homecoming game. GAA also decorates the goal posts before every game.

E Pluribus Unum, one out of many, applies well to these floats. Out of the many ideas, comes a beautiful, coherent float. The Vocal Music Club Float, above, and the FFA Float, right, show the ingenuity of GHS students.



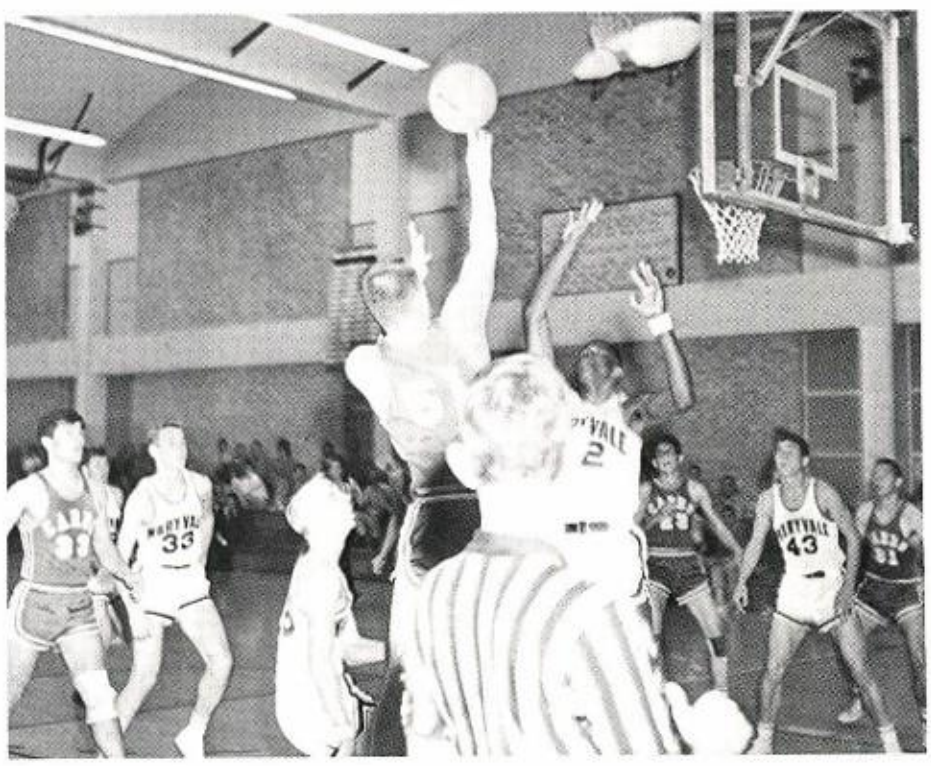
Keeping Glendale clean and beautiful seems to be the intent of these GHS students. They are prepared to clean up in case of a catastrophe.

Maybe this Hi-Y "float" isn't the most beautiful, but we'll have to give them five points for originality. John Congrove's 427 super stock Model T does the job.

Sports — The Most Popular

Football is the most popular sport as well as the most popular activity. The excitement is always high when football season begins. Probably the only thing wrong with football is that the season must come to an end. This year the Cards continued the Glendale tradition by finishing the season as Co-Champs of Division II.

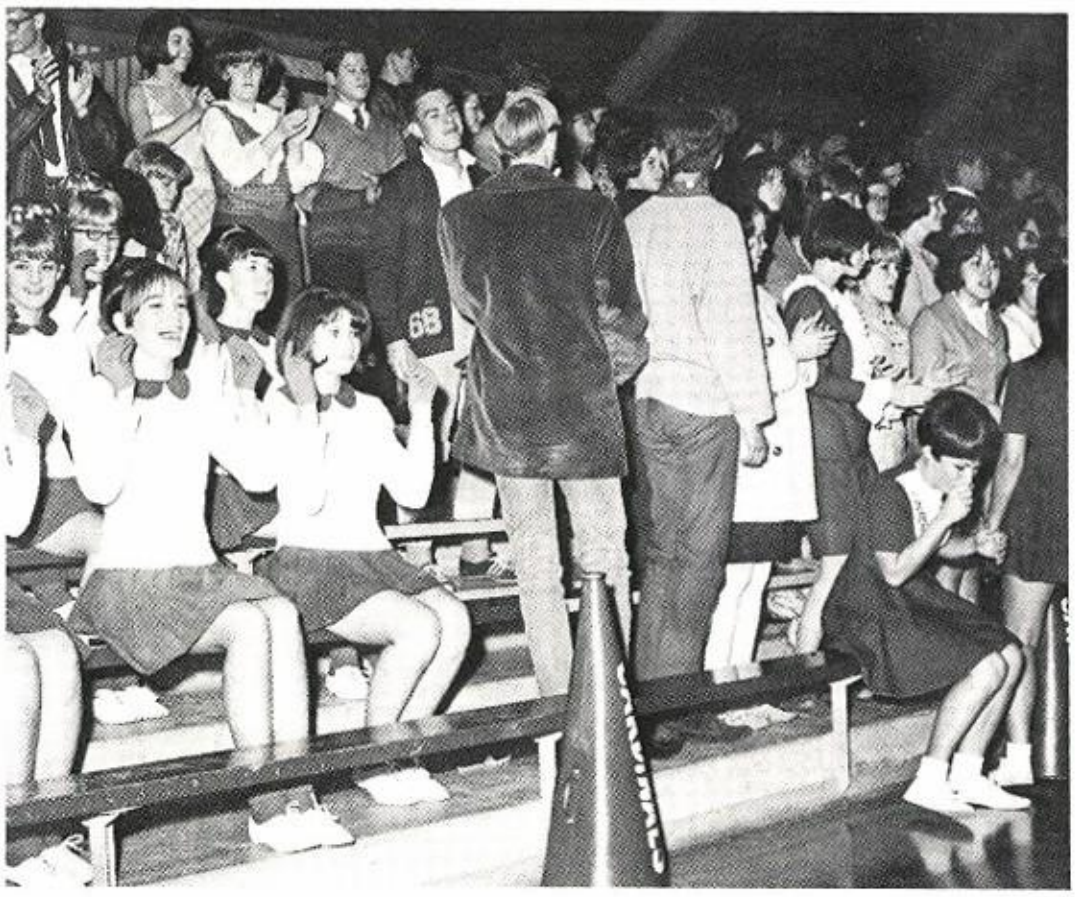
Here is one of the Pep Rallies held just before a big football game. The Pep Rallies serve to boost the spirits of the team as well as those of the students. You can almost hear it now—"Fight, Cards, Fight"!

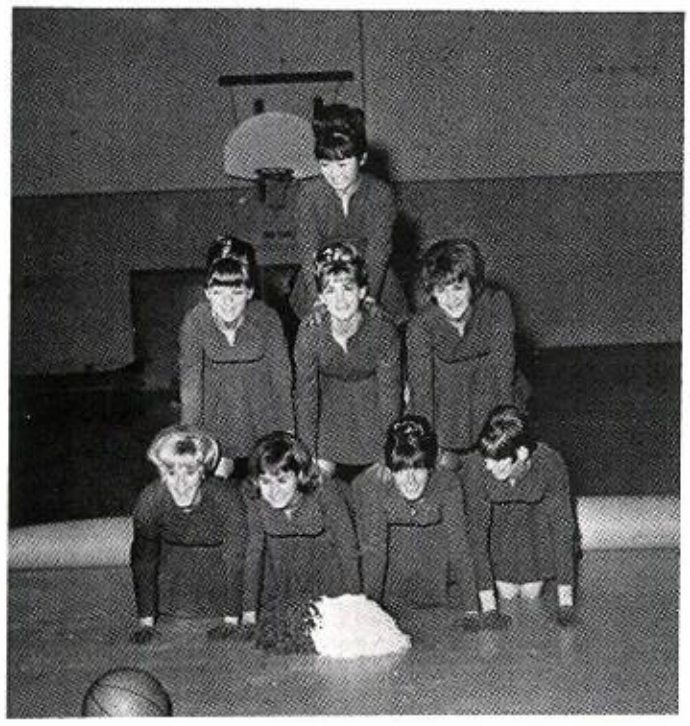


Basketball runs a close second to football. The Card Squad fought hard to finish the season with a winning record.

Activity At GHS

The Cards always come out en masse to support the basketball squad. In this scene everyone gets into the act of cheering the team on to victory.



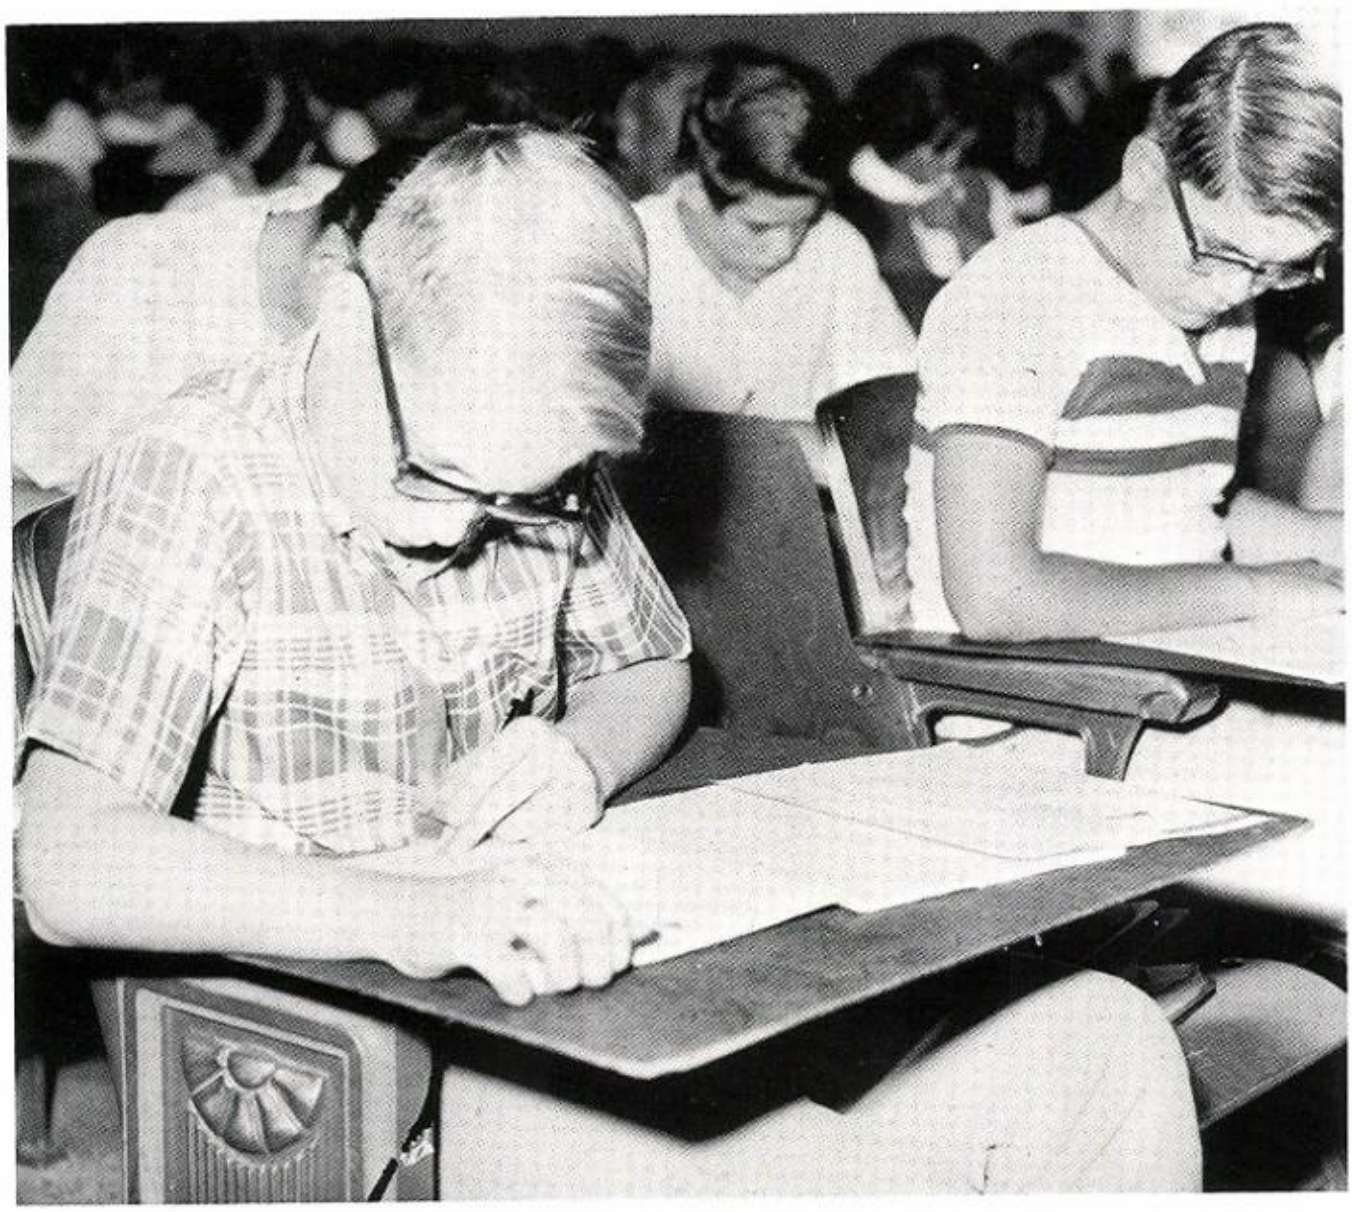


The Senior Pom Pon girls try to look like the Great Pyramid. They do a great job except for one thing—you'll never find curves like theirs in the Egyptian Pyramids.

The Pom Pon Girls provide entertainment at the basketball and football games. The girls work very hard to perfect their dances, and it's always a treat to see them perform.

"What did you say the answer to number four was?" Three students corroborate during one of their classes.

MAKE THE DAY

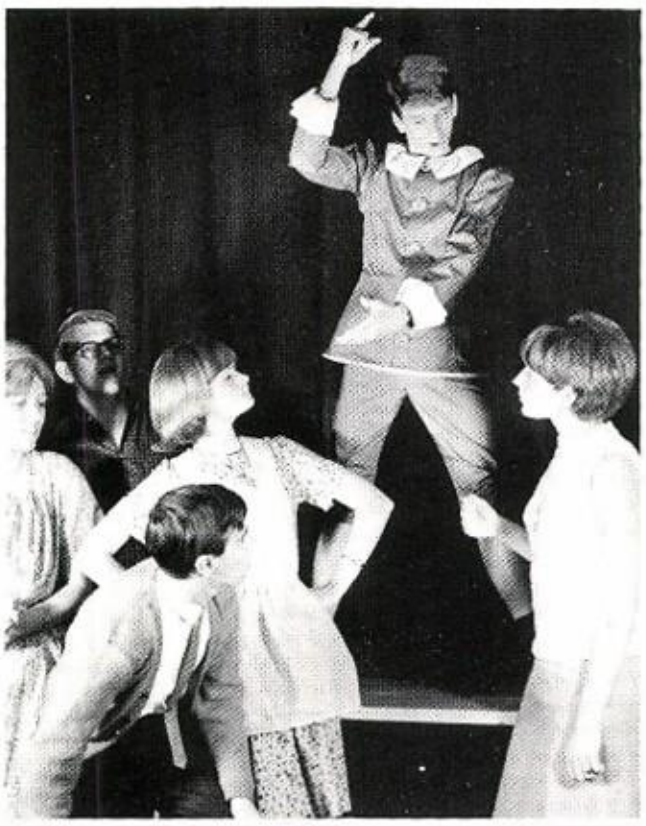


Freshmen . and Junior testing are some of those inevitable hazards that plague every student.

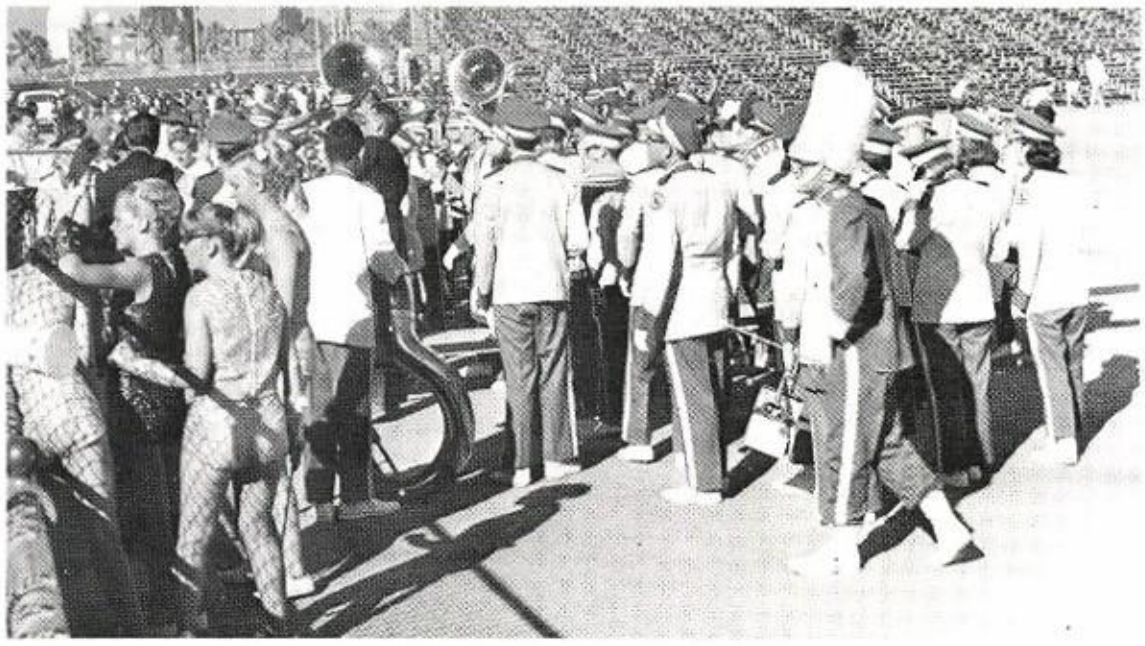
WORK AND PLAY

Girls' and Boys' P.E. classes get together for a little hoe down. P.E. has its rewards!

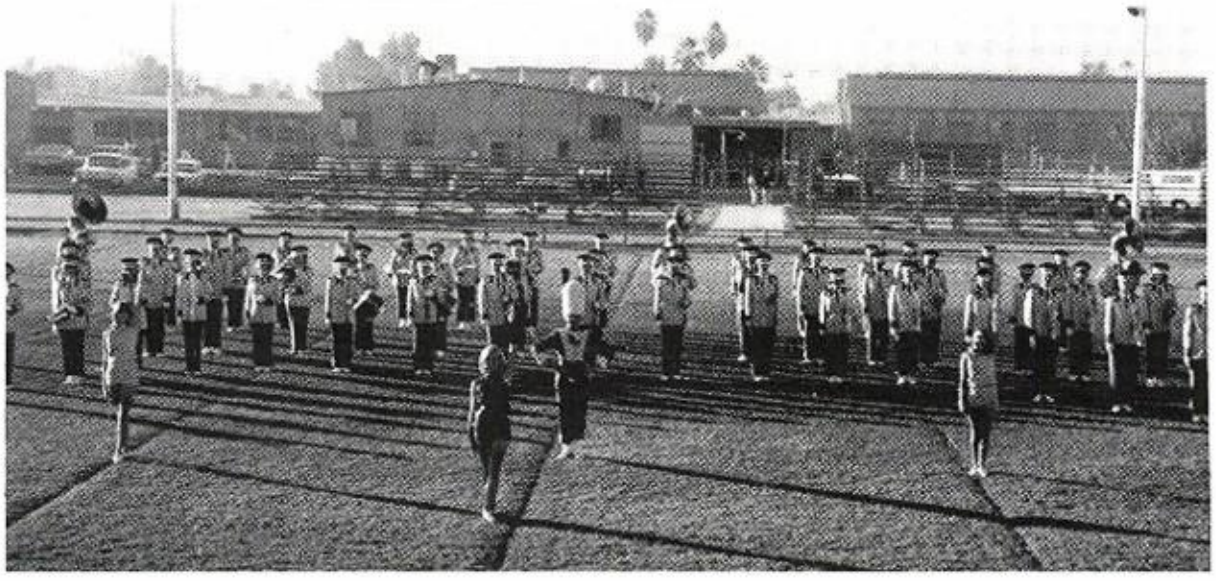
Experience is the best teacher. Family Relations gives on-the-job training with the Kiddie Kollege. The Kiddie Kollege is an annual experience for the Family Relations classes. Several parents "donate" their children for two weeks, Monday through Thursday. The children always have something to do. They play in the sand box, study music and art, listen to stories told by their "parents for a day", and have refreshments.



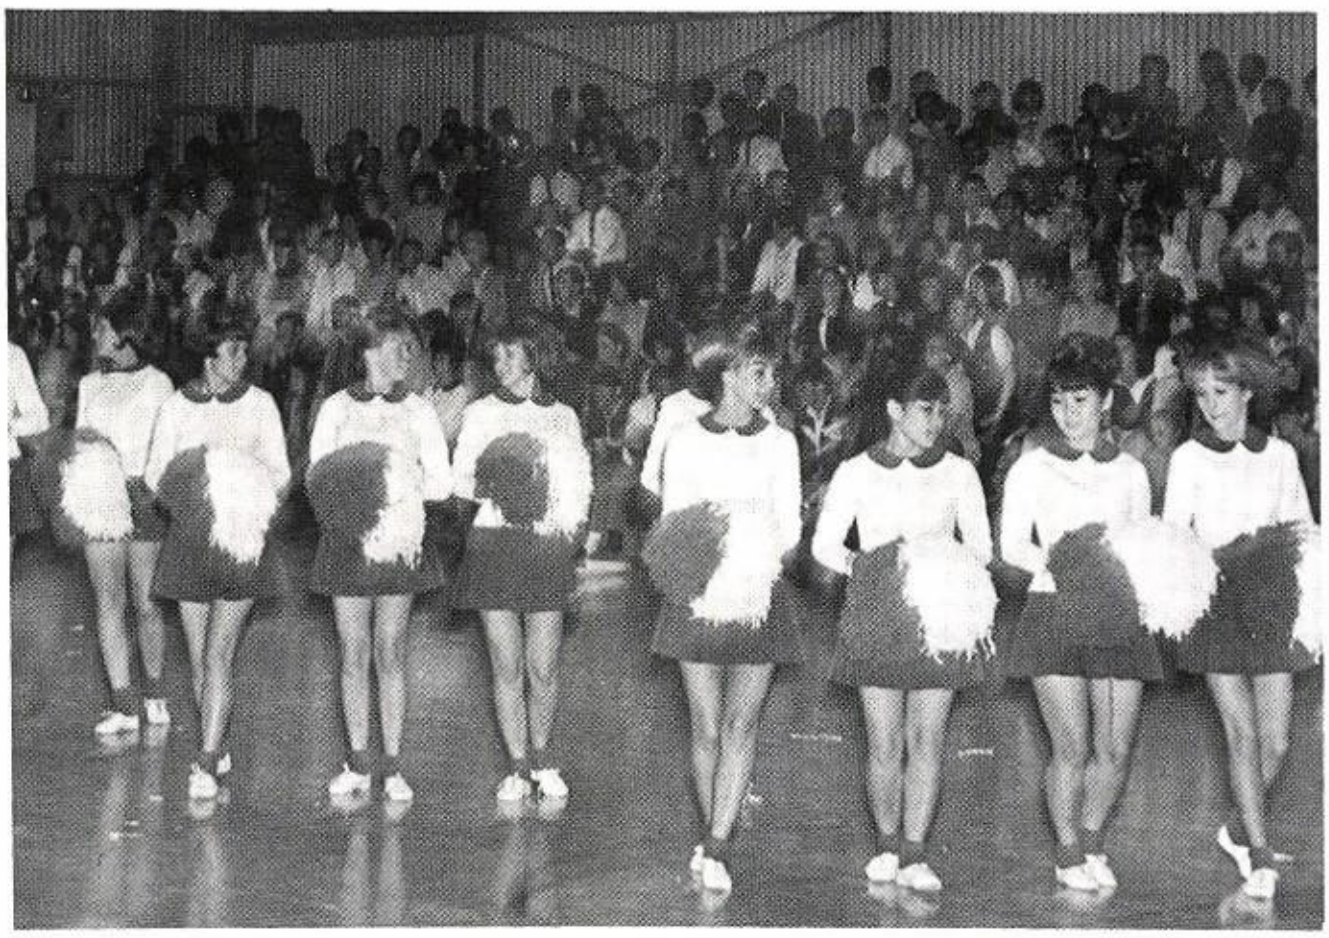
McGilliddy McGotham lets off a little steam, Irish style. "McGilliddy McGotham, the winter play, was a great success.



The GHS Marching Band practiced hard days on end so they could entertain us students. At left, the Marching Band is getting ready to perform at Band Day. This year, the Marching Band did very well on Band Day. Glendale can boast one of Arizona's finest Marching Bands. Below, the Marching Band practices before a big football game.

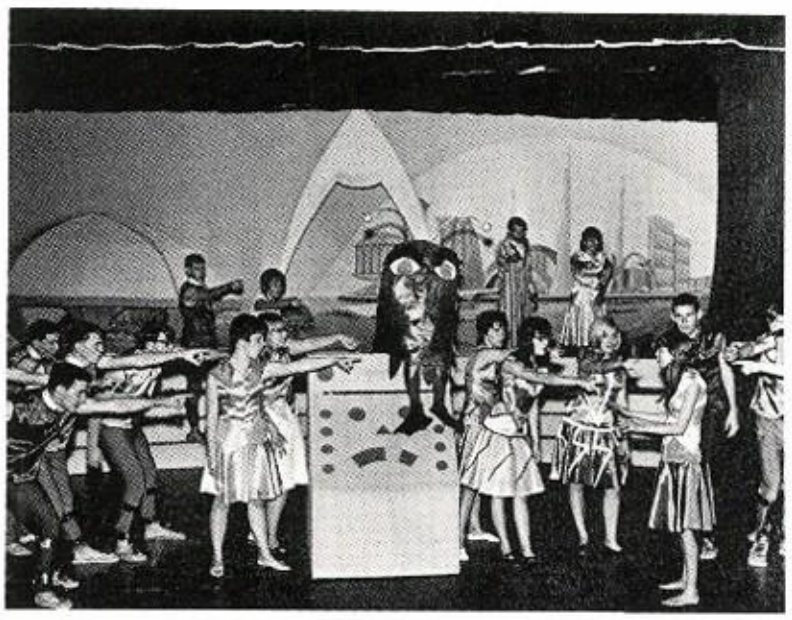


Activities Are Varied At GHS



The Pom Pon Girls had a chance to show off their talents at the Cardette Review where Pom Pon squads from all over the valley performed. Keeping up with Glendale's tradition of having the best, Glendale's Pom Pon Squad is one of the state's finest.

The spring musical, "We Owe It All to Edgar J", was written by our own Mr. Cox, Glendale's drama instructor, and Mr. Newberry, drama instructor at Alhambra High School. "We Owe It All to Edgar J" was a great success this year. Shown here are a few key scenes.



The Sweetheart Dance is one of the most memorable events of the year. For those who attended, this girl-ask-boy event will always bring back memories of one of the most wonderful events of their high school careers.

Campus Life . . .

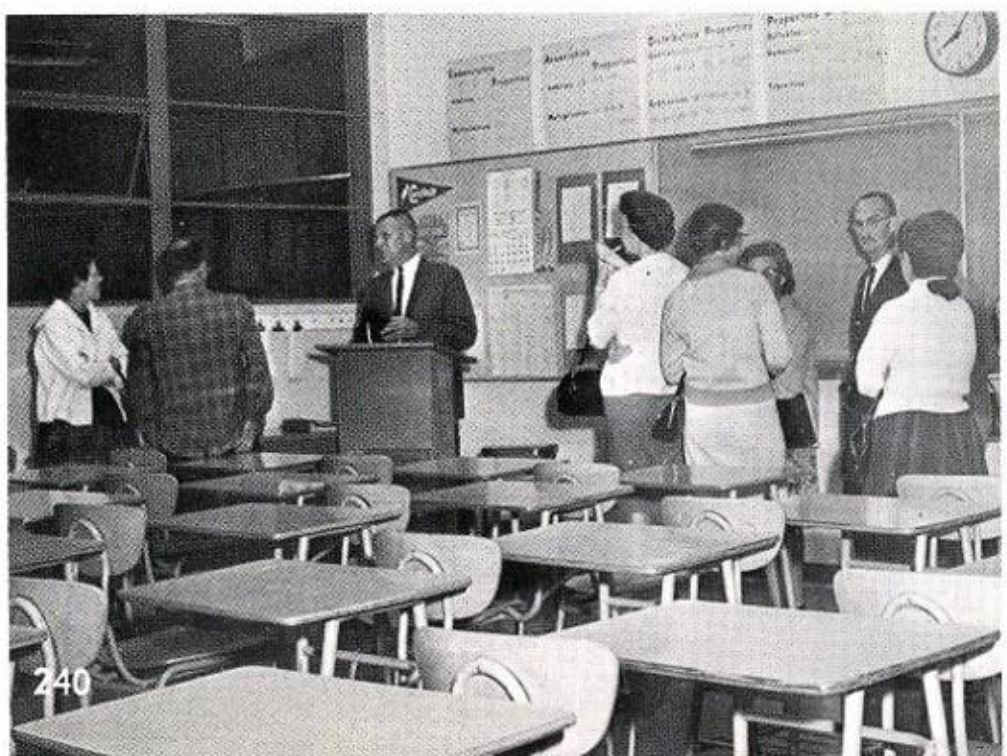
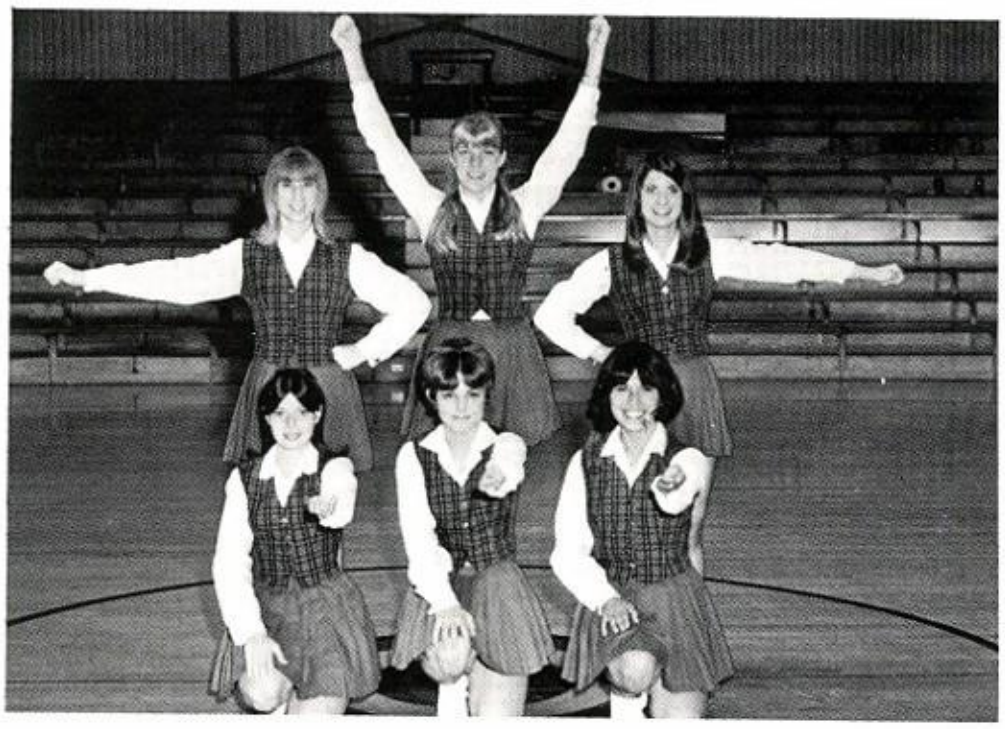
Open House is a time for the parents to become better acquainted with the teachers and to find out how their sons and daughters are doing in school. Parents feel proud of their teens during this time; others become saddened when they find out that their sons and daughters aren't doing their best. Did you give your parents a chance to feel proud of you? Let's all resolve to do our best in the future.



This year has seen a lot of new activities at GHS. Among these is the new judo class. It is open to all boys and girls who want to engage in the sport of judo. You can learn self-defense while you keep in shape at the same time.

Is The Good Life

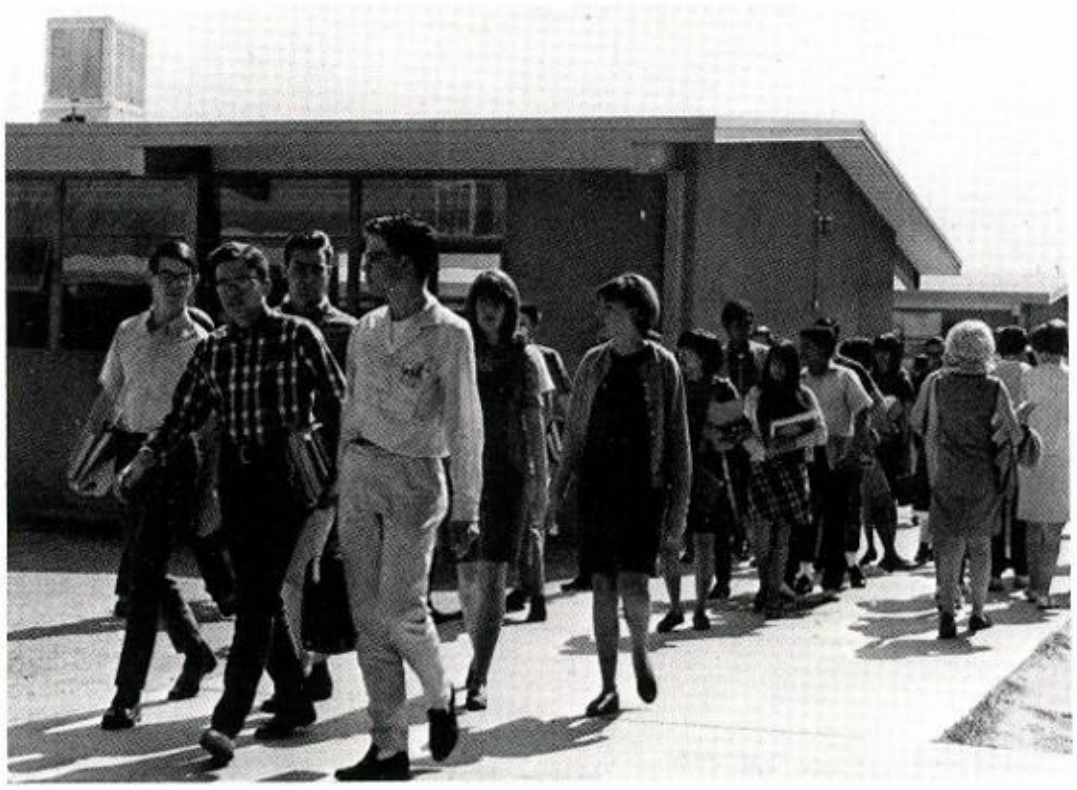
Another addition to GHS this year are the JV Cheer Leaders. They help to cheer the JV teams on to victory.



Hi-Y Club, one of the most active clubs on campus, led the parents around this year at Open House, and also answered any questions that the parents asked.

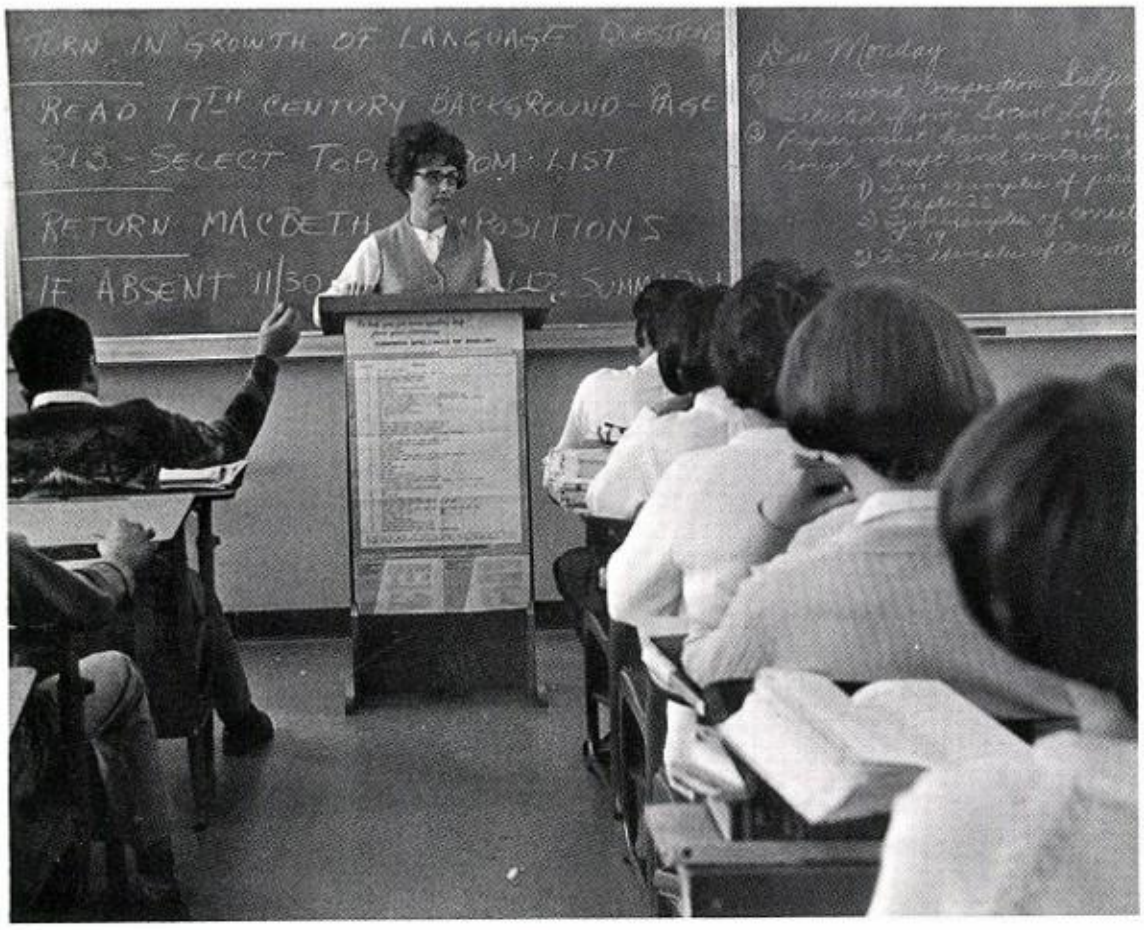
"Sorry about that, Chief." It's quite evident that this driver needs some additional experience, and Safety Education is just the place to get it. Not only does Safety Education offer on-the-job training, but classroom instruction on the do's and don't's of driving is also available. Safety Education also offers instruction in such fields as first aid and civil defense.

And The Beat



Six times a day every student has to make that long trek between classes. Maybe one of these days, in the not-too-distant future, there will be large conveyor belts to transport the students to each class. Who knows what the future might bring?

The classroom can be a place of learning and enlightenment, or it can be a source of bore. It is whatever the student wants to make out of it.

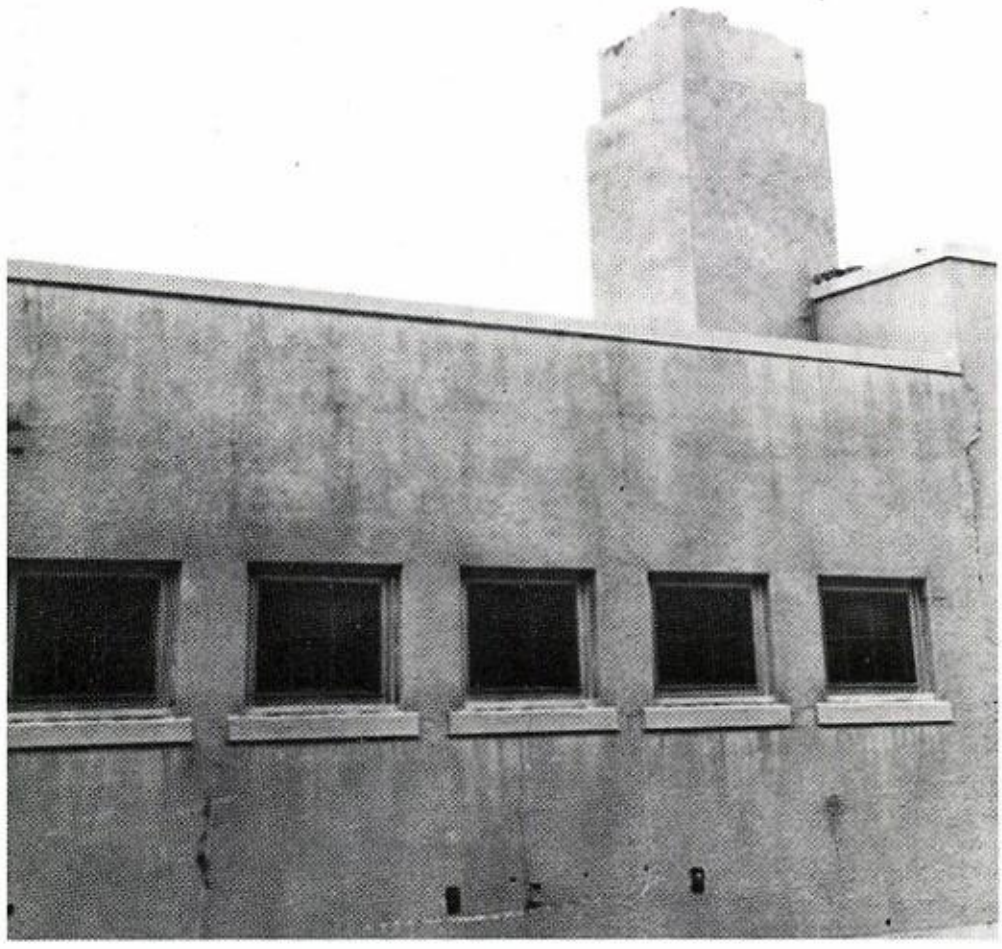


This year has shown a lot of changes in the cafeteria system. In addition to the regular meals and the new snack bar, the cafeteria now offers a la carte items. The cafeteria really aims to please.

Goes On . . .

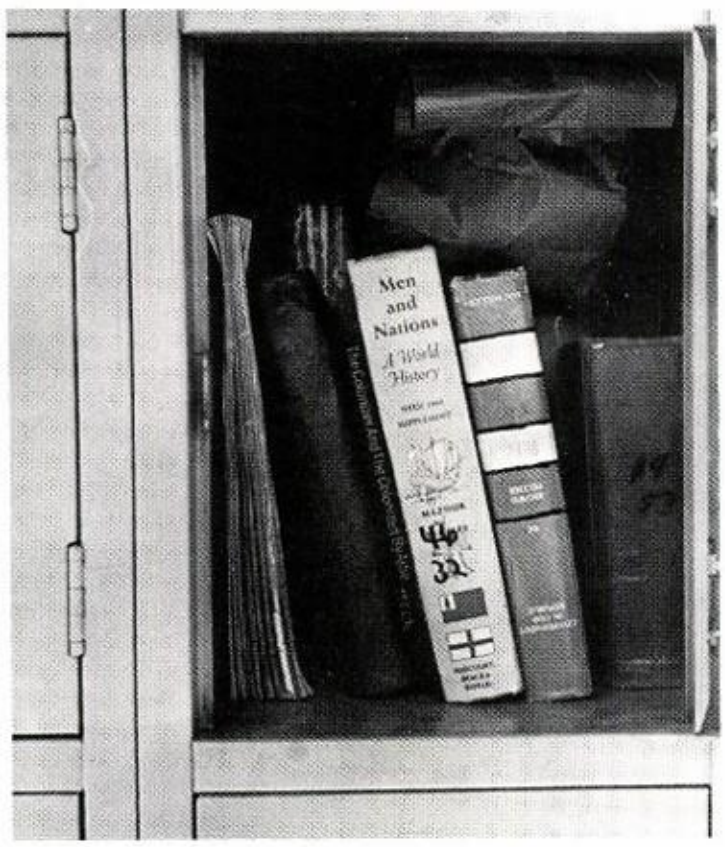
No, Mr. Irwin doesn't read the daily bulletin every morning, but he does use this opportunity to bring the Cardinals an important message. Normally, one of the students brings the agenda of the day to everyone at 8:30 a.m.

The GHS library is modern and up-to-date. References about almost any source of interest are available to those who take the time to find them. The library occupies a special place in the hearts of most GHS students because of the atmosphere it offers.



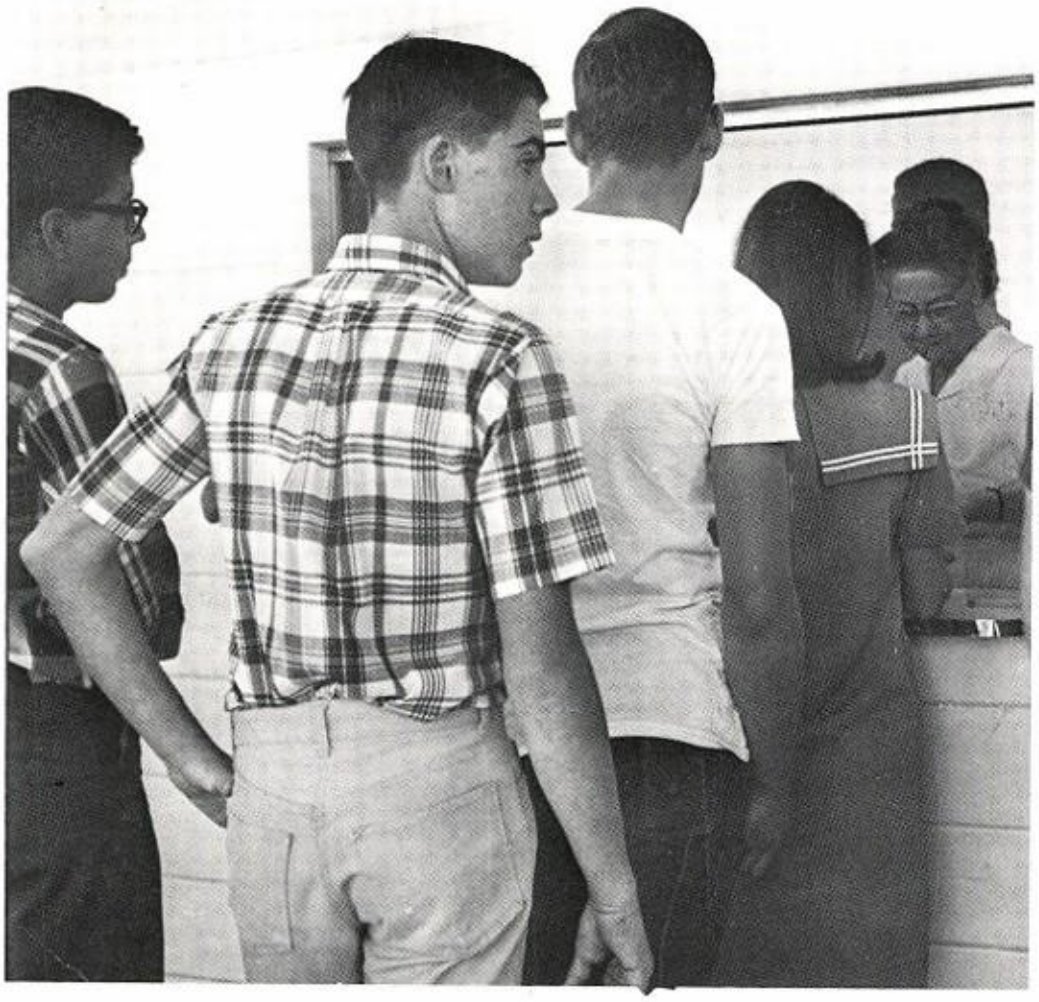
Slowly, but surely, GHS is changing faces. The old Boiler-room smoke stack, once a GHS landmark, is fast becoming a memory.

SWEET MEMORIES



Remember when your locker looked like this?

For those who want variety in their lunch, GHS provides a new snack bar this year. Hot and cold sandwhiches, drinks, and desserts are on sale.



. . . AND REALITIES

Marvin Colvin trys to eat a sandwich, but it's easy to see that he's got that "I wonder how I did on that math test" look.

Dear Advertisers:

We, the members of the 1967 Glendale High School Annual Staff, deeply appreciate your interest in the "Cardinal".

Without your helpful investments, we surely could not have produced such a successful yearbook. We hope that these advertisements will help you as well.

Once again, thank you so very much for your patronage.

Respectfully yours,
